Capehart-Jacobs Debates Are Set

Butler Fieldhouse For Opener Monday

Indianapolis, Dec. 8. — (UP)—The Capehart-Jacobs debates, scheduled for seven Indiana cities, will open here Monday night in Butler fieldhouse, which has a possible seating capacity of 16,000.

The debaters' respective party state chairmen announced last night the completion of arrangements for the first debate between Sen. Homer Capehart, who will uphold the Republican position on Socialism, and Rep. Andrew Jacobs, who will argue on the Democratic side.

The debates, taken on a statewide tour at Jacobs' suggestion, were seen as a possible opening move in the Indianapolis Democrat's bid for his party's nomination to oppose Capehart in the senatorial race next year.

After the debate at Butler fieldhouse, the two congressmen will speak at Richmond, Valparaiso, Hammond, Fort Wayne, Terre Haute and Evansville. There will be an engagement for six nights of the week following the opening here, with the debaters resting on Sunday.

CUSTOMERS' CORNER

The anti-trust lawyers who want to put A&P out of business don't like our low price policy. They say we use it to drive competitors out of business. Actually, as every customer knows, our low price policy is designed to do just one thing: Give you more good food for your money.

Here are the facts about our low price policy:

1. We keep our profits at a minimum. They average less than 1 1/2 cents on each dollar of sales during the past five years.
2. We have for years had a strict policy against below-cost selling.
3. We do not have any "week-end specials" but feature low prices the whole week long.
4. We charge the lowest practical prices everywhere we operate.

That is why we say, regardless of where you live, you will save money week in and week out by doing all your shopping at A&P.
