Miss Rita Ann Heiman Is Married To Daniel J. Gerber This Morning

Miss Rita Ann Heiman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob C. Heiman of route four, Decatur, became the bride of Daniel J. Gerber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gerber of route one, Berne, this morning at 9 o'clock in the St. Mary's Catholic church. The Rev. Robert Contant officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Vases of white glads and pink asters adorned the church altar.

The musicale was presented by Sr. M. Marguerite, C. S. A., organist. Selections were: "Processional," by Rossini; "Missa Terza," by Heller; and "Ave Marie," by Arcadella. "O Beautiful Mother," was sung when the bride placed flowers at the blessed Virgin's altar.

The bride chose a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The strapless bodice was topped with a Spencer jacket having a rounded collar and long tapering sleeves. The waltz-length skirt of deeply scalloped lace was highlighted by a fully gathered tulle flounce. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a prayerbook topped with an orchid.

Miss Mary Heiman, sister of the bride, attended as maid-of-honor in a ballerina length gown of pink lace over taffeta. The bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline, cap sleeves and a wide taffeta cummerbund. The bouffant skirt was circular. A half hat of straw flowers and a nose veil, completed her ensemble. She carried a bouquet of pink asters.

Fred Heiman, brother of the bride, served as best man and ushers were Charles Heiman, brother of the bride, and Ronald Gerber, brother of the bridegroom. The bride's mother chose a navy blue dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore navy blue with white accessories also.

A dinner was held at the Fairway restaurant and the reception will be held at the K. of C. hall from 2 to 4 o'clock this afternoon with 150 guests expected. Servers include Ann Marie Lengerich, Joann Laurent, Joanne Brown, and Delores Braun.

The bride is a graduate of Decatur Catholic high school and is employed at Coppess Corner. Her husband was graduated from Adams Central high school and is working for Art Lengerich.

The couple will reside on route one, Monroe.

and prayer was offered by Mrs. George Poor.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Frieda Gollitt read the W. S. C. S. goals for the coming year. Refreshments were served to 15 members and two children, by Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Addie Hahnert, and Mrs. Elmer Gollitt.

LYNN DUANE GARNER HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Garner entertained recently with a dinner honoring their youngest son, Lynn Duane, on his first birthday, at the home of Lynn's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Robinson. Colored pictures were taken during the evening.

Lynn received many gifts and those present included Tommy Garner, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Robinson and children Ronnie, Karen, and Gary; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vetter and daughter Cynthia. Those unable to attend were Miss Marilyn Garner and Jim Frey.

SHOWER GIVEN IN HONOR OF MISS ANITA ENDINGER

A miscellaneous shower was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hackney in honor of Miss Anita Endinger. A bride doll was used for the table centerpiece and lime and white streamers were used throughout. Games were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Doris Burkhead, Mrs. Pauline Haggard, Mrs. Laurel Haggard, Mrs. June Rhodes, Mrs. C. W. Schwartz, Miss Betty Smith, and Miss Ardola Parrish, who in turn presented them to the honored guest.

Miss Endinger then opened her many gifts and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Eleanor Biebert, to the 25 guests present. Three were not able to attend.

Shopping Is Much Easier Today

What a tedious, time-taking task shopping used to be! Recognized brands were few and far between. Reliable standards for judging value were difficult to come by. Mostly it was a matter of foot-work, guess-work and hope-for-the-best. How much easier and simpler shopping is today! For one thing, the modern shopper hereabouts has an accurate and comprehensive buying guide in the advertising columns of this newspaper. Here she looks the whole market over carefully, compares values, makes up her mind what and where to buy ... all before she ever leaves home. Here, too, the modern merchant finds the road wide open to volume selling. His ads here reach the greatest possible number of prospective customers ... generate peak pulling power ... at lowest cost!
