State Republicans Silence Two Scraps

State Committee In Session Tuesday

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) — The Indiana Republican central committee suddenly hauled two controversial items off the public clothes line and blandly announced unanimous agreement on both.

One was a hot seventh district fight in which supporters of Gov. George N. Craig have been trying for months to unseat James G. McDonald, Gibson county chairman, and an affiliate of the GOP faction headed by Senator William E. Jenner.

The other was the $1,000-a-month (or thereabouts) salary received by publicist William O'Connell, of Chicago. Advance dope had been that at least one member of the committee would attempt to question the advisability of paying this salary to O'Connell, who spends most of his time during Indianapolis visits in the office of Gov. Craig, and has obtained several national stories plugging the Craig administration.

But after the almost-full-house session of the committee Tuesday in the GOP state headquarters, (closed to the press except for a luncheon at which Craig spoke), these were the announced results:

The committee unanimously adopted a recommendation by Wayne Kellams, of Edinburg, seventh district chairman, that further action at the state level be indefinitely postponed in the "oust-McDonald" movement.

The committee dissolved a subcommittee it had named to investigate a petition signed by 46 of the 74 Gibson county GOP committeemen and vice committeemen demanding McDonald's ouster on charges of inefficiency and neglect.

This hot fight even got to the courts once when McDonald filed an injunction in Madison circuit court to prevent the subcommittee — Russell Robbins, of Richmond, George Chambers, of Anderson, and GOP state vice chairman Marjorie Snyder — from taking action in his case.

The injunction was withdrawn later by McDonald about the time the subcommittee postponed a scheduled hearing.

The second advance-billed controversy over O'Connell also dissolved quietly with a unanimous acceptance of a financial report read by GOP treasurer Thomas Maffey, Jr. O'Connell's pay was part of that report.

The committee came to several agreements also dealing with the coming municipal elections, the 1956 state and national conventions. These included:

Adopted the same assessments for state candidates wishing to file prior to the 1956 state convention June 29 in the Indiana state fairgrounds coliseum as prevailed in 1952. For United States senator, the assessment will be $2,000; for governor, $2,000; for judges of supreme court, $1,600; for lieutenant-governor and attorney general, $1,000; for appellate court judges, $1,050; for secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, reporter of supreme and appellate courts, and superintendent of public instruction, $750; national convention delegates, $500, and alternate delegates, $300.

Those attending the 1956 national convention may combine a tour of the west with the trip. Plans were approved for a special train leaving Chicago Aug. 15 with stops at Denver and Reno prior to the Aug. 20-23 convention in San Francisco. A tour of the Canadian Rockies is part of the return trip.

The state committee also voted to consider providing counties with a campaign consultant, and offered aid in obtaining speakers for municipal elections next month.

Craig asked that his comments to the committee be off-the-record but promised newsmen they might ask questions relating to the same topics at a press conference today at 3 p.m.

Five Butler Coeds Will Stage Race

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) — Five Butler University coeds will ride detergent box racers in a match race down the Wilbur Shaw memorial hill Friday.

The most original and fastest of the racers will receive a prize. Why not Soap Box racers? The sororities replied:

"Soap's old-fashioned."

Hospital Escapee Nabbed In Chicago

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) — Willis D. Scott, 21, of Chicago, was being returned today to Indianapolis where he is wanted for armed robbery.

Scott complained of severe stomach cramps last Friday after his arrest in Indianapolis. He was taken to General hospital where he slipped away from police. Chicago authorities recaptured him Tuesday.

Scott and another Chicago man, Leroy Allen, 56, were being held under $15,000 bond for trial on charges of robbing a filling station.

Bull Runs Loose Over Two Hours, Shot By Sheriff

Sheriff Merle Affolder, who has gained a fine reputation as an efficient sheriff for Adams county, added a new feather to his hat Tuesday.

The sheriff's department and the state police, with a large group of Adams county residents formed a posse Tuesday afternoon for a two-hour chase.

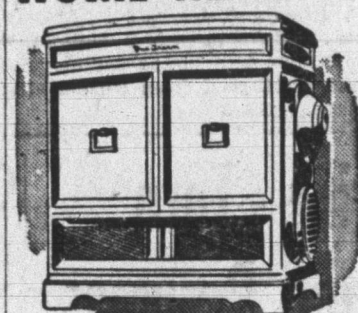

The object of the chase was not a two-legged criminal, however. It was a wild, runaway bull who jumped the pen at Lengerich's slaughter house west of Monroe.

The bull, no-doubt enjoying his freedom, roamed the country-side for two hours eluding his would-be captors until sheriff Affolder finally caught up with him and shot him.

New Mexico became a U.S. territory in 1846.
