Call, Braves' hurler, limited Berne to two singles in registering the opening game shout. The Decatur team scored twice in the first inning, four in the third and two in the fifth. Included in Decatur's eight hits were a single, double and triple by Steve Dellinger.

The nightcap was a close struggle. Berne held a 4-1 lead after three innings, but the Braves counted two in the fourth and one in the fifth to knot the score at 4-4, but Berne tallied the winning run in the bottom of the fifth on an error, a stolen base and a pair of wild pitches.

The Decatur Cardinals and Berne will play a pair of five-inning games at Worthman field Saturday night, starting at 6:30 p.m. A double header will be played at Worthman Monday, Adams Central meeting the Braves at 6:30 p.m., followed by Berne and the Cardinals. The season will close Tuesday, with Berne playing at Adams Central at 6 p.m., and the Braves and Cardinals tangling at Worthman field at 7 p.m.

Marciano, Moore Working For Bout

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (INS) — Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano is warming up to the task of defending his title Sept. 29 by throwing angry verbal punches at challenger Archie Moore.

Marciano's temper flared Thursday when a reporter at his Grossinger training camp asked for comment on Moore's recent aside that Rocky "had lost his punch." "Moore talks too much," Marciano shot back. "Before we were matched, he went around the country saying I was afraid to fight him. Moore knew this wasn't true. He knows Al Weill makes the matches; I do the fighting."

The usually mild-mannered champion added: "Now Moore is having himself some fun I guess, shooting off his mouth that I have lost my punch. I hope some one asks him that same question the day after our fight. I may lose my punch all right but it will be flush on his jaw."

Works In Secret

NORTH ADAMS, Mass. (INS) — Light Heavyweight Champion Archie Moore closed the gates at Glover Bowl on his day off Thursday and worked for an hour in secret preparation for his Sept. 29 title bout with heavyweight king Rocky Marciano.

Trainer "Creerful" Norman explained after the workout that Moore "wanted to try out certain punches and a number of defensive moves, which he didn't want any one to see."

Marciano-Moore On Big Radio Network

NEW YORK (INS) — An all-time record radio audience will hear the blow by blow reports of the heavyweight title fight between Rocky Marciano and challenger Archie Moore Sept. 29 in Yankee Stadium.

The scheduled 15 rounder will be carried over the full ABC radio network of more than 350 stations as well as stations in Alaska, Hawaii, Guam, Puerto Rico, Cuba and the armed forces radio network.

Secretary of state John Foster Dulles called Penitro's death a "tragic loss," pointing out that while he was U. S. ambassador to Greece and Guatemala, the envoy "contributed vitally to repelling the efforts of international communism to take over the governments of these countries."

County Rural Youth Meets Last Evening

Future Activities Planned By Group

Movies featured the educational feature of the Adams county rural youth meeting held Thursday evening at the Youth and Community Center in Decatur. Mixers opened the meeting, with Sally McCullough in charge. Roger Koeneman, president, called the meeting to order and welcomed the guests present. Farm Bureau advisors present were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kuhn.

Reports were given of the 4-H fair stand and the district softball tournament. Members were reminded that all reservations for the week-end camp must be in at the county extension office by August 17.

The week-end camp will be held at Lake McClure August 19, 20, 21. Any rural youths interested in attending the state rural youth camp at Merom from Sept. 14-17 are asked to contact one of the officers.

Mr. Hedlen, U. S. Steel representative, spoke to the group about the Miss America Fence contest being sponsored in the county.

It was also announced that Adams county would be host to the district officer's week-end school October 8 and 9. All sessions will be held at the Community Center.

Recreation led by Sally McCullough, Gloria and Roger Koeneman, and refreshments brought the meeting to a close.

The next meeting will be held September 8, and will feature a hayride and weiner bake.
