MISS SUE TROUTNER IS RECENTLY MARRIED

Miss Carolyn Sue Troutner became the bride of Theodore J. Burlage recently in a double-ring ceremony preformed in the St. Jude's Catholic church in Fort Wayne, by the Rev. Joseph A. Jacobs. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde O. Troutner of Fort Wayne, formerly of this city, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Burlage of Fort Wayne.

Miss Troutner chose a ballerina length gown of nylon lace and tulle. A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a prayer book topped with an orchid.

Mrs. Richard Burlage, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, attended the bride as matron-of-honor and bridesmaids were Miss Judy Harris and Miss Barbara Kortenbein. Linda Baer was flower girl and Vern Hill, cousin of the bride, carried the rings.

Richard Burlage served as best man and ushers were Bill Troutner and Thomas Burlage. Following the wedding trip, the bride will reside with her parents and the bridegroom will return to Norfolk, Va., where he is stationed with the U. S. navy.

Plaids Guilty To Disorderly Conduct

Mrs. Alice Stevens of North 15th street entered a plea of guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct in city court this morning.

The affidavit against her was signed by neighbors who charged that she disturbed the neighborhood with loud, abusive and profane language and offensive conduct.

Mayor John Doan heard testimony from the neighbors and from the defendant and then took the matter under advisement for 30 days. The defendant has been ordered to appear for sentencing Sept. 6.
