LUNCHEON FOR FORMER PRESIDENTS OF CLUBS

All former presidents of Adams county's Home Demonstration clubs are being invited to a luncheon. The fall get together will be held at the Marine Room of the Berne Auditorium at 12 noon Thursday, Oct. 30.

Mrs. Noel Hemphill is chairman of the affair with Mrs. Noah Hahberger as her assistant and Mrs. Harry Crownover as secretary-treasurer.

The luncheon will be served by the restaurant operators before the program. Arrangements are being completed to have several of the women who were presidents of their clubs in the early days of home economics extension to give short talks, recalling the purposes that brought members to their groups and accomplishments of their women in community life.

Special music is being arranged for the entertainment.

Reservations are being made at the county extension office until Monday.

OCTOBER MEETING HELD OF BETTER HOMES CLUB

The October meeting of the Better Homes club was held with Mrs. Eliza Hahbert Tuesday evening and begun at seven thirty o'clock with members coming masked, in keeping with the season. Clifty Fruchte won the prize for being dressed the funniest and Ilene Borne was the last one guessed.

The group sang the club song of the month to begin the session, followed with the club creed. Roll call was answered by telling of a foolish superstition. Gladys Crownover gave the devotions and read a poem.

Mrs. Martha Stucky read a letter from Mrs. John Pickering, who moved to Fort Wayne, and the business meeting began and was conducted by the president and nominating committee.

Officers for the new year are Martha Stucky, president; Martha Essex, vice-president; Ruth Wittwer, secretary; Doris Burkhead, treasurer; Gladys Crownover, Tessie Ray, leaders; Marie Hoffman, Aida Crist, alternate leaders, and publicity chairman, Eva Brewster. Refreshments were served during the social by the hostess and assisting her were Mrs. Floyd and Cecilia Cramer.

F. F. A. CHAPTER IN MEETING RECENTLY

The F. F. A. chapter of Decatur held their regular meeting recently at the Decatur high school. The meeting was called to order by the president, Russell Plumley, and the opening ceremony was held.

Arden Fuelling was initiated as a Green Hand and then became a member of the Decatur chapter. The election of officers was also held.

The new officers are Walter Lehman, president; Allen Grote, vice-president; Stanley Allison, treasurer; Russell Plumley, news reporter, and Richard Marbach, sentinel. The evening ended with the closing ceremony.
