

Catholic Youth To Hold Rally Thursday

Celebrate National Catholic Youth Week

In preparation for the local celebration of national Catholic youth week, Oct. 29 to Nov. 6, the Catholic young people of high school age and over will gather for a giant rally to be held at the Cathedral of Immaculate Conception in Fort Wayne at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 27.

The Rev. Henry J. Ameling, deanery director of Catholic youth has announced that plans for the event are now complete. Catholic youth from Whitley, Wells, Washburn, Huntington, Adams and Allen counties are expected to attend.

The Most Rev. Leo A. Pursley, apostolic administrator of the diocese of Fort Wayne will deliver the sermon. A living rosary will be a highlight of the rally. Participants in this event are Cathedral CYO of Fort Wayne; St. John's CYO of Fort Wayne; Sacred Heart CYO, St. Mary's CYO, St. Joseph CYO, Precious Blood CYO and St. John's CYO of New Haven.

Following will be a motet presented by the Central Catholic high school glee club, a hymn, "Come Holy Ghost," by the entire assembly and the sermon by Bishop Pursley. Following the sermon, will be another presentation by the Central Catholic high school glee club, the official Catholic youth week prayer, hymn "Tantum Ergo," by entire congregation, and repose.

During national Catholic youth week, the initial event will be a communion breakfast at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in observance of youth communion Sunday, Oct. 30. Members of the senior Catholic youth organization and Catholic young adults will attend mass and receive Holy Communion. Guest speaker at the breakfast will be State Senator Von A. Eichhorn, a member of the legislative advisory commission.

Other events within the parishes and schools will consist of civic, religious and recreational activities, all of which will be directed to spotlighting the talents and abilities of youth and which will be built around the special theme of the week, "Youth, Our Hope."

Participants in these events will include Catholic Boy and Girl Scouts, grade school athletic organizations, high school civic groups, drama clubs, Catholic youth organizations, parish councils and Catholic young adults clubs. This week marks the fifth annual observance of national Catholic youth week, which is celebrated nation-wide and has the endorsements of Pope Pius XII, President Eisenhower, hierarchy of the Catholic church and many governors and mayors throughout the United States.

Theater At Warsaw Wrecked By Blast

Theater Empty At Time Of Explosion

WARSAW, Ind. (INS) — Authorities today estimated at $125,000 the damage caused by a heating plant explosion that wrecked the Lake Theater and rocked downtown Warsaw Sunday.

An audience was to have gathered in the 1,000-seat theater several hours after the blast to see a first showing of the movie, "The Left Hand of God."

The interior of the theater was destroyed and there was a 40-foot hole in the roof. The blast ripped iron doors 20 feet across an alley into a yard of a home and partitions were blown across the street onto the courthouse lawn. Walls of the Munson Chevrolet Sales building next door were cracked by the explosion of a boiler in the oil-fired hot-water heating system.

Nick Maller, owner, said the loss probably was covered by insurance.

Only Child Drowns In Capital Canal

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) — A prostrated Indianapolis mother saw the drowned body of her only child removed from a canal just six weeks after the husband and father died of cancer.

Mrs. Irene Morgan returned home from a trip to meet a relative to learn that her son, Wesley Joe Morgan, 10, had fallen into the Indianapolis canal Sunday.

Indiana Population Is Now 4,235,000

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) — Hoosiers rejoiced today in a U. S. Census Bureau report that Indiana's population has increased by 301,000 to 4,235,000 from the 1950 census date to July 1, 1954.

Jeanene Babcock Is Bride Saturday

Of Jerry K. Price

Jeanene K. Babcock, daughter of Mrs. Alden Babcock of 104 South Fifth street, became the bride of Jerry K. Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Price of route six, Decatur, Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Zion Evangelical Reformed church. The Rev. William C. Feller read the nuptial vows for the double-ring ceremony.

Bouquets of white carnations, gladioli, mums, palms and candles decorated the altar of the church.

Mrs. J. Fred Fruchte played the selections "Rosary," "Romance," and "Lieberstrum." "I Love You Truly," was played softly during the ceremony.

A gown of Doupoint silk was worn by the bride. A bertha collar of Alencon lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and pearls, featured the V neckline of the molded bodice. Long sleeves tapered over the hands and self-covered buttons were centered down the back. The waltz length skirt was gathered from a front panel. Her fingertip length veil was caught to a coronet of lace flowerettes sprinkled with sequins. She carried a white Bible topped with a deep throat orchid surrounded with white button mums.

Miss Darlene Stader of Dayton, O., cousin of the bride, attended as maid-of-honor and Miss Sandra Sue Hahnert of Toledo, O., cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. The attendants wore gowns of shrimp crystallette over taffeta. The Empire waist was fashioned with a scoop neckline and cap sleeves. The princess style skirt flared to waltz length. Matching headbands with a brow veil complemented the gowns. They carried identical bouquets of white mums.

Jimmy Price, brother of the bridegroom, attended as best man, and ushers were James Wilson and Allen Bowen.

The bride's mother wore a beige and brown lace over brown taffeta dress, with brown velvet trim and brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of aqua lace over aqua taffeta, with sequin trim and pink accessories. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement with 160 guests present. The table was decorated with a four-tiered wedding cake surrounded with decorations of shrimp and white candles, flowers and bells.

Servers included Ellen McAhren, Judy Brunstrup, Marlene Thieme, and Ada Poor. Josephine Neireiter acted as hostess.

For traveling, the bride chose a coat style beige faille dress with black accessories. Following their return from the Smokey Mountains, the couple will reside on route six Decatur.

Mrs. Price attended Pleasant Mills high school and is a graduate of Warner Beauty College. She is now employed at Mary's beauty shop. Her husband was graduated from Pleasant Mills high school and is engaged in farming.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Curtis S. Price, Madison, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hudson, Kendallville; Mr. and Mrs. George Lackey, Celina, O.; Mr. and Mrs. John Newell, Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grandinard, Celina; Ed Schumann, New York, N. Y.; Louie Wechsler, Miami Beach, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hudson, Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. William E. Stader, Dayton, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hahnert, Toledo, O.; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Campbell, Toledo; Miss Elaine Ritz, Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hochauer, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Portland.

Escaped Convict On Most Wanted List

Thurman A. Green Is On FBI List

(Editor's note: Escaped convict Thurman Arthur Green has been listed as one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted" fugitives. He replaces Ohio bandit Daniel A. Everhart, who was captured in Denver, Oct. 9.)

WASHINGTON (INS) — Thurman Arthur Green, a terrible-tempered escaped convict whose ruthlessness even frightens fellow criminals, was placed today on the FBI's list of "Ten Most Wanted" fugitives.

The 35-year-old one-time boxer has been sought ever since he escaped more than 17 months ago from the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, Wash., where he was serving a six-year robbery sentence for holding up a tavern in Seattle.

Describing him as "extremely dangerous," the FBI warned that Green is believed to carry a switch blade knife at all times, may be armed with a gun as well, and has promised "to take one of the bulls with me" if ever threatened with capture.

Green, whose criminal career goes back to 1938 and includes two jailbreaks, escaped from the Walla Walla prison with two other convicts. They accompanied him as far east as Creston, Iowa, after scaling an army truck and then an automobile. The trip then broke up.

Green's companions were captured an hour later. The FBI does not say why they decided to go their own way, but it describes Green as a "very moody person . . . very sharp-tempered and quick to flare up."

The G-men quoted his acquaintances as saying "He has a grudge against the world and, because of his mean disposition, he would have a difficult time keeping a partner. As a result, Green is very much a lone wolf."

As proof of his "ruthlessness," the FBI cites the fact that, during a prison boxing match, Green is reported "to have practically chewed off the ear of an opponent." He had many West Coast bouts while out of jail, too, and is believed to carry a large scrapbook of newspaper clippings about his fights.

Here are aids to identification of this "Most Wanted" fugitive:

Aliases — Joe Collins, Steve Green, Thermox Green, Frank Hoffstetter, Steve Lowery, Dallas Victor Starr, "Punchy" and others.

Description — Age, 35; born in Grangeville, Ida.; height, five feet, 11 inches; weight, 185 pounds; build, medium; hair, light brown; eyes, bluish gray; complexion, ruddy; race, white; believed to wear Levi pants at almost all times.

Occupations — Logger, laborer, carpenter, steel worker, baker, farmer and boxer. May show up seeking a job as a guitar player in a low-class night club.

Marks — Scars under chin, on left wrist, left index finger, second joint of right middle finger, lower part of right shoulder blade; tattoo of rose with scrolls and names "Jenny" and "David" on outer part of left forearm; tattoo of bird on upper right arm at shoulder; tattoo above right kneecap.

Lie Detector Tests To Slaying Suspects

Dragnet For Killers Turns To Tennessee

CHICAGO (INS) — The dragnet for the killers of three Chicago youth reached into Tennessee as police left no stones unturned in their effort to solve the horror murders.

The suspect brought back Sunday from Tazewell, Tenn., was described as a 27-year-old Chicagoan with "scuffed knuckles and stains on his shirt."

He was arrested in Tennessee for being drunk on a public highway and was returned to Chicago when his story contained "doubtful features" which had to be checked out.

The suspect, whose late model sedan was studied by crime laboratory specialists, will undergo a lie detector test today.

Also slated to undergo lie tests in the murders of Robert Peterson, 14, John Schuessler, 13, and his 11-year-old brother, Anton, were two alleged members of a youthful gang which staged wild sex orgies.
