

Two Drivers Fined On Traffic Counts

Edward Baker, of Hamilton, O., was fined $5 and costs by justice of the peace Floyd Hunter yesterday. Baker was arrested on US 27 at noon for passing over the yellow line.

Arthur Durham, of Fort Wayne, was fined $14.75 yesterday for reckless driving at 13th and Monroe at 11:35 p.m. July 29.

Frederick A. Dellinger, of 210 S. Ninth street, will appear in justice of the peace court today to answer charges of reckless driving. Dellinger was arrested on Mercer avenue at 5:20 a.m. Saturday.

A case of disorderly conduct against Melvyn Ladd, of route 2, was continued indefinitely by Mayor John Doan in city court today, when it was discovered that the alleged charge grew from a pending divorce action in the circuit court. Ladd was arrested on 13th street at 4 a.m. yesterday.

The charge of public intoxication against Salvador Alonzo was also continued indefinitely, pending good behavior. Edgar Clem was fined $5 and costs for passing over the yellow line on May 23. The case had been continued several times, the latest until Mayor Doan had personally inspected the accident scene.

fair. Other premiums in this division were: second premium, Beverly Meyers, St. Mary's Kerklongas; third, Rosemary Schlickman, Kirkland Kat-Ups; fourth, Geraldine Johnson, Blue Creek Up and At It; fifth, Helen Reppert, Preble.

There were 64 cookie entries in division II, topped by Nancy Cook of St. Mary's, who will bake another cookie exhibit for the state fair. Second was Sharon Miller, of Jefferson; third, Judith Habegger, of Berne; fourth, Gladys Myers, of Monmouth; fifth, Marla Merriam, of Blue Creek.

In division III of baking, LaVera Witte of Preble made the best angel food cake, she will exhibit another at the state fair this year. Patricia Krueckeberg, of Union township, was second; third, Bonnie Conrad, Preble; fourth, Carol Heller, Kirkland; fifth, Joan Kuhn, Jefferson.

Marilyn Christener, of Monroe, made the best yeast rolls in division IV. Second, Carol Schuller, Preble; Louise Lehman, Jefferson, third; Hope Myers, Wabash township, fourth; Carolyn Zimmerman, Berne, fifth. The first place entry will go to the state fair.

All baked goods have been stored in the Schmitt Locker at Decatur this past week, and will be taken to Monroe Tuesday morning by a truck provided by Al Beavers.

Home Demonstration
Sally Von Gunten, of Berne, has the first premium in the beginning division of the home improvement project. Second place was won by Carol Egley of Kirkland; third, Nancy Jo Liechty, of Wabash; and fourth, Shirley Wass, of Union.

Others receiving premiums in the advanced home demonstration project were: second, Elaine Blakey, Union; third, Carol Haggard, Kirkland; fourth, Colleen Egley, Jefferson. Fourteen girls took the home improvement project this and five were in the advanced division.

Clothing Exhibit Winners
Gail Egley, of Jefferson township, ranked first in division I of the clothing projects. Her apron was selected for the state fair exhibition. Second in this class was Barbara Jackson of St. Mary's township; third, Kathleen Shoaf, of the same club; fourth, Onalee Barkley, of Decatur; fifth, Sherrell Beer, of Berne. A headscarf made by Karen Cauble of Kirkland was also selected to be shown at the state fair.

In division II, where 42 girls made skirts and tea towels, the following premiums were awarded: first, Connie Bergman, Monmouth; second, Lois Jean Gerke, Union; third, Judy Yoder, Monroe Boosters; fourth, Janice Yoder, Wabash Cloverleaf; fifth, Darlene Smitley, Jefferson. Connie Bergman's skirt will go to the state fair.

Carol Norquest, of Decatur, topped the 36 entrants of division III with a grey cotton dress, which will go to the state fair. Second was Sonja Yoder, of Monroe township; third, Marcella Buuck, of the Preble Peppy Pals; fourth, Evelyn Griffiths, of Kirkland; fifth, Joyce Embertin, of Berne.

Carol Heller, of Kirkland, was first in division IV with Amy Jo Elcher of Monroe second. Linda Raudebush of Blue Creek and Betty Myers, also of Blue Creek, were third and fourth, and Carolyn Mitchell of Washington, was fifth. There were 26 in this class; Miss Heller's dress will be entered in the state fair contest.

A red jumper outfit made by Mary Myers of Blue Creek was first premium winner in division V, and will represent Adams county at the state fair. Other winners were Gretchen Schnepf, Washington township, second; Ruth Sipe, Blue Creek, third; Marilyn Christener, Monroe, fourth; and Doris Blumh, Washington, fifth. There were 11 entrants in division V.

Colleen Egley, of Jefferson, grand champion winner, was also first in division VI. The other state fair entry from this class is a skirt and blouse made by Cynthia Lehman of Washington township. Second premium went to Sharon Schuller, of Preble Peppy Pals, with a grey and a blue dress. Norma Jean Bailey, of St. Mary's, was third; Carolyn Zimmerman, of Berne, fourth; and Doris Cauble, Kirkland, fifth.

Alice Stuber, of Jefferson, was first in division VII. Her exhibit is a blue wool suit and a coat of blue poodle cloth. Other premiums went to Esbell Burkhardt, of Jefferson, second with a white coat and a grey dress; third, also from Jefferson, Carol Rose Wall, with a tax wool suit and a beige wool dress. Fourth place went to Elaine Blakey, of Union township, with a pale blue wool dress with velvet trim and a grey skirt and pink blouse; fifth, Janet Shady, of Kirkland, who made two lavender dresses, one a party dress of organdy, and the other of wool. The wool dress is a state fair entry. The long blue net formal made by Carolyn Christener of Monroe was also selected for the state fair.

These selections were made by Mrs. P. B. Smith, of Waynesdale on Saturday afternoon after visiting all clubs in the county during the week.

Food Preservation
In division I of the food preservation exhibits Connie Bergman of Monmouth placed first with three jars of canned fruit. Her apricots were chosen for the state fair. Gail Egley of Jefferson, was second, also with an exhibit of canning. Her jar of tomatoes will go to the state fair. Third premium was won by Sally Von Gunten of Berne with an exhibit of frozen food; fourth and fifth places were also won by frozen food exhibits prepared by Judy Yoder of Monroe, and Judith Nussbaum of Berne. There were 26 girls in this class.

Doris Blumh, of Washington township, was first in a class of 15 in division II. She had frozen corn and canned green beans; the latter will be shown at the state fair. Carol Kaehr of Kirkland was second with an exhibit of frozen food; Nancy Shoaf of Monroe, third, will exhibit a pint of cream-style corn at the state fair; fourth and fifth places went to Janice Liechty and Karen Nussbaum, both of the Monroe Boosters club.

Ruth Zimmerman of Berne was first in food preservation III, and Patty Liechty, of Monroe, was second. Both of their exhibits were of frozen foods. Kathleen Adler of Kirkland was third, her canned tomatoes and beets were chosen by the judge to be exhibited at the state fair. Costa Hike, of Monroe, placed fourth and Ruth Sipe of Blue Creek, was fifth. There were 15 in this class.

The four girls in division IV ranked as follows: Alice Joan Sprunger, Monroe; first; Norma Bailey, St. Mary's, second; Deanna Sipe, Blue Creek, third; Mary Jane Rice, Monroe, fourth. An exhibit of tomatoes and beets belonging to Alice Sprunger and one of cherries and blackberries of Norma Bailey's were selected for the state fair.

The grand champion exhibit, by Patsy Bollenbacher, was one of eight in division V. Second place in this class went to Dianne Liechty of Monroe, with an all-frozen exhibit. For third place Colleen Egley of Jefferson has frozen and canned foods. Her jars of spiced pears, relish, and pickled beets, will go to the state fair. Fourth place went to Helen Rumpke, and fifth to Alice Stuber, both of Jefferson.

crease to four the federal judgeships in Indiana.

Holder was the choice of Senators Jenner and Caphart, but was persona non grata with the Craig group. He had battled bitterly for the nomination of Senator Robert Taft, and opposed that of Eisenhower in the 1952 convention.

A couple months ago, the senators had said any talk of a compromise in the judgeship stalemate was "incredible."

But compromise appeared to be the only answer to the bombshell announcement that one protégé of each GOP camp was nominated.

Gov. George N. Craig, when asked for comment, would say only:

"I hope both men have long and happy terms as 'federal judges.'"

Holder said that he had not as yet received an official notice of his nomination and would have no statement until he did.

Pallbearer Dies Enroute To Rites

RICHMOND, Ind. (INS)—Funeral rites were planned today for a 50-year-old pallbearer who died suddenly during burial ceremonies for his uncle.

George G. Wolfenbarker, 50, of Richmond, was en route to serve as pallbearer at the funeral of his uncle, John Goehner, when death struck again. He collapsed and died at the wheel of his car. His wife, Cleo, grabbed the wheel and guided the car to a stop to avoid an accident.

Traffic Takes Lives On State Highways

One Dead In Crash East Of New Haven

INDIANAPOLIS (INS)—Indiana's traffic death toll during the week-end was comparatively light.

However, Mrs. Bernice Olsen, 44, of Chicago, who was returning from her honeymoon with her husband, W. A. Olsen, was killed when an automobile left Road 43 seven miles south of Greencastle to avoid an oncoming car that crossed the center line on a curve. Olsen is promotion director for Hunting and Fishing Magazine.

Baldassare Seidita, 21, of Milwaukee, Wis., was killed and six persons were hurt in a two-car collision on a sharp curve on Road 36 three miles east of New Haven, Allen county.

Two women were injured fatally when two cars collided head-on three miles south of Pierceton on Road 13. The victims were Mrs. Leta I. Dietzen, 54, of Kokomo, wife of Jesse A. Dietzen, who owns bakeries in Kokomo, Marion, Muncie, Richmond and Anderson, and Mrs. Elsie Stoefting, 41, wife of the Rev. Franklin Stoefting, of Willow Branch.

Glenn B. Brown, 35, of Indianapolis, met death when his motorcycle was struck head-on by a car on Road 67 four and one-half miles southwest of Muncie. The automobile was driven by Ralph E. Hersley, 35, of Muncie, who was passing another car in a fog.

Homer Lakin, 62, of R. R. 6, Bensenville, was injured fatally in a two-car crash at the intersection of state roads 55 and 14 in Jasper county where the right-of-way recently had been changed. Bernard E. Taylor, 43, of Griffith, driver of one of the cars, was believed by police to have thought he still had the right-of-way when he struck the side of a car in which Lakin was riding.

Taylor was hurt critically and six others were injured also.

John C. Nettleton, 35, of Millersburg, and his wife, Marjorie, 29, were killed in a two-car crash south of Hammond at the intersection of Ind. 2 and 41, and their two children, John, 7, and Gary, 1, were critically injured. Also critically hurt were Clarence Reavely, 32, Quincy Stephens, and Barbara Bledsoe, all of Chicago, who were riding in the second car.

Dr. Ernest M. Conrad, 84, of Anderson, was killed in a two-car collision three miles east of Lapel on an unmarked county road intersection.

Says Red China Plans To Liberate Formosa

HONG KONG (INS)—Red China's military commander-in-chief, Gen. Chu Teh, has warned that the Communists intend to "liberate" the Nationalist-held island of Formosa.
