Turn off the air conditioner and turn up the thermostat.

October skies are clearing and glorious days are ahead.

At this time of the year it is much easier to be a poet about the beauty of falling leaves than it is to rake them.

Do your weekend shopping from the ads in this newspaper.
Local stores offer you the best in merchandise, friendly service and savings on the dollar.

The army will induct 23,000 men during December. Since there is no shooting war, it seems the draft could have been postponed until after the Christmas season.

We doubt if the public is as deeply interested in the marital bust-up of pin-up girl Monroe and DiMaggio, as some columnists and commentators would indicate.
It sounds like the old stuff.
Marilyn wasn't interested in baseball and Joe didn't like the calendar business.

United States Senator Harley Kilgore of West Virginia will be the keynote at a Fourth district Democratic rally in Kendallville next Tuesday. A veteran in the senate and an able speaker, Sen.
Kilgore is not up for election this year. A delegation from Adams-County plans to attend the rally.

Eno W. Lankenau, chairman and co-workers for the annual Community Fund drive are ready for the kick-off next Tuesday.
He hopes that the campaign can be successfully wound up in a couple weeks. The goal is approximately $11,665 for local youth recreation programs, Boy and Girl Scouts and other agencies supported by the fund. Mr. Lankenau is completing his organization of workers and solicitors who will launch the drive on Discovery Day. We should be ready to help the workers who donate their time and energy to this community cause.

If Clyde L. Powell, a former director of the rental division of the FHA is a crook, he should be indicted and prosecuted. He is accused of taking a $10,000 bribe for approving a change in building plans for a housing development and inference is given that he made money on the side while serving in the government post.

If guilty, he is not the first man to break a trust, nor will he be the last. However, that line of reasoning does not excuse him for violating the law and if he has committed a crime he should be punished.

There are four candidates for the judgeships of the Indiana Appellate court, northern district, two from each of the major political parties. Although elected from a district, a state-wide vote decides their election. This means that either two Republicans or two Democrats, or one Republican and one Democrat can be named by the voters. Each candidate is not pitted against one man as arranged on the ballot, but the law provides that the two receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. Our fellow townsman, Severin Schuriger is one of the four candidates and to elect him to the Appellate bench, he must be one of the two highest when the votes are tabulated. Adams county friends can help him along the road to victory by remembering him when they mark their ballot Nov. 2.

The Republican organization in Nevada is giving the country a poor demonstration in upholding the constitution and observance of the law in trying to prevent the election of a United States Senator next month. The death of the late Sen. Patrick McCarran has created a vacancy in the upper branch of congress and an interim appointment has been made, which act is not contested. Leaders in the legalized-gambling state are going to court to prevent the Republican and Democrat parties to place their nominees for the senate on the November ballot. The move is to keep the appointed senator in office until 1957, when the new congress convenes. No doubt the political fight will go on and the appointee's right to the McCarran will be contested on the floor of the senate, if the party bosses succeed in circumventing the law.

Plaster Paris Plaques Use Newark's plaster. Fill a bucket about two thirds full of water. Sprinkle the plaster into it slowly until the water disappears.
Then stir thoroughly and let it stand for five minutes, or until it has the appearance of cream. It is then ready to pour

Ironing
If a small brush, or whisk broom, is used to sprinkle water on the clothes, hotter water can be used, the clothes will be more evenly dampened and can be ironed much sooner.

Sore Throat
A good treatment for a sore throat is alternate gargles of peroxide and listerine, both diluted with water.

Milder Forms of Polio

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

A FEW days ago, I was glance-ing over the figures showing the number of polio cases reported to the various health departments, year by year and month by month. A question that struck me at once was, why should so few cases be reported, when so many occur?

I believe that practically all health authorities are now agreed that polio is as common as measles; that, in fact, almost everybody, sooner or later, has at least a mild attack of this disease.

The Mild Form

Fortunately, by far the great majority of cases are so mild that they can hardly be detected. The child afflicted has a degree of fever, perhaps a little pain in the back and a feeling of tightness.
Now and then, there might be symptoms resembling a cold, for a day or two, or perhaps even some kind of bowel upset, but the symptoms disappear as rapidly as they come on.

Luckily, too, these mild attacks seem to immunize or protect the child against further attacks.
Perhaps it is only the few children who escape these mild infections who succumb to a more severe one that may even produce paralysis.

Even when paralysis does occur, complete recovery may be looked for in the majority of the cases. Sometimes the paralysis is so mild that it is hardly discover-able, except by special tests of the nervous system and muscles.

Modern Methods Invaluable

For the severe cases of polio with paralysis, and the bulbar cases that affect the breathing and swallowing, modern methods of treatment have done much to save the lives of most of those affected.

Hope for permanent protection against polio lies in the development of vaccines and, as most people know, studies to determine the efficacy of various types of vaccines are going on at the present time.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Mr. C: I had a heart attack one year ago. Since that time I have lost my appetite. Could the heart attack be responsible.

Answer: Injury to the heart does in many cases produce nausea and loss of appetite.

Modern Etiquette
BY ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it proper for a man to say, "I am very glad to have met you," when taking leave of a woman to whom he has just been introduced?

A. It is better if he waits until the woman expresses her pleasure (if any) over the meeting, before he expresses his own. If she says nothing, a nod of the head and a pleasant "good-by" is all that is necessary.

Q. Would it be proper for the bridegroom and his best man to wear tuxedo suits at an afternoon wedding?

A. No; tuxedo suits are correctly worn only after six o'clock in the evening.

Q. Should the server stand at the right or left of the dinner guest when pouring water or other beverages?

A. At the right.

Court News

Marriage License
Eugene J. Johnson, 21, Fort Wayne, and Vera Geels, 20, Decatur.

Cross-Complaint
Earl Baker, defendant in a complaint for separation filed by Carrie Baker, has filed a cross-complaint for divorce charging cruel and inhuman treatment. The defendant asks an absolute divorce.
By agreement of the parties the cause is continued.

New Trial Denied
The court has sustained Walter Clem's motion to strike Floyd Kelly's motion for a new trial of the complaint on account filed by Kelly against Clem. The court ruled that the plaintiff did not file for a new trial within 30 days as required by law. In the original trial the court ruled that the plaintiff could collect nothing from Clem.

Divorce Filed
Robert Oshurn has filed a suit for divorce against Arthur Osburn charging cruel and inhuman treatment against her and her children.
Oshurn was convicted of mistreating a daughter Oct. 2 and is now in the Adams county jail. A summons for the defendant has been ordered issued returnable Oct. 22. An affidavit for a restraining order has been sustained and a hearing on an application for temporary allowance will take place Oct. 9.

Seeks Divorce
A divorce charging cruel and inhuman treatment has been filed by Agnes Moresca, against Jack J. Moresca. The plaintiff asks for an absolute divorce and custody of the only child. A summons has been ordered issued returnable Oct. 20. An application for suit money has been filed and a notice has been ordered returnable Oct.
11.

Report Filed
The surveyor's and viewers' report in the Sanford Reynolds petition for drainage has been filed and a hearing has been set for Nov. 9. The report states that the proposed drain is practical and will benefit the public and that the costs are less than the benefits. The report includes the estimated cost, $5,191.32, and the assessments to each land owner.

Estate Cases
The last will and testament of Bertha Loser has been offered and accepted for probate. The will divides the estate among Mary Lee, Freda Busch, Julia Warner, Hulda Weimer, Chalmers Lee and Norbert Ronnie Lee. The seven children of Emma Diehl are also named in the will. Charles E.
Dare was appointed executor. A bond in the sum of $2,000 has been filed and letters testamentary have been ordered issued to Charles Dare.

In the James T. Dalley estate, a motion by the heirs of Esal Dalley for a new trial to determine the ownership of wheat has been overruled. The heirs plan to appeal the circuit court decision in the Appellate court of Indiana.

The final report of the Rosina Hofstetter estate has been filed showing a total of $9,438.70 to be distributed among the eight children of the deceased.

The supplemental report of distribution of the Louis A. Bruner estate has been filed and approved.
The administrator has been discharged and the estate is closed.

NOT A RECORD TO BE PROUD OF

No One Injured In
Crash This Morning

No one was injured but $350 in property damage was caused in an accident at 9 a. m. today three miles north of Berne on U. S. highway 27 at a county road intersection.

Robert D. Steury, 13, of Berne route one, was traveling north.
He attempted a left turn and when he thought he could not make it, turned back to the right. A car driven by Patricia R. Hart, 24, of Geneva route one, crashed into the rear of the Steury car forcing it off the highway. Deputy sheriff Merle Affolder and state trooper Gene Rash investigated.

Red China Is Determined To Take FormosaSigns In Far East
Point To Formosa
As Next On List

WASHINGTON (INS) — All signs in the Far East pointed today to a Chinese Communist determination to conquer Formosa by words if possible but by arms if necessary.

Washington experts said the Red timetable apparently puts Formosa next on the conquest list — well ahead of any move into southern Vietnam or Thailand.

They pointed to the fact that Red Premier Chou En-lai said that China's foreign policy is for "peace" and her domestic peace requires the "liberation" of Formosa.

There are psychological grounds for the Communist determination to capture Formosa, but there are even more important military reasons. Red possession of the island would drive a wedge into the carefully developed U. S. western Pacific defense arc. It could even lead to a shift in power balances which would force the U. S. to pull back to islands like Guam and Saipan.

The psychological reasons are simple and apparent.

The Communists have been promising to "liberate" Formosa since 1949. It is the one "promise" they have failed to fulfill.

The Red Chinese have made much of the claim that they do what they say they will do.

In addition, the Mao Tse-tung government, sensitive about its prestige, has declared that it is an affront to have a part of China territory withheld with the aid of a foreign power—the U. S.

Diplomats of nations that recognize Red China are being urged by Peiping to support the Communist regime's claim to Formosa before the United Nations.

Non-official sources such as the recent Attlee-Bevan British Labor party group which recently visited China, are being wooed in an effort to swing world public opinion behind the Communist claim.

An ominous factor was injected recently when the Reds renewed the old and familiar tactic of trying to induce Chiang Kai-shek's troops to desert—a tactic that paid off so well during the fighting on the mainland.

A direct appeal was made to the Nationalist officials and men on Oct. 1 by the "People's Liberation army" headquarters. The appeal claimed social and economic gains had been won by the Chinese people; declared the U. S. had turned Formosa into a "colony"; said the Chinese Red army is now one of the great military forces of the world; and finally offered jobs, homes and forgiveness to any Nationalist who would defect.

Attend District
Meeting Of FFA

The Adams Central chapter of Future Farmers of America attended a meeting of the FFA district six in the Noble township school near Wabash Tuesday. Richard Kaehr and Michael Lehman were official chapter delegates.

A training school for officers took place before the general meeting. At the general meeting, plans were made for a district contest on the control of pests such as crows, foxes, rats, mice, piney squirrels and sparrows. An award will be given to the chapter which accomplishes the most in the contest. A banquet concluded the meeting.

Attending from Adams Central in addition to Kaehr and Lehman were Martin Watson, chapter advisor, and Larry Schwartz, Larry Lautzenheiser, Richard Landis, Arlen Mitchell and Philip Moser.
