MISS ALICE JOAN COWAN IS BRIDE OF HOWARD DWYER

At 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Miss Alice Joan Cowan and Howard I. Dwyer, Jr., exchanged wedding vows in the Zion Evangelical and Reformed church, with the Rev. William C. Feller officiating for the double ceremony. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cowan, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Dwyer of Norfolk, Virginia.

The church was decorated with vases of white mums, floor vases of white glads and yellow mums, and ferns and lighted candles. The pews were marked with ribbon.

The organ music was presented by Mrs. J. Fred Fruchte. Selections included "O Promise Me," by Reginald de Koven; "Liebes-traum," by Liszt and "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs-Bond.

The bride's chosen gown of imported tulle and French tulle, was fashioned with a V-tucked neckline of tulle, a fitted lace bodice sprinkled with sequins, and long lace sleeves. The bouffant skirt featuring an apron effect of lace, was sprinkled with sequins over ruffled tulle. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a studded tiara. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Marian Swiley of South Bend, attended as maid-of-honor in an azure blue brocaded satin ballerina length gown, a net stole and matching hat. She carried yellow carnations tied with gold ribbon streamers. Miss Phyllis Dwyer, of Agusta, Maine, sister of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaid in a yellow gown styled the same as that of the maid-of-honor. She carried blue carnations tied with blue ribbon streamers.

John Shafer of South Bend, served as best man and Roger Knapp and Harris Rueger of Cincinnati, O., seated the guests.

Seventy-five guests were present for the reception, which was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors. The table was adorned with a pastel blue wedding cake, and candelabra centered with white mums. A blue and yellow theme was carried throughout the decorations. Servers were Mrs. A. R. Ashbacher, Mrs. Robert August, Miss Frau Gadomski, and Mrs. Harris Rueger. The bride is a graduate of Decatur high school and Indiana University. She is presently employed as a secretary. Her husband was graduated from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and is employed as an engineer.

Mrs. Dwyer chose for traveling, a lavender wool jersey dress with a matching coat and brown accessories. She also wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Following a honeymoon of unannounced destination, the couple will reside at 612 West Mishawaka avenue in Mishawaka.

Out of town guests included Mrs.

William Harding, Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss Lois Horning, Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ward, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Palmer, South Bend; Mr. and Mrs. John McGuckin, South Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Klinger, Mishawaka; Mrs. Pierre Guengau, Mishawaka; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McConnell, South Bend; Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull, South Bend; Miss Ann David, Mishawaka; Mrs. T. E. Miller, Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gutermuth, South Bend; Mrs. Zoe Cowan, Fort Wayne; and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Underwood, Indianapolis.

Shirley Fuelling Wed Saturday To Larry J. Lehman

White and yellow chrysanthemums adorned the altar of the Zion Lutheran church, for the wedding of Miss Shirley Mae Fuelling and Larry Joe Lehman, which was performed Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The Rev. Edgar P. Schmidt officiated for the double ceremony. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Fuelling of 264 East Franklin street in Berne, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis C. Lehman of 518 East Water street, Berne, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. David C. Embler, Sr., presented the organ music and Miss Helen Haubold sang "The Wedding Prayer," "Oh Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride chose a ballerina length gown of imported Italian Dupioni silk. The gown featured a portrait neckline with hand-run aleon lace, short sleeves and long silk mitts detailed the fitted bodice and little bustle back. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with a group of accordion pleats on each side. A plateau of sequins and pearls was held in place by a veil of imported French illusion of elbow length. She carried a white orchid with pompons, arranged on a White Bible.

Mrs. Leroy Moser, sister of the bride, attended as matron-of-honor in a blue gown of nylon tulle and cotton lace over taffeta. Pleated tulle formed the portrait neckline and short sleeves. The hooped, ballerina length skirt was of accordion pleated tulle. She wore a wreath of cotton flowerettes and carried a hand-corse arrangement of yellow pompons.

Charles Lehman, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fuelling chose a navy blue dress with deep red accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a French blue dress with mauve accessories. Both wore corsages of white pompons.

The home of the bride's parents was the scene of the reception which was held immediately following the ceremony, for close friends and relatives. The table was decorated with candles and flowers on each side of the wedding cake.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Lehman chose a light weight wool charcoal dress with beige accessories, topped with a black faille duster. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Following their return from Washington, D. C., the couple will reside at 153 West Main street in Berne.

Mrs. Lehman is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed at the General Electric company of Decatur, in the office. Her husband was graduated from Berne high school and is employed at Baer Field in Fort Wayne, as an air technician.

Guests from a distance included Mrs. William Wegsworth of St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Ruby Miller of Los Angeles, Calif.

Thursday at 8 o'clock, formal initiation will be held by the Woman of the Moose at the Moose home. Mooseheart chairman, Violet Sheets and committee, will have charge of the social hour following the initiation. This is the first formal initiation meeting of the year. The officers will meet at 7:30 o'clock.
