DELTA THETA TAU INITIATES NEW MEMBERS

Four new members were initiated into the Delta Theta Tau sorority, in impressive services conducted at the Youth and Community center Wednesday evening.

The initiates receiving the rituals of the sorority were Mrs. Kenneth DeBolt, Mrs. Richard Kershner, Mrs. Wilmer Bultemeier, and Mrs. Robert Krueckeberg. Gold book marks, with the Delta Theta Tau crest on them, were the gifts presented the new members.

Mrs. Fred Coughlin of Portland was guest of honor at a dinner which followed the initiation ceremony. The tables were decorated in keeping with the autumn theme, with cornucopias, candles, Indian corn, and bittersweet sprays used throughout. Individual favors were straw flower corsages, and Mrs. Coughlin was presented with a corsage of white carnations.

The door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Robert Colter and Miss Rosemary Spangler.

Following a short business meeting, inspection of the chapter was conducted by Mrs. Coughlin, who is national treasurer of the Delta Theta Tau sorority.

The local chapter is well known in this area for its annual Christmas time project, known as the Good Fellows Club. These women plan for this event the entire year of the club season, in order that needy families will be well supplied with badly needed food, clothing, and bedding, and sometimes an extra dollar or two to "tide them over."

The sorority also participates in numerous other philanthropic projects, all in some way helping those less fortunate than themselves.

Many of the local members are planning to attend the national convention of the sorority, which will be held at Long Beach, Calif. July 10, 11, 12, and 13. Mrs. J. M. Edwards of Indianapolis is the national president of Delta Theta Tau. Seven other national offices are held by Indiana sorority members.
