Here Is An Opportunity

"Raise High Egg Producing Hy-Lines on Shares."

If you have your own feed and brooding facilities, we will furnish you during April and May without any cost to you whatsoever, all the pullets you can satisfactorily feed and brood. You need no money, all you do is raise them for us and at the same time raise as many Hy-Lines as you need for yourself.

We always have a good demand for 16-week-old pullets which we would like to supply. Don't wait, only a limited number of customers will be offered this opportunity.

Kenneth H. Beard Appointed Foreman

Kenneth H. Beard, a 25-year employee of the Decatur General Electric plant, has been appointed to a foremanship at the plant according to an announcement by John F. Welch, manager. Beard will be head foreman over all third shift operations.

Beard began his G. E. career in 1926 and has had a variety of experience on machining operations. For the past four years he has been a lead operator. He is a veteran of World War II and is a resident of this city.

Easter Services At First Baptist Church

Easter Sunday services at the First Baptist church will begin with the youth of the church participating in the union Easter sunrise service at the First Methodist church at 6 a. m. Sunday school will convene at 9:15 a. m. with James J. Strickler as superintendent. There is a carefully graded Bible school with a class for everyone.

At the morning worship service at 10:30 a. m., the church choir, under the direction of George Myers, will sing "Hymns of Victory" (Wilson). A soprano solo by Mrs. Ed Lobaiser will be "Calvary" (Rodney). Mrs. C. E. Bell is the organist. Sermon by the pastor will be "Revelations of the Resurrection." The morning worship will conclude with the observance of the Lord's Supper. At the evening service at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Stuart Brightwell will lead the congregational singing. "I Will Follow Thee" will be sung by James Strickler. The highlight of the service will be the baptismal service when 19 candidates will be baptized.
