K. C. COUNCIL

(Continued from Page One) versary celebration will end Wednesday night, April 27, with an open house guest night at the K. of C. hall at 8:30 p.m. City officials and other lodges and clubs in the city will receive invitations to the open house event which will feature a program, smorgasbord and dance.

Advisory committee for the golden jubilee plans includes Mesgr. Seimetz, Herman F. Geimer, Harmon N. Gillig and Carl A. Braun. Herman J. Knapke is serving as secretary and treasurer. Initiation chairmen are Ralph Kreigel and Walter N. Heilmann. Arrangements for the banquet are being made by James M. Lose and Edward J. Heilmann.

Heading the experience night committee are Charles Cook and Jerome Kohns. Guest night chairmen are Joseph Murphy, Robert Gage, Sr., and Julius Baker.

Members of the Rotary society will prepare the banquet and the Sisters of St. Agnes are assisting with decorations for the banquet hall.

MINISTERS

(Continued from Page One) for the meeting. One allied disagreement already has developed. It is between Washington and Paris regarding the participation of West Germany in the Paris conversations. President Eisenhower favors Bonn's inclusion, but premier Edgar Faure is opposed.

She said she was "very thrilled" and the excitement "keeps me from saying what I really feel."

Brando—long known as a "Hollywood hater" and wearing a tuxedo for the first time in the movie city—also spoke in hushed tones. He said he was grateful for the honor, but will return to New York Friday.

"Don't you like Hollywood?" someone asked. "It's not that," he said softly. "A year ago tonight my Ma died. I loved her very much."

"When will you be back to Hollywood?" he was asked. "I don't know," said the actor, smiling. "I don't know."

Brando said, however, he is now convinced the academy awards are fairly given out, because "I was sure Judy Garland would win—with such a profound well of sentiment involved. Now I guess I know," he said, "that sentiment can't buy off Hollywood."

Asked what he will do with his shiny statuette, the rugged actor looked puzzled, scratched his head.
