

SPORTS

Illini Slight Favorites To Defeat Purdue

CHICAGO UP — No more than two teams will be able to share first place after Saturday's slate of four Big Ten football games and perhaps only one will be at the top of the heap with an undefeated record in league play.

Two games involve the three undefeated leaders and either Michigan or Minnesota, each with two wins and no losses, will be knocked down a peg after their battle at Ann Arbor. Should the two clubs tie, both could drop down.

Purdue appears at Illinois in the national television contest of the day and the defending champion Illini, though unable to win either of its Big Ten games so far, was favored to hand the Boilermakers the first conference defeat in three games.

Michigan, beaten in its first two starts this year, was a 13 point favorite to down Minnesota, also defeated in its first two games and hard pressed to win its next two for a two-nothing Big Ten mark.

Ohio State was a strong choice to defeat Iowa, yet to win a game this season; at Iowa City in a third conference match while the Northwestern-Indiana game at Evanston, was rated even.

In non-conference clashes Wisconsin, a pre-season choice for the league title, tangles with undefeated UCLA of the west coast, while Michigan State will try for its 20th consecutive victory against Penn State at East Lansing. Notre Dame was a two touchdown favorite over North Carolina, which had to cancel two games because of polio which struck its squad and which lost its other two contests, at South Bend.

The Wisconsin-UCLA game stacked up as one of the best of the day as the UCLANS rank as the best defensive team on the west coast, intercepting 21 enemy passes in five games, while the Badgers, despite defeat by Ohio State, still were rated as one of the top midwest teams. Wisconsin was a touchdown favorite.

Concord grapes are the chief agricultural product of Put-in-Bay Island, site of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry's victory over a British Lake Erie fleet in the War of 1812.

Commodore Season Tickets On Sale

Season tickets for the Decatur Commodores basketball games are now on sale, following distribution of the tickets at the recent Commodore Boosters club meeting.

Adult tickets are priced at $3.50 and student tickets at $2. for the nine home games on the Commodores schedule.

There will be one general single admission price for each home game of 50 cents, applicable to all, and Commodore fans are urged to take advantage of the savings in purchase of the season tickets.

Adult season tickets may be purchased from Booster club members, team members or at the following business establishments: K. of C. hall, Wertzberger's confectionery, Holthouse drug store, Holthouse-Schulte, the Gass store and Bob's place.

Student tickets will be sold in the faculty room of the school Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Point To Need For Equal Opportunity

Truman, Ike And Adlai In Messages

CHICAGO UP — President Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson were agreed today on a universal need for equal opportunity in messages to the anti-defamation league of B'nai B'rith.

The Jewish league released the text of the messages Thursday on the opening of its 39th annual meeting.

Mr. Truman praised Sen. Herbert H. Lehman D-N.Y. who was voted the league's annual American's democratic legacy award.

The President, himself winner of the award in 1949, said Lehman "stood by my side in some of the greatest battles for human rights that have yet been fought."

He warned that this is "a period when civil liberties are gravely threatened" and lauded the group for its fight against "prejudice and discrimination."

U. N. EMPLOYEE

(Continued From Page One) had met Chambers again and that he transmitted a letter, the contents of which he did not know, to two men he did not know. But he believed them to be in the Communist underground.

Zabłodowsky indicated he had received the letter from J. Peters, alleged head of the Communist underground in the United States, whom he met through Chambers.

He said he knew that Chambers was a member of the Communist underground and that Peters was

20 COUNTRIES

(Continued From Page One) nite would be "full and frank account" of the true negotiations and would deal with efforts to gain peace—not only by the U. N. and the U. S. but by other member countries individually.

The U. S. published its resolution Thursday, but because the committee was not ready to hear Acheson until 5:16 p. m., it delayed its formal presentation to the secretaries until today in hopes of gaining more sponsors.

One country expected to join the growing list of co-sponsors was France.

U. S. spokesmen refused to list the group of countries joining in sponsorship. They explained that if such a list were made public, it might mislead other governments still expected to join the U. S. in to believing that the sponsorship was closed to them.

Following Saturday night's game against the Mercurys, the Komets will remain idle until Tuesday night when the Grand Rapids Rockets will move into the Coliseum for the second league encounter of the season.

The heaviest winter snowfall ever recorded in Minneapolis was 90 inches during the 1951-52 winter season.

Democrat Want Ads Bring Results

KEY T-MAN ----- By Alan Maver

RALPH GUGLIELMI,

PROMISING SOPH QUARTERBACK OF NOTRE DAME!

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.

A proposal to move the start of football season up to Sept. 1 instead of the opening day of school was tabled for further study. Action on this matter will be taken at the council's May, 1953, meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, UP — The Indiana high school athletic association's board of control will continue to select and assign basketball tournament officials following an action announced by the IHSAA's athletic council Thursday.

L. V. Phillips, commissioner of the IHSAA, said the 23-man council rejected unanimously a proposal by Principal Ober Pietz, Thorntown, to permit schools entered in a sectional tourney to select their own officials by majority vote.

The council did approve, however, a proposal permitting high school students to participate in pro-amateur golf tourneys without affecting their amateur standing. Phillips said the students may compete providing they do not accept cash or merchandise prizes. They may accept trophy and medal awards.

The council also amended its amateur rules concerning prep baseball players to read that any high school student who directly or indirectly signs a professional contract loses his amateur standing and immediately become ineligible for all high school sports.