President Returns To Vacation Land

Mrs. Eisenhower
Joins Her Husband

DENVER (INS) — President Eisenhower resumes his Colorado "vacation" today after two days of directing emergency aid for the flood ravaged Northeast and delivering a Philadelphia speech laying down a "no appeasement" formula for world peace.

The Chief Executive flew back to his Denver headquarters Wednesday night with Mrs. Eisenhower whom he picked up at the White House en route from Philadelphia in his personal plane, the Columbine II.

The first lady, who has been relaxing in her air conditioned farm home in Gettysburg, Pa., expects to remain in Denver for the rest of her husband's work and play vacation, which will probably last until about mid-October.

Mr. Eisenhower planned to report back to work at his summer White House office early this morning to clean up the paper work which piled up during his absence.

Washington — Population of the U. S. has gained one-fifth since 1940, and at the same time the number of children has increased by about two-thirds.

Dulles Plans Same Anti-Red Address

Will Follow Lead
Of No-Appeasement

WASHINGTON (INS) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will follow up President Eisenhower's "straight from the shoulder" declaration of what Russia must do to maintain the current East-West spirit of friendship.

Dulles makes a major foreign policy address, Friday before the Council of Foreign Relations in New York.

The State Department said only that the Secretary would talk about "certain aspects of U. S. foreign policy." But he will presumably discuss in detail the points raised by the Chief Executive Wednesday in his Philadelphia speech before the American Bar Association.

In that address, Mr. Eisenhower frankly told the Soviet Union that the free world is still waiting for basic gestures of friendliness—an end to world-wide Communist subversion and violation of human rights.

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) Mayor Pratt J. Remmel of Little Rock, Ark., will speak at the fall banquet of the Indiana Republican Editorial Association Oct. 22 in the Riley Room of the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis.

Cost Is Reduced In State Welfare

Less Aid Is Given
Hoosiers During July

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) Administrator Richard H. Schweitzer, Jr., of the Indiana Department of Public Welfare, reported today that $2,159,498 was expended in July for aid to dependent children, blind and the aged. The aid went to 61,004 persons.

This was $10,807 less than the cost of the June aid, and 333 fewer persons.

However payments for medical care, not included in the two million dollars, went up $197 to a total of $511,424 for July.

The total amount of assistance remains at about the same level as a year ago, when $2,161,496 was spent. Direct medical care mounted 10.5 per cent from a year ago's payments.

In the three categories under which welfare is received from the department, the breakdown is:

Old Age Assistance: A total of 33,551 persons received an average of $37.11, or a total of $1,356,479.

Assistance to Dependent Children: A total of $714,406 went to 22,666 children and 7,907 eligible needy relatives.

Blind Assistance: Payments of $88,614 went to 1,787 persons. Much of the percentage increase for direct medical care was in this category where the jump was 19 per cent over the previous month and 27.3 per cent over the cost in July, '54.

By actual expenditure, of course, the aged, who got $423,367 in direct medical care, received the largest amount.
