Adams County Pony Leaguers Are Defeated

BULLETIN
At Gillig, manager of the Adams county Pony League all-stars, was notified by telephone this afternoon that the certified list of the Mingo Junction players has been found correct and that last night's game stands as played, thereby eliminating Adams county from the regional tourney.

The Adams county Pony League All-Stars were defeated by Mingo Junction, O., 11-1, in the first round of the regional tourney at Defiance, O., Tuesday night, but this morning were awaiting a ruling from national tourney headquarters at Washington, Pa., which could put them back in the running.

The Mingo Junction team failed to produce its certified player list of players' eligibility before game time, as required by tournament rules. However, the regional tourney commissioner ordered the game played, stating he would contact tourney headquarters this morning to learn if Mingo Junction had a certified player list on file as required. If such a list is not on file, the game will be forfeited to Adams county, in which event the local team will play in the semi-final round tonight.

Adams county scored its only run last night on a home run by Steve Dellinger in the second inning. The local team obtained only four other hits, all singles.

Mingo scored all the runs needed before a man was retired in the first inning. The first two batters were safe on Adams county errors, and Criss, Mingo's shortstop, hammered out a home run for three runs. The winners obtained nine hits and were aided by six errors.

Willard Nixon Beats Yankees Tuesday Night

NEW YORK (INS)—Wanted! Willard Nixon. Wearing Boston uniform. For assault and battery on New York Yankees. Dangerous. The bruised and battered Yankees issued this all points bulletin today after the 27-year-old right-hander waylaid them, 4 to 1, last night in full view of 61,678 stadium witnesses, largest baseball crowd of the season and biggest New York night throng since July 21, 1950.

The six hit decision, Nixon's eighth victory in ten meetings with the Bombers, dropped the New Yorkers into third place in the torrid American League race just a half game over the rampant Red Sox.

With Chicago's 4 to 1 victory over Kansas City and Cleveland's 4 to 2 win over Detroit, the A.L. picture shaped up like this:

	W	L	Pct.	GB
Chicago	64	43	.598
Cleveland	65	45	.591	½
New York	65	46	.586	1
Boston	64	46	.582	1½

Nixon, who beat the bombers four out of five last year as well as this season, notched his 12th win in 17 decisions last night—the most he has ever won in a single season as a big leaguer.

He also doubled in an insurance run in the ninth, only the fifth hit allowed all night by Yankee ace Whitey Ford, who dropped his sixth against 12 wins.

Ford started by walking Billy Goodman and the game was lost when the second man, Billy Klaus, followed with a home run. Ford didn't allow another hit until the fourth inning but it was another homer by another lefty, Grady Hatton.

Ford, whose performance would have beaten an ordinary tour on an ordinary night, gained a negative honor by keeping Ted Williams from logging his 2000th hit. Ted fled, grounded and lined out and walked.

Bill Wilson robbed Chicago's Billy Pierce of a no-hitter with a single and a ninth inning homerun. The White Sox southpaw had his eighth win in 16 decisions when Bobby Shantz was clubbed for three runs in the second inning.

Ray Narleski made his first relief appearance for Cleveland and saved rookie Herb Score's 11th win against nine losses. The Indians handed Ned Garver his 11th setback in 21 verdicts by scoring all four of their runs in the second. Gene Woodling's two run double produced the tying and winning tallies.

Bill Wight blanked Washington, 1 to 0, on four hits at Baltimore and then the Senators stormed back to take the nightcap 6 to 3, as Roy Sievers clubbed a pair of two run homers.

The Brooklyn Dodgers held their 14-game National League lead over Milwaukee by turning back New York, 3 to 2, when Marv Grissom walked Don Hoak with the bases loaded in the 10th inning.

The Braves defeated St. Louis, 6 to 2; Philadelphia kept a half game toehold on fourth place by drubbing Pittsburgh, 9 to 1, and Chicago topped Cincinnati, 4 to 3, in the only scheduled day game.

Willie Mays gave the Giants a two run lead in the first inning when he blasted Johnny Podres for his 38th home run. Paul Giel came to the mound for Ruben Gomez in the 10th and was immediately hit for singles by Carl Furillo and Don Zimmer. Grissom loaded them up on another single by Don Newcombe, pinching for winner Clem Labine.

Southpaw Warren Spahn struck out five and walked none as he won his 10th in 22 decisions for Milwaukee.

One of his seven hits included Stan Musial's 24th home run, with Red Schoendienst on base. Hank Aaron also got his 24th for Milwaukee.

Bobby Morgan sparked Herm Wehmeier to his eighth win against nine losses for Philadelphia with four runs batted in on a homer, triple and single. Jim Greengrass also socked a homer against the Pirates and Del Ennis drove in the 1,000th run of his N. L. career with a sacrifice fly.

Chuck Harmon's error on Ernie Bank's grounder paved the way for the winning run in the fifth inning at Chicago. It was the fifth time in the last six games the Cubs triumphed by one run.

Pony League Double Header On Thursday

Graduates and former students of Indiana University are invited to attend a stag party and golf match at the Fort Wayne Elks country club Thursday, August 25.

The affair will start in the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with a golf tourney and a steak dinner will be held at 6:30 o'clock. Anyone desiring to attend the event is asked to contact Robert S. Anderson, Decatur attorney.

U.S. Team Leads In International

CHICAGO (INS) Only prestige will be at stake today when eight American golfers battle a field of eight foreign stars in the final round of the second annual international cup matches at the Tam o'Shanter country club.

The U. S. team goes into the second round with a 2½ to 1½ edge in match play.

While each player receives $500 for his appearance regardless where he finishes, he will be thinking of the $50,000 first place jackpot which will be on the line when the firing in the ninth world tournament begins Thursday.

The cup match is the breather between the All-American and the world with the eight leading domestic players from the All-American battling the eight best foreign finishers.

Today's round will be devoted to individual match play with all-American titleholder and recently crowned PGA champion Doug Ford taking on Roberto DeVicenzo who now plays for a Mexico City club in one of the top matches.

Ford teamed up with Leo Biagetti of Willoughby, O., Tuesday and the fearsome American duo was drubbed, 3 and 2, by Australia's Peter Thomson and Miguel Gutierrez of Spain.

College All-Stars Drilled On Defense

CHICAGO (INS)—The collegiate all-stars football team today was drilled on defense to cope with veteran backs and veteran receivers of the Cleveland Browns whom they meet Friday night.

The collegians are trying to stop such pros as Ray Renfro, Dub Jones, Darrell Brewster, Dante Lavelli and other top players who have kept the Browns in championship playoffs year after year.

The Browns' ability to elude secondary defenders is one of the headaches the all-stars are trying to find a bromide for in the final stages of their preparation for their 22nd annual game against the pros in Soldiers' Field.

The all-stars kept a drilling schedule even though they attended a civic luncheon in their honor Tuesday.
