Ruth G. Lehman Is Wed Friday To Rev. James Harvey

Friday evening at seven o'clock Miss Ruth G. Lehman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tillman H. Lehman of Geneva route one, and the Rev. James D. Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Harvey of Lander, Wyo., were united in marriage in the Cross Evangelical and Reformed church at Berne in a lovely holiday wedding. The Rev. C. A. Schmid officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Ervin Felber, organist, and DeWayne Felber, vocalist, presented the wedding musicale. "Claire de Lune" was played softly during the ceremony and after the exchange of vows, "Sweetest Moment" was sung.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, overlaid with imported galoon lace. Appliqued lace highlighted the skirt, which ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a half-bonnet of white satin and softly gathered illusion, beautified with small pearl clips. A purple orchid topped her white Bible, a gift from the groom.

Miss Winifred Lehman, of Kansas City, Mo., and Miss Rebecca Lehman, both sisters of the bride, were her attendants. They wore identically styled gowns of green faille taffeta and carried bouquets of red carnations tied with red streamers.

The groom was attended by John Sprunger, of Greenville, S. C., and ushers were Martel Pennig, Roger Bixler, Sherman Roth and Gurtis O. Lehman.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church. Miss Anna Sprunger, Miss Phyllis Start, of Plymouth, Mrs. Curtis O. Lehman, and the Misses Shirley Sprunger, Evelyn Miller and Kathleen At-felder served the guests.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in the parsonage of the Baptist church in Demorest, Ga., where the Rev. Harvey is now serving as pastor.

Mrs. Harvey, a graduate of Hartford township high school, attended International Business college at Fort Wayne and Bob Jones University in Greenville, S. C. Until recently she was society editor for the Berne Witness. Rev. Harvey is a graduate of Lander high school and Bob Jones University.
