Picks Upsets To Feature In Weekend Tilts

Look for the upset in college football this weekend. If you think form has taken a beating so far, you haven't seen anything yet.

I predict that Michigan and Notre Dame, two of the most highly-touted teams in the land, will join the list of upset victims this weekend. Here are my choices in top college games:

Army 20, Michigan 14. A week ago I predicted Michigan would sneak past inexperienced Michigan State by only one touchdown. That is just what happened. This Saturday, powerful Army moves from the plains of West Point to the rolling hills of Ann Arbor and should really come into its own in one of the great games of the year.

Miami 17, Notre Dame 14. This Friday night game in the Orange Bowl has been sold out since June. Notre Dame has shown unexpected strength in winning its first two games. Miami lost a close one in its opener with powerful Georgia Tech. I pick Miami's well-rounded squad to take advantage of the great opportunity for an upset here.

UCLA 28, Oregon State 14. Despite their early loss to Maryland, the UCLA's still are one of the nation's best.

Texas Christian 17, Alabama 3. The Crimson Tide has shown very little thus far.

Oklahoma 14, Texas 7. No romp for the Sooners.

Michigan State 13, Stanford 6. The Indians upset Ohio State last week but can't tie the can to the Big Ten twice in succession.

Wisconsin 10, Purdue 7. Two strong teams.

Duke 14, William and Mary 7. The colorful Blue Devils get the nod in a thriller.

Georgia Tech 20, LSU 10. Unbeaten Tech has survived bigger tests, and I can't see where the string will be broken here.

Baylor 14, Arkansas 7. Bears bounce back after last week's loss to Maryland.

Southern California 21, Washington 7. Trojans will have their hands full, but they are my choice.

Navy 21, Pitt 12. Middies should remain undefeated, but they'll know they've been in a fight.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Chicago Bears 24, San Francisco 21. Neither has won a game and the edge goes to the home team.

Detroit 30, Los Angeles 27. Again the home field advantage should enable the Lions to bounce back from two-straight losses.

Washington 20, Chicago Cardinals 14. Redskins to win third straight.

Pittsburgh 24, New York 21. Giants haven't won a game yet, and won't take this one, either.

Cleveland 21, Philadelphia 23. A head-on clash to be heard clear across Lake Erie. Otto Graham is the difference.

Lane New General Manager Of Cards

ST. LOUIS (INS) — The St. Louis Cardinals today faced their baseball future with a brand new general manager.

He is Frank Lane, late of the Chicago White Sox where he earned the name "Trader Lane" for his vigorous program of acquiring new ball players.

might be as dangerous as tossing a match into a strawstack. I know the governor feels the same way I do.

Lieut. Gov. Harold W. Handley blamed the governor for the collapse of peace negotiations, saying:

"The collapse is the unfortunate consequences of the governor's action in calling out the national guard Wednesday night by long distance telephone from 1,000 miles away without giving negotiators a chance to work out a peaceful settlement."

Attorney general Edwin K. Steers said the state might be liable to law suits from the Perfect Circle Corporation, the union or anyone else damaged by presence of the militia, if the guardsmen have been called out illegally. He said:

"The governor should exercise the sovereign function of the state. If he is not here, he should act through the lieutenant governor rather than through an employee who is not elected, not sworn to fulfill his duty and not under bond."

Rugged Tests Scheduled On College Grids

NEW YORK (INS) — Big and rugged tests cover the nation's gridirons like an electric blanket this weekend and some of the high and mighty college football powers may be in for a shock.

It all starts tonight when surprising Notre Dame, co-ranked fourth in International News Service's survey, meets strong Miami in the Orange Bowl, and U.C.L.A. rated sixth, hosts Oregon State at Los Angeles.

Another game tonight pits Missouri against Southern Methodist. The fur and everything else is expected to fly Saturday in a nationwide deluge of important contests.

Top-ranked Michigan probably has the most difficult task of all. The Wolverines are at home in Ann Arbor stadium against fifth-rated Army and Coach Earl Blaik's Black Knights are just oozing with scoring might.

While Maryland, the No. 2 team, figures to be too strong against Wake Forest at the Terps' home field, Oklahoma and Southern California are likely to encounter stern opposition.

The Sooners, rated third, visit Texas and the Trojans, who share fourth slot with Notre Dame, pay a call on upset-minded Washington.

Georgia Tech, No. 7, has a night date at Louisiana State. Eighth-ranked Navy gets Pitt at Baltimore, ninth-slotted Wisconsin visits Purdue and tenth-rated Texas Christian pays a call on Alabama.

This is just a little portion of a big package of conference and inter-sectional struggles.

Some of the bigger jousts find Stanford at Michigan State, Indiana at Iowa, Illinois at Ohio State, Minnesota at Northwestern, Auburn at Kentucky, Wm. and Mary at Duke, Texas A. and M. at Nebraska, Penn State at Virginia, Iowa State at Kansas, Houston at Detroit, Holy Cross at Colgate, Columbia at Yale, Villanova at Boston College, Cornell at Harvard and Princeton at Penn.

Bobo Olson Defends Title November 4

CHICAGO (INS) — Bobo Olson, world middleweight champion, will defend his title Nov. 4 at the Chicago stadium in a 15-round bout with former champion Sugar Ray Robinson.

James D. Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, Inc. announced details of the bout Thursday—the third between the two men.

Before he retired temporarily from the ring, Robinson won by a 12-round knockout over Olson and later won a split 15-round decision.

The IBC said that the bout will be televised nationally, with a 150-mile radius in the Chicago area blacked out.

Tom Gola Signs To Play With Warriors

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Tom Gola, four-year All-American basketball star at Le Salle College, today signed a one-year contract to play with the Philadelphia Warriors.

Terms of the pact, which ended a holdout siege by Gola, were not revealed, but it was believed he'll receive $12,500 for the season.

Announce Division From World Series

NEW YORK (INS) — The full share World Series prize for players on the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers amounts to $9,768.21 per man.

Baseball commissioner Ford Frick announced the division of the spoils Thursday and the Brooks, who divided their team's $309,898.51 player's pool into 30 full cuts, came up with the second highest jackpot in Series history.

The Dodger "take" was exceeded only by the $11,147.90 the New York Giant players received in 1954. The Dodgers also voted three half shares and seven cash awards.

The New York Yankees, on the losing end of a series for the first time since 1942, get $5,598.58. The Yankees voted 34 full shares, including one for Billy Martin who joined the team in the last month of the season while still in the army, four half shares and eight cash awards.

Among the National League runners-up, Milwaukee Braves' players get $1,694.05 per full share; the Giants $1,081.60 apiece and the Philadelphia Phillies $558.98 per man.

In the American League, the Cleveland players get $1,586.73; the Chicago White Sox players $982.23 and the Boston Red Sox full shares will come to $472.98 each.

South Side Defeats Monmouth Thursday

Fort Wayne South Side defeated Monmouth, 21 to 34½, in a cross country race Thursday afternoon at the Decatur Golf club here. South also won a B team match, 17-38.

Redding, of South Side, won the varsity match in 10:16. Other finishers were: Altevogt (S), Hildebrand (M), Chapman (S), Davis (M), Simon (S), Beery (M), Swager (S), Rhodes (M), Miller (S) and Bittner (M) tied for 10th.

Detroit Red Wings Defeated In Opener

By International News Service

The Detroit Red Wings came a cropper Thursday night as they launched their bid for an eighth straight National Hockey League title in the season's opener.

The Chicago Black Hawks, who open their home season in Chicago stadium tonight against the New York Rangers, eked out a 3-to-2 victory over the Red Wings at Detroit's Olympia on Nick Mickoski's third period goal.

In the only other NHL game, goals by Bert Olmstead and Maurice (The Rocket) Richard and Jacques Plante's netminding combined to give Montreal a 2-to-0 win over Toronto at Montreal's Forum.

The Boston Bruins open their season Saturday at Montreal.
