SOCIETY

CALVARY WOMEN'S SOCIETY HAS MOTHER'S DAY DINNER

The Women's Society of World Service of the Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church met at the church Friday evening, for a regular meeting and the annual mother and daughter banquet.

A pot luck supper was served, and each member and guest attending was presented with a carnation corsage.

Following the supper, the president, Clara Hindenlang, took charge of the meeting. The hymns "Jesus Loves Me" and "Onward Christian Soldiers" were sung by the group.

Bessie Koos offered prayer, followed by a duet by Linda Wagner and Louis Hindenlang. A reading, "Missionary Mothers," was read by Bernice Darr, and Bessie Koos read a poem.

Hostesses were Emma Miller and Ora Drake.

LINCOLN SCHOOL TEACHERS TO BE HONORED WITH TEA

The Lincoln school parent-teachers association will have a tea honoring the teachers at its regular meeting to be held Thursday afternoon. All mothers of children attending Lincoln school are invited to attend the meeting to be held in the school gym at 2 p.m. School will be dismissed at that time, and all children whose mothers are able to come are invited to stay for the program and tea.

The afternoon kindergarten classes, under the direction of Mrs. MacDonald and Mrs. Zwick, will sing some of their songs learned through the year, and the second grade class of Miss Haney will present some of their music. Miss Margaret Kocher will read a poem, honoring the teachers.

Following the brief business meeting, retiring president, Mrs. Roy Friedly, will install the officers for the coming year. They are: president, Judge Myles Parrish; vice-president, Mrs. Doyle Collier; treasurer, Vern Affolder.

and secretary, Mrs. John Spaulding.

Mrs. Ray J. Walther, program chairman, will present a large coffee urn and a surprise gift to the teachers, on behalf of the officers and members of the P.T.A., in appreciation of the fine leadership of the teachers. The urn will be for use during the teachers' meetings and other social events.

GALS AND PALS HAVE MEETING

The Gals and Pals home demonstration club met recently at the Pleasant Mills school. Mrs. Gordon Suman, club president, called the meeting to order.

Mrs. Richard Hamrick gave an interesting demonstration of a three-dish meal, and Mrs. Paul McCullough presented a brief talk on political positions in government.

Lesson planning for next year was discussed by the group, after which refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Russell Watkins and Mrs. Ed. Tricker. The door prize was awarded to Mrs. Dick Peterson.

JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB HAS POT LUCK DINNER

Twenty-five members of the Junior Women's department of the Decatur Woman's club met in the recreation room of the Methodist church Monday evening, for a pot luck supper.

Numerous games were participated in prior to serving, and four new members were welcomed into the organization by the president, Mrs. Floyd Reed. New members include Mrs. James Meyer, Mrs. Henry Commager, Mrs. Donald Moser and Mrs. Ned Knapp.

Following the dinner, a contest was enjoyed, with Mrs. Eugene Chromister, Miss Kay Ann Witte and Miss Gwen Hilyard having the high scores, and Miss Hilyard receiving a prize for the highest grand total.

Forms were distributed to determine next year's membership, and it was announced that the officers will be charge of the June picnic.

Committee members for last night's dinner were Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Robert Blackburn and Mrs. Eugene Morrison.

GARDEN CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

"Hoosier Happiness" was the theme of the twenty-sixth annual convention of Garden Clubs of Indiana, which was held at the Van Orman hotel in Fort Wayne, last Thursday and Friday.

The northeast district Garden Clubs were hostesses for the event. This district included Garden clubs of Steubenville, LaGrange, Dekalb, Noble, Allen, Whitley, Adams, Wells and Huntington counties.

The convention was under the supervision of Mrs. Thomas McKinney, general chairman, and Mrs. Charles Forbes, district director.

At the "Johnny Appleseed awards luncheon" held Thursday noon, Jay Gould gave a talk on "High standards of living." Awards were presented to various clubs for projects accomplished during the past year.

During the opening exercises of the convention that afternoon, Phil Stiegerwald sang two solos, "Trees" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Forbes extended a welcome to all the club women, and Mayor Robert Myers gave the address of welcome.

The "Hoosier homestead banquet" was held Thursday evening, with Mrs. Raymond Glen presiding. Mrs. Bradley Morrab, of Greenville, S. C., immediate past national president, was an honored guest at the banquet, and gave a talk on "What is happening in the garden world today."

Appropriate music throughout the event was offered by the Choraleers, from the Farnsworth company.

During the Friday morning business session, the club by-laws were amended and new officers were elected to serve the Indiana state club for the next two years. President-elect is Mrs. Dugald Black, South Bend.

Mrs. Thomas Ayton presided over the "Permanent home luncheon" Friday noon. Vocal music was rendered by Mrs. Eugene Lehman, of Berne, Mrs. McKinney talked about the permanent home which is being constructed at St. Louis, Mo. A film, "The Glory of Spring," was shown by John Nash.

The Decatur Garden club made corsages for the special guests at the convention.

The morning session is slated to begin at 10 a.m., with the afternoon session to get underway at

District Meeting

Mrs. Martin Welland

Plans are nearing completion for the 64th annual convention of district number 4, Pythian Sisters of Indiana.

Eureka temple, number 39, of this city, will host the convention which will be held Thursday, May 23, at the Knights of Pythias home, on North Third street.

Many of the grand and past grand officers of the state plan to be in attendance, since this is the home temple of the grand chief of Pythian Sisters of Indiana, Mrs. Martin Welland.

District deputy grand chief, Mrs. Marian Mendenhall, of Wash. visited the Eureka temple at the regular meeting Monday evening, to assist with final arrangements for the forthcoming convention, which will open with registration at 12:30 E.S.T., and will be called to order at 1:30 p. m. by the district deputy.

The formal introduction of supreme, grand and past grand officers, which will open the evening session at 7 p. m., is open to the public.

At noon there will be a carry in dinner, with each woman attending requested to bring a covered dish and her own table service.

Mrs. C. W. Wilson will have charge of the morning devotions, and the Rev. C. W. Wilson is in charge of special music. Institute leaders and guests will be introduced during the morning session, and various committees will be appointed. During roll call, an award will be given to the union having the largest attendance of members and guests.

Local W.C.T.U. officers, Mrs. D. C. Shady, president; Mrs. Fred Blu, secretary; and Mrs. John Gage, treasurer, will participate in an officers panel. Topics will include "The need of the hour," "Our tally sheet," and "Reviewing our resources."

Special music will be presented by the members of the Monroe union.

Taking part in a director's panel will be Mrs. Wilson's spiritual life; Mrs. Jesse Niblick, institutes; Mrs. Gage, publicity; Mrs. Eli Luginbill, flower missions and relief; Mrs. Frank Bohne, loyal temperance legion; and Mrs. Ervin Loehner, legislation.

The Kirkland union will present a skit, entitled "If It's Your Need," after which the noon-tide prayer will be offered by the Rev. Benj. Thomas, pastor of the host church.

A song service will follow the noon meal, and members of the Berne union will provide a brief program of special music.

As part of the union's visual education, Mrs. Vernon Riley will speak on "Seeing is Believing," followed by an address by the state director of the institute, Mrs. Mary Bly, "Today Is Ours."

Mrs. Flossie Brandyberry will present "The World's Stage," after which the playlet, "A jar of mince meat," will be given by members of the Monroe union.

The convention will close with an offering and the singing of "Blest Be the Tie."

The Delta Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Sautters, tonight at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Richard Schauss will be hostess to the Decatur Welcome Wagon club, next Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Holy Family study club will meet Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Russell Schooler.

Past Presidents of the Order of Eastern Star, number 127, will meet Thursday evening at 7:45 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Francis Ellsworth.
