ember, Klenks' entry in the tough league is favored to cop the title this year, but the Rockford team always causes a lot of trouble for the Decatur nine.

No seats will be reserved at the opening game Tuesday night, and the gates will open an hour before game time. It was learned today that the Ohio entry in the play-offs would bring a big following of rooters to Decatur for the opening game.

Rockford scored seven runs in the first and six runs in the sixth innings to put the clamps on a scrappy Monroeville team which went ahead 9-7 in the fifth inning of Sunday afternoon final play-off contest.

The winners gathered in 13 hits and the losers made 10 hits. Both teams scored all their runs in two frames.

Newcomers Lead In City Golf Tourney

Youth will be served in sports as well as elsewhere, and this year's city-county championship golf tournament is a good example. Gone are the familiar names McClenahan, Schnepf, Wall, Gaunt, Bauman and the like as four par-busters, all under twenty-five years of age, fought an uphill battle into the final rounds. Joe Costello, Jerry Laurent, Don MacLean, Jr., and Paul Schmidt are the new look in Decatur's golf title race. Final matches in all four flights are scheduled to be completed by next Sunday and it will be interesting to watch which of the young men can hold up the best under the pressure. All have been shooting near par golf, and with the enthusiasm of the young golfers it should be an interesting fight. It proves again that old golfers never die, their drives just fade away. Last week's results leading up to the final matches are as follows:

Championship Flight
D. MacLean Jr. defeated E. Hutter Sr., four and three.
J. Costello defeated J. Hammond five and three.

J. Laurent bested D. Little, one up.

Braves Tighten National Race With Brooklyn

NEW YORK (INS) — There's no panic in Brooklyn because it couldn't happen in a million years like it happened in 1951. Or could it?

The 1955 Dodgers just don't blow pennants like they used to. If they do, the Bums better find a new home. After all, Brooklyn can take so much.

While the American League thing remains on its "normal" path with the Yankees .615, White Sox .613, Indians and Red Sox engaged in an adrenalin fling at the flag, the Babbling Brooks find themselves in a race of their own.

The Milwaukee Braves apparently are still in business and still hoping for that "miracle." It may take just one of those miracles to do it, but the Braves are now 11 games off the pace, closest they've been since July 14.

It's still a tremendous lead and time is an added Brooklyn weapon but that the Bums are wobbling a great deal and the Braves are getting on the ball was demonstrated again Sunday.

The Philadelphia Phillies beat the Dodgers, 6 to 4, to sweep a three game series. It was the ninth loss for the Dodgers in their last 13 games. The Braves made it five straight wins by blasting the Chicago Cubs, 8 to 1.

The Dodgers have 34 more games to play and Milwaukee, trailing by 13 in the "lost" column, has only 30, so who's afraid in Brooklyn?

Bob Buhl won his 13th game for the Braves and seventh in his last eight games. The righthander gave up seven hits. He earned run average is a nifty 2.85, second only to Robin Roberts in the league.

Andy Pafko and Bobby Thomson each contributed three hits to Milwaukee's 13 hit attack on five Chicago hurlers. Thomson drove in three runs with a double in the third inning and Pafko collected a triple and two-singles.

The Cubs have lost seven of their last eight starts.

Cincinnati rookie Lefty Don Gross tossed a four hitter against the Cardinals. Wally Pate drove in three runs with his last homer and a single. The victory gave the Redlegs a three game sweep over the Redbirds.

Baltimore's Orioles continued to be pigeons for the Yankees.

The Bombers used homers by Bill Skowron, Hank Bauer and Mickey Mantle No. 32 to belt the last place Birds, 6 to 1. This gave the Stengelmens the three game set and made it 18 wins in 20 tries against Paul Richards' hapless team. Ex Yank Ed Lopat was the victim and ex Oriole Don Larsen the star.

Larsen, recalled from the Yankee Denver farm on July 31, won his fifth straight game and his fourth complete contest with a six hitter.

The Chisox moved within a half game and two percentage points of the Yankees by sweeping the Tigers, 2 to 0 and 3 to 2. Chicago now has won nine out of 11.

Connie Johnson rattoned the Bengals to four singles in the opener and Minnie Minoso homered off loser Billy Hoelt. Minoso also got three singles and a triple in the nightcap and had a total of six hits in nine trips for the day.

White Sox pennant hopes zoomed when Dick Donovan, sidelined since he had his appendix removed on July 31, returned to win his 14th game in the afterpiece. Walt Drope contributed his 17th homer and a double to the 15 hit attack in support of the 27 year old right hander.

The Cleveland Indians downed the Kansas City Athletics, 9 to 4, and the Tribe bullpen stole the spotlight again. Jose Santiago the winner and Sal Maglie stopped the A's after they had scored four runs off Bob Lemon in the second. Lary Doby and Gene Woodling homered for the third place Indians, who remained a game off the pace.

The Boston Red Sox kept within 4½ games of the top by downing the Washington Senators, 4 to 1. The Sox scored three in the eighth to win. Sammy White homered in the sixth and drove in another run with a double in the eighth. George Susce Jr., was the winner, with a relief assist from Ivan Delock in the eighth.
