Court News

Complaint for Divorce

A complaint for divorce charging cruel and inhuman treatment has been filed by Betty L. Miller against George M. Miller. The plaintiff, who seeks custody of three minor children, has filed an affidavit showing inability to pay court costs and the costs have been waived. A summons for the defendant has been ordered issued returnable May 31. The defendant is in the Leavenworth, Kan., penitentiary. The plaintiff also has requested $18 per month support money from the defendant.

Allerson Estate

The schedule to determine the inheritance tax due on the Robert W. Allerson estate has been filed without reference to the county assessor. The net value of the estate is $3,479.65. Heirs are two daughters and a son. A notice has been ordered issued returnable May 19.

More County Teams Into State Contest

Two More Eligible For Indiana Fair

Two more teams from Adams county became eligible for state fair competition as the result of a district 4-H and FFA judging contest last weekend at Ossian. They are the Berne-French dairy team, coached by Leonard Kingsley, and the Adams Central livestock team under Martin Watson.

The Berne-French team tied for fifth place in the dairy contest, with Charles Fleichter tied for seventh high individual honors. Other team members are Bill Reynolds, Bob Rinehart and Terry Jones.

Larry Schwartz of the Adams Central dairy group placed third in individual honors while his team tied for seventh place. The team also includes Jim Fisher, Gordon Singleton and Fred Fox.

In the livestock contest Adams Central placed sixth with Phil Moser taking fifth place in individual honors. The Berne-French livestock team won seventh place. On the Adams Central team are David Helmrich, Larry Lautzenheiser and Don Bailey. The Berne-French livestock team members are Alan Iesh, Stanley Lehman, Gene Baumgartner and Richard Kipper.
