D.C.H.S. Junior-Senior Prom Given at Knights of Columbus Hall Wednesday

The junior class of the Decatur Catholic high school entertained the seniors at the annual prom last evening at the Knights of Columbus hall. The juniors were assisted in their arrangements by Sr. Febronia.

Carrying out the theme "Dreamers Holiday," a starlit sky with huge white clouds was arranged in a corner of the room which formed the background for the clever program. Dick Gage, acting as master of ceremonies, introduced the graduating seniors as they will appear in 1950 "if all their dreams come true." A huge scrap book with pictures depicting the various graduates in that future year was used in the illustrations. He was assisted by Miss Ann Gass and Vincent Faurote.

Special vocal selections were then sung by a trio, composed of Miss Phyllis Omlor, Joseph Jauregui and Fred Eyanson, and a group of junior and senior girls.

Miss Pat Mies, Miss Ann Gass, Miss Kathleen Smith, Miss Phyllis Omlor, and Miss Isabelle Kintz. "There Are Dreams and Dreams" was given by the junior class president, Miss Kintz, and Miss Patricia Appelman, senior class president, responded with "Into the World." The address of the evening was given by the Very

Rev. Msgr. J. J. Seitz.

Sixteen sophomore students, assisted by mothers of the junior students, served the delicious dinner preceding the program. Bouquets of sweetpeas and carnations, and tall lighted tapers, decorated the long tables. Each place was marked with a place card and programme. Special guests at the dinner were the Very Rev. Msgr. Seitz, the Rev. Ignatius Vichuras, the Rev. Joseph Hennes and members of the faculty.

A dance from nine to twelve o'clock followed the dinner and program.

A railing, entwined with pastel shades of netting, surrounded the dance floor, and on the walls were placed musical notes. Huge baskets of mixed flowers were also used in the decorations.

MISS NAOMI EVANSON WEDS DONALD BOROFF

The wedding of Miss Naomi Eyanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eyanson, 413 Winchester street, and Donald Boroff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Boroff of Ohio City, O., took place Saturday evening at six thirty o'clock in the rectory of the St. Mary's Catholic church. The Rev. Ignatius Vichuras received the double ring vows.

For her wedding, the bride chose a street-length dress of light blue foilie imprinted with black figured roses. She complemented her attire with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Her attendant, Mrs. Donald Miller, wore light blue taffeta with black accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Donald Miller served the groom as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The groom's parents entertained with a reception on Sunday.

The couple will reside at 638 Taylor street, Van Wert O.
