

Peter A. Habegger Dies This Morning

Funeral Services Sunday Afternoon

Peter A. Habegger, 80, retired farmer and former Monroe township assessor, died at 1:45 o'clock this morning at his home in Berne following a year's illness.

He was born in Canton, Bern, Switzerland, Oct. 12, 1871, a son of Abraham M. and Lena Moser-Habegger, but had lived in Adams county since he was four years old. His wife, the former Anna Neuenwander, died in 1939.

He was a member of the First Mennonite church.

Surviving are five sons, Andrew, Clinton and Sylvan, all of Berne; Arley and Milo of near Berne; three daughters, Mrs. Fred Nussbaum of near Monroe, and Mrs. Albert Lehman and Mrs. Dale Johnson of near Berne; 28 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; four brothers, Mennos, Eli, Robert and Jacob, all of Berne, and one sister, Mrs. Benhart Lehman of Berne.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday at the First Mennonite church, the Rev. Olin A. Krebs officiating. Burial will be in the MIRE cemetery. The body will be removed from the Yager funeral home to the residence, where friends may call after 7 o'clock this evening.

Rural Youth Meeting Held Last Evening

Problems Discussed At Meeting Thursday

A group discussion on rural youth activities and problems was the educational feature at the rural youth meeting Thursday evening at the Lincoln school gym in Decatur.

Jim Merriman, county president, opened the business session after which Dorothy Oetting gave the secretary's report and Glennys Auman the treasurer's report.

Announcements were made concerning the rural youth radio programs which will be held every Saturday at 11:30 a.m. over WKJG with neighboring rural youth clubs participating. Adams county will be on the air February 9. The members received an invitation to go to Pokagon state park January 27 with the Henry county youth club. The Rural youth play "The Meddlesome Maid," will be given in Huntington January 24.

The program books for 1952 were distributed. Plans were made to attend the district meeting at the Huntington township school Monday night. All members are asked to meet at the county extension office by 6:30 p.m.

Group singing was led by Wavy Lehman, followed by the group discussion, led by Gloria Koenehan.

Recreation was directed by Dorothy Oetting and refreshments served by Doris Keuneke and Paul Busse.

The next meeting will be a Valentine's party February 14.

Rural youth present at the meeting were: Doris Keuneke, Marie Witte, Donna Schaefer, Glennys Auman, Dorothy Oetting, Esther Sowards, Wavy Lehman, Coleen Almandinger, Mary Anne Owens, Gloria Koenehan, Jim Merriman, Lester Thieme, Paul Busse, Homer Arnold Jr., Avon Scott, Charlie Ripley, Herald Bailey, Bob Gage, Raymond Worden, Bonnie Wirthman, and the extension advisors, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Archbold.
