

"Under My White Cross Plan I get up to $15 for 100 PER DAY plus $5 to $250 For My Surgeon"

Based on past records, 48,736 persons will be rushed to hospitals today. This year 1 out of 9 persons in the U.S. will be hospitalized. That means 1 person out of your family or your neighbor's is due to become a hospital case within the next year. And 60% of those cases will require surgery. More than 25,000,000 smart persons have already taken out some form of hospital plan.

Rates Never Raised
Because the WHITE CROSS PLAN employs standard underwriting procedures to develop a select group of lives, it has never found it necessary to make a single upward adjustment in general rates. You kept the rate you started with, even if you started at the 75c child's rate; it did not increase when you became an adult as long as you stayed on this, your original policy.

We Pay Your Hospital, Your Doctor or YOU!
It's "your money" and subject to your orders. You just tell us where to send your check.

$ Pays hospital room, and meals from $4 up to $15 per day, up to 100 hospital days per year, per person.

$ Pays Surgeon's fees from $5.00 to $250.00 for operations in home, hospital or doctor's office.

$ Pays for X-Rays, medicines, treatments (as specified) given in hospital, even though not bed patient.

$ Pick any Surgeon and any Hospital.

Traffic Leads Toll Of Violent Deaths

Traffic Accidents Lead List Of Killers

By the United Press
Traffic accidents led the list of killers as death struck in several forms of violence during the Indiana week-end.

At least four persons were killed in auto accidents. Two were drowned. Five others died in miscellaneous accidents. A man was killed in a game of "Russian roulette."

Patsy Jane Manen, 13, Albany, died Sunday in a Muncie hospital of injuries suffered earlier in the day when an auto driven by her sister, Wanda, 17, went out of control and turned over on a country road near Granville. Wanda was hurt slightly.

A similar accident claimed the life of Mrs. Ethel Williams, 68, Tipton. State police said she was hurled 20 feet from the car when it left a country road north of her home, tore down 50 feet of fence and turned over twice.

William E. Taylor, 86, retired chief engineer of the Terre Haute water works, and his wife, Agnes, also 86, were killed Saturday in a two-car collision on U. S. 40 east of Terre Haute.

Besides these, Thomas Tooms, 20, Waynedale, died Saturday of injuries suffered the night before when he was hurled from a car against a second-floor window of a house it struck near Fort Wayne.

Eleven-year-old Lloyd Jones, Carthage, was drowned Sunday when he dived into Big Blue river north of his home to retrieve his fishing rod.

At Rensselaer, Chester Tokarz, 18, East Chicago, was drowned Sunday when he fell from a boat into an abandoned limestone quarry near St. Joseph's college where he was a freshman.

Louis F. Churilla, Jr., 10-year-old son of state rep. Louis F. Churilla, East Chicago, was shocked fatally Sunday when he touched high-tension wires while playing on a viaduct near his home.

Six-year-old Patricia Miller of East Gary died in Mercy hospital at Gary a few hours after she was struck by a freight locomotive as she crossed the New York Central tracks in her home town Saturday.

A two-year-old Crawfordville girl was killed Saturday when struck by a Big Four passenger train near her home. Crew members of the train said they saw Martha Kay Winebrenner seated on the tie as the train approached, but were unable to stop in time.

A game of "Russian roulette" was blamed for the death of Winfrey Hunsaker, 24, in the kitchen of his home at Evansville, Saturday night. Hunsaker's wife, Margie, and brother-in-law, Thomas Donaldson, 17, told police he put a cartridge in a target pistol, spun the chamber, placed the muzzle against his temple and fired. The victim's son, Larry, two, also witnessed the shooting.

Reckless Driving Is Charged To Autoist

Erwin Ross, 19, Decatur, arrested following the four car collision at Monroe and Second streets Friday night, will face a charge of reckless driving in justice of peace court next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Ross car was the fourth in the row and it jammed into the vehicle in front of it causing damage to the four cars in a line.

Arthur Luginbill, Bluffton, route 1, pleaded guilty to public intoxication and disorderly conduct in mayor's court this morning. Luginbill was fined $10 and costs on the public intoxication charge and $5 and costs on the disorderly conduct charge. He was arrested by city police Sunday when found in his parked automobile. Luginbill was taken to jail where he remained until he appeared at 10 o'clock this morning mayor's court.

Flood Covers Fourth Of Utah State Capital

Salt Lake City Has Worst Flood In Its History From Snow

Salt Lake City, Utah, April 28—(UP)—The worst flood in the history of Salt Lake City today covered one-quarter of the Utah state capital as the Missouri and Mississippi rivers burst through dikes and engulfed thousands of acres of farmland.

More than 150 of Salt Lake City's 600 blocks were flooded.

South 13th street, which bisects the city east and west, was converted into a canal by hundreds of city employees and volunteers who sandbagged each side, hoping to keep the water out of the bordering buildings.

The water varied from a few inches to four feet deep.

The flood came from the runoff of record snows in the Wasatch mountains when a prolonged period of warm weather melted much of the 120 inches of snow and sent it cascading down the mountain streams.

The normal winter accumulation of snow is only 30 inches.

Three creek—Emigration, Parley's Creek and Red Butte—normally flow under the streets in the city's south central industrial sections. But the runoff was so great that the culverts were unable to handle it.

One primary danger was at the Mountain Dell reservoir in Parley's canyon. It already was filled to capacity, and the water continued to pour into it.

The full force of the raging creek poured directly into the city after reservoir no longer served as a shock absorber of the rushing waters.

Mayor Earl J. Glade and other city officials refused to estimate either the number of persons homeless or the damage.

The Mississippi river, meanwhile, battered its way through a dike near Fulton, Ill., and swept over 3,000 to 5,000 acres of farmland.

The crest of the Mississippi passed Clinton, Ia., across the river from Fulton, at 29.9 feet yesterday and headed for Mustatine and Davenport.

In Clinton itself, the pressure of the Mississippi's record crest backed up sewers. Volunteers and national guardsmen sandbagged manholes trying to keep the water under control.

Water covered the streets as far as eight blocks from the river.

The Missouri river, sweeping eastward across Missouri toward its junction with the Mississippi above St. Louis, also burst through dikes at seven points in the area of Washington, Mo.

Army engineers declined to estimate the exact number of acres flooded by the breakthrough, but they issued a new figure of more than 600,000 flooded acres in the Missouri's headlong rush from Rulo, Neb., southward.

Heavy Traffic Here Over Past Week-end

Mild weather and heavy traffic over the week-end kept the police busy. There were no personal injury accidents reported but property damage amounted to several hundred dollars. The vehicles involved in the four-car jam at Second and Monroe streets Friday night were driven by Mrs. Alta Brown, Decatur route 3; Leonard Funk, Preble; Ralph Myers and Erwin Ross, Decatur. Damage to the automobiles amounted to more than $500.

Vera May Jameson, Monroeville, route 2, was arrested by city police after the car she was driving struck a tree Saturday at Monroe and 12th streets. She was charged with operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license. Mrs. Jameson will appear April 30 in justice of peace court. Albert Davidson, Pleasant Mills, whose automobile struck a parked car belonging to Victor Braun, Decatur, at Mercer avenue and High street was charged with leaving the scene of an accident. Davidson paid a fine of $10 and costs in justice of peace court.

A national survey showed nearly 83 per cent of motorists involved in traffic accidents were driving straight ahead just before the impact.

Worst Disaster

New York, Apr. 28—(UP)—The sinking of the destroyer-mine-sweeper Hobson, with 176 men presumed lost, became the worst modern peacetime disaster in the U. S. navy's history.

The navy's worst previous peacetime disaster was the death of 48 men in an explosion aboard the U. S. S. Mississippi off San Pedro, Calif., June 12, 1924.

There were two great submarine disasters. The submarine O-9 went down in a deep diving test off Portsmouth, N. H., June 16, 1941, killing 33 men. On May 23, 1939, the Squalus sank off Portsmouth, with 26 lost and 33 saved by a diving bell.

Seven U. S. destroyers—the Delphic, S. P. Lee, Chauncey, Fuller, Woodbury, Nicholas and Young—ran aground off Honda Point, Calif., on Sept. 3, 1923, causing 22 deaths.

The worst single World War II naval disaster was the damaging of the U. S. aircraft carrier Franklin, with the loss of 832 men. Next was the torpedoing of the U. S. Paul Hamilton off Algiers, North Africa, with 504 dead. The grounding of the destroyer Truxton and cargo ship Polux off Newfoundland cost 204 lives and the torpedoing of the Wasp in the Solomons killed 180. The loss of the destroyers Hull, Monaghan and Spence in a Pacific typhoon took 516 lives.

Indiana Host To Exchange Students

Indiana, states E. A. Holm, Purdue assistant in 4-H club work, will be host to a number of I. F. Y. E. exchange delegates. These people will be in Indiana from July 1 to October 1. While here they will live with Indiana farm families. At least 50 percent of their time will be given to farm work. Farm families entertaining these foreign guests should be families that have children between the ages of 14 and 20.

Any family interested in getting first hand information about problems and living conditions in a foreign country can get application blanks at the county extension office.

The I. F. Y. E. program will be of more than passing interest here as an Adams county young woman will go to Europe for the same period. She is Miss Beulah Bertsch, who will be assigned to the American zone of Germany. She will have an opportunity to visit Switzerland.

Ike Bids Farewell To British Troops

Farewell Address Made By Eisenhower

Minden, Germany, April 28—(UP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said goodbye to cheering British troops today and told them not to act like "haughty conquerors" in Germany.

Eisenhower flew here from Paris this morning for a three-day farewell visit to the 19-division allied force he built up in West Germany.

He reviewed 1,200 British soldiers, sailors and airmen as reports were received that President Truman nominated Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway to become new allied supreme commander. However, Eisenhower was not immediately available for comment.

"It is not your role to be a haughty conqueror, an arbitrary ruler of other peoples, even when they in the past have been conquered," Eisenhower told the troops drawn up before him at Elizabeth barracks parade ground here.

The British army put on a display of all its traditional pomp and ceremony for the supreme commander who landed at the nearby British Bueckburg air base in his four-motored personal plane, "The Columbine."

In his farewell address to the troops standing at attention before him, Eisenhower warned of "possible attack" on the west's "humanistic civilization."

"The time draws near," Eisenhower concluded, "when once again I'm going to leave this particular region of the world. Nothing has occurred during this whole past year that has made me anything less than proud."

Says Hoosier GOP Full Of Confidence

Cheer As Schriker Says He's Through

Indianapolis, Ind., April 28—(UP)—Here is a state where Republicans bubble with 1952 confidence, and with good reason.

They carried the state for the last three Republican presidential candidates, licking FDR twice in the process. Both of Indiana's United States senators are Republicans. The house score is 9 to 2 in favor of the GOP.

Further to sweeten Republican dreams is the fact that the best Democratic vote getter in the state says he is through with politics—with public office, anyway. He is Gov. Henry F. Schriker, a Democrat who usually can persuade even some of Indiana's very Republican Republicans to vote for him.

Schriker told the United Press today he would not be a candidate for the U. S. senate this year. His opponent probably would be Sen. William Jenner (R-Ind.), who is expected to obtain nomination to a second term without much trouble.

And Schriker said he would not offer himself as a favorite son presidential candidate, either, not even for the purpose of keeping the state's delegates to the Democratic national convention in a safe place until they could be most advantageously utilized.

Schriker is popular despite 20 years in executive and legislative office. But at 66 he says now he has had enough. With the governor out of their hair, Indiana Republicans await election day more confident than somewhat.

The Indiana Republican organization favors Sen. Robert A. Taft. There is sentiment in the state for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. Republican delegates will be chosen by state convention July 3, four days before the Republican national convention.

Eisenhower backers evidently intend to let the organization pick the state without much protest, but to attempt to lure away from Taft a handful or more of delegates later by individual persuasion. The comparative speeds of the Taft and Eisenhower bandwagons in the fortnight before the Republican convention probably will have much to do with the success of the effort to split the delegation.

The zip departed from Indiana Democratic presidential politics when neighboring Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois said he did not want the 1952 Democratic nomination. There is no enthusiasm for other announced Democratic candidates here.

A draft - Stevenson movement would get quick response in Indiana. Stranger things have happened.
