Adams Central Net Schedule Is Announced

Harvey Bastin, Jr., coach of the Adams Central high school, today announced the 1946-47 basketball schedule for his team, which represents the consolidation of Kirkland, Monroe and Washington townships.

The Adams Central team, whose nickname, incidentally, has not yet been selected, holds its practice sessions in the Kirkland gym, but will play no games there. The team will use the Bluffton community building as home gym for five of its games, with the remainder of "home" games to be played on the opponents' floors. These "home" games are at Decatur Catholic, Pleasant Mills, Monmouth and Geneva.

Coach Bastin, the county's only new mentor this year, played four years at Paragon high school, eight miles from Martinsville, and attended Indiana University. This is his first year in the coaching ranks.

Adams Central will have two regulars from last year's Kirkland team, which won the Adams county tourney. They are Jim Arnold and Dick Baumgartner. Two regulars from last season's Monroe team who are available are Glen Rowden and Robert Ehrsam. Several sophomores are also reported as making excellent showings in practice sessions.

The complete schedule follows:

Nov. 4 — Willshire, O. at Willshire.
Nov. 11 — Geneva at Geneva.
Nov. 19 — Jefferson at Bluffton.
Nov. 22 — Pleasant Mills at Pleasant Mills (Adams home game).
Dec. 1 — Hartford at Bluffton.
Dec. 10 — Ossian at Bluffton.
Dec. 16 — Decatur Commodores at Decatur (Adams home game).
Dec. 23 — Monmouth at Monmouth (Adams home game).
Jan. 3 — Pleasant Mills at Pleasant Mills.
Jan. 6 — Monroeville at Hoagland.
Jan. 17 — Chester Center at Bluffton.
Jan. 20 — Geneva at Geneva (Adams home game).
Jan. 27 — Hartford at Hartford.
Jan. 28 — Petroleum at Bluffton.
Feb. 4 — Jackson at Bluffton (Jackson home game).
Feb. 8 — Monmouth at Monmouth.
Feb. 16 — Decatur Commodores at Decatur.

I.U. Thumps Panthers For First Victory

Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—(UP)—The best news on Indiana's football front today was the "arrival" of coach Clyde Smith's hustling Hoosiers.

After suffering 11 consecutive setbacks—seven last season and four in this campaign—they broke the ice with a resounding 48-14 upset of undefeated Pittsburgh.

But Indiana didn't hoist any victory banners. They still have four Big Ten games to go—Wisconsin in the homecoming this week, and then at rugged Illinois and Michigan before the curtain closes against Purdue at home.

Smith, in his sophomore year at I. U., started practically from scratch when he took over from "Bo" McMillin. But his boys performed like old-timers Saturday. The linemen blocked and tackled sharply and tore gaping holes into Pitt's defenses to make room for the sophomore ball carriers—Bobby Robertson, Jim Gomory and Jerry Van Ooyen.

Nick Sebek turned in a brilliant job at quarterback, heaving two touchdown passes to Robertson, and scoring once himself. Robertson also got a third touchdown in the rout.

Purdue, meanwhile, sank to the cellar of the Big Ten by virtue of its 19-0 loss to Illinois. The Boilermakers never seriously threatened and faced a dark future, with conference games at Minnesota and Michigan coming up next.

There still were four undefeated and untied Hoosier outfits. Two of them—Notre Dame and Ball State—were idle last week. Notre Dame, unbeaten in its last 32 games, travels to Baltimore this weekend to sink the Navy, while Ball State puts its four-game winning streak on the line against strong Valparaiso. The Valpo Crusaders blasted Kalamazoo in their homecoming last Saturday, 38 to 0, with Joe Pahr and Mac Heid each scoring twice.

The outfit that will dump Handover's Panthers from the perfect record roster this year hasn't been discovered yet and the Hilltoppers should breeze through their three remaining games with comparative ease. After racking up victory number five at Centre, Ky., 27 to 6, Hanover faces Franklin, Indiana Central and Anderson in the Hoosier College conference.

Carburetor Too Rich Makes Motorist Too Poor

Car owners who are wasting money and not getting proper gas mileage due to over-rich mixtures will be pleased to learn of a Wisconsin inventor who has developed a very clever unit that helps save gasoline by "Vacu-mating." It is automatic and operates on the supercharge principle. Easily installed in a few minutes. Fits all cars, trucks and tractors. The manufacturers, the Vacu-matic Carburetor Co., 7617-700 W. State St., Wauwatosa, Wis., are offering a Vacu-matic to anyone who will install it on his car and help introduce it to others. They will gladly send full free particulars if you write them or just send your name and address on a penny post card today.

Luke Sewell Hired As Reds' Manager

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 24.—(UP)—The Cincinnati Reds had a new manager today in dapper Luke Sewell, an old hand at teaching second division ball club pennant tricks.

Sewell, only man ever to lead the St. Louis Browns to a pennant, signed a two-year contract last night to pilot the Reds in 1950 and 1951. The good-looking 48-year-old former American League catcher succeeds Bucky Walters, who recently was dismissed after Cincinnati finished in seventh place.

Not only did Sewell have a new two-year contract today, but a heart-warming sendoff from club president Warren Giles as well.

"We know Luke as a well-educated, intelligent person with a fine background and successful experience," Giles declared. "He has an outstanding record as a major league coach, player and manager."

"He did almost a miraculous job with the St. Louis Browns and did a fine job here as coach. He knows our ball club and we are confident he will do a great job."

Sewell, who served as coach under Walters this year, was equally pleased about his appointment but somewhat less vocal.

"I'm the happiest man in Cincinnati," he beamed after emerging from his contract-signing conference with Giles. "I worked closely with the Reds last season and know the club has great possibilities."

No stranger to Ohio, Sewell, whose brother Joey once played third base for Cleveland and the New York Yankees, started his pro career with Columbus, O., of the American Association as a catcher in 1921 after being graduated from the University of Alabama.

He led the Browns to the pennant in 1944 but was fired in 1946 while his club languished seventh. He was named Cincinnati coach in 1947.

Pro Football War No Nearer Solution

New York, Oct. 24.—(UP)—The pro football war appeared no nearer solution today—at least as far as the bruised but victorious New York Yankees and New York Giants were concerned.

The Yankees drew 36,197 fans to their 24 to 3 upset victory over the San Francisco Forty-Niners in an All-America conference game at Yankee Stadium yesterday. They heard a few thousand more turnstile clicks than the Giants, who played before 39,587 at the Polo grounds.

Sievers, Newcombe Rookies Of Year

St. Louis, Oct. 24.—(UP)—Roy Sievers, 23-year-old outfielder signed two years ago by the St. Louis Browns for the price of a pair of spiked shoes, today was named American league rookie of the year by the Sporting News, National Baseball weekly.

Don Newcombe, negro pitcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers, was chosen as the outstanding National league rookie by the same poll of baseball writers.

Illinois Takes Over Lead In Big Ten Race

Chicago, Oct. 24.—(UP)—The fighting Illini of coach Ray Eliot stood today at the top of the Big Ten heap in a scramble that gave any one or two of six teams a chance to win the western conference championship.

Illinois advanced to first place Saturday with a 19 to 0 win over Purdue which left it the only undefeated team in league competition and with only one Big Ten tie on the record. But the Illini face Michigan Saturday in the conference game of the week and the Wolverines seemed sure to win.

Still an Illinois victory possibly could mean the conference title, perhaps a return to the Rose Bowl for Eliot, where Buddy Young and his mates whaled U.C. L.A. three years ago.

A Michigan win, while not eliminating Illinois for title contention or the Rose Bowl, would simply scramble the standings even more. And it would give the Wolverines a good chance to come up again with at least a share of the conference championship they have won single handed for the past two seasons.

Illinois, by winning, would have only to beat Ohio State, Indiana and Northwestern to nail down the title and the bowl. But a Michigan victory could leave as many as six teams with only one league defeat and thus a chance for the bowl and the crown.

This sextet of possibilities were Michigan, of course, Minnesota, Iowa, Ohio State, Illinois, and Wisconsin. The Gophers, beaten once, face Purdue and seemed probable winners. Iowa plays Oregon at Iowa City in a non-league game. Ohio State meets twice-beaten Northwestern, while Wisconsin plays at Indiana.

Thus it was possible for every one of them to stay in the once-beaten class this weekend, and Illinois, even losing, could join them. And the Illini, victorious, would be ahead again.

Illinois' win over Purdue was no upset, but it was convincing. Seabacks Johnny Karras and Ronnie Clark and fullback Burt Schmidt roared for 391 yards rushing to guarantee victory.

Michigan's line was terrific against Minnesota's top-rated forwards as Chuck Ortmann led the Wolverines to a 14 to 7 win.

Ohio State had simply too much speed and experience for Wisconsin and took a 21 to 0 win, while Iowa outclassed Northwestern, 28 to 21. The Wildcats came from behind twice to tie, but couldn't go ahead and couldn't hold the Hawk-eyes back.

Indiana's Nick Sebek sparked the Hoosiers to a 48 to 14 triumph over Pittsburgh to break an 11-game losing streak and shatter the Panther string of six consecutive wins.

men had difficulty maneuvering it into place, Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, president of the general assembly, remarked audibly on the speakers' dias, "it is as difficult as passing resolutions."

The box in place, Lie and Harrison then used silver trowels to cement it firmly and workmen lowered the ton and a half stone into its position.

As Lie returned to the speakers' dias, Romulo declared the meeting—officially the 237th plenary session of the general assembly—closed.

The open-air meeting of the assembly was the first to be held since the United Nations was born four years ago today. The delegates sat in slatted chairs in the middle of 42nd Street—New York's famed "show street"—where the street runs into Franklin D. Roosevelt Drive bordering the East river.

Federal labor experts predicted, meanwhile, that President Truman will take personal action to end the steel and coal disputes if they are not settled by Thursday.

White House informants said Mr. Truman might use a Taft-Hartley injunction to send John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers back into the pits before cold weather creates serious hardships.

In the steel dispute, they said, he probably would call industry officials to Washington and urge them to accept his fact-finding board's report which recommended that the CIO steelworkers give up demands for a wage boost while the firms paid for a 10-cent hourly package pension and welfare program.

Unless the IG disputes are settled this week, 2,000,000 workers will be idled, the government said.

BRITISH LABOR

struck at nearly every phase of Britain's economy. The government already had warned that emergency measures must be taken to tighten the nation's economy as result of devaluation of the pound from $4.03 to $2.80.

Attlee coupled his announcement with another appeal for workers to toil longer hours within existing labor arrangements to boost the nation's output, especially for export, Britain's lifeblood.

Opposition leader Winston Churchill complained that Attlee's statement was very complicated and asked whether the steps proposed were adequate.

Attlee replied that chancellor of the exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps would fill in the details when he opens a two-day debate on the program Wednesday.

Herbert Morrison, government leader in commons, said the government would seek a vote of confidence at the conclusion of the debate.
