MISS HONORA ROSE BRAUN FETED WITH BRIDAL SHOWER

Monday evening at the Charles Lose home, Miss Honora Rose Braun was complimented with a miscellaneous bridal shower given by Mrs. John Richard Eichhorn and Miss Angela Eichhorn.

Miss Braun will exchange vows with James Anthony Custer July 27 in St. Mary's Catholic church.

Glamorous formed the corsage the honored guest received upon her arrival. Following the color scheme of pink, silver, and white, a pink sprinkling can centered the gift table. The dining table was decorated with a bride doll and double wedding ring ornaments. Arrangements of pink and white flowers carried out the theme through the entertaining rooms.

In shower games played, prizes were awarded to the Mesdames Robert Gibson, Richard Braun and D. Burdette Custer and the guest of honor.

After the bride-to-be opened her gifts, refreshments of white wedding cake, pink and white fruited parfait, coffee and iced tea were served to the guests: the Mesdames Martin G. Braun, D. Burdette Custer, Burdette Custer, Jr., Robert Gibson, Arthur Braun, Eugene Braun, Richard Braun, Robert Braun, Roger Braun, Bill Mansfield, Sam Yost, Edwin H. Kauffman and Lloyd Bucher, and the Misses Jane Laurent, Susan Custer, Karen Braun, Judy Braun, Vicki Braun, Peggy Gibson, and Eileen Eichhorn.

Those unable to attend but sending gifts were Mrs. Andrew Appleman and Mrs. C. L. Custer.

MRS. FRANK BOHNKE IS LEADER OF WWS FOR JULY
When the WWS of the Trinity Evangelical United Brethren church met Tuesday evening in the church social rooms, Mrs. Frank Bohnke served as program leader, choosing the topic "Women United to Serve," for July.

Mrs. Walter Kress played the prelude, and Mrs. Bohnke offered opening prayer, before group singing of "The Church's One Foundation," and "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord." Mrs. R. O. Wynn gave the meditation, scripture, and prayer.

Five questions — "Who?" "What?" "Why?" "When?" and "Where?" — pointed up the concern for helping to increase united work, locally, state-wide, and nationally. The Mesdames John Kelley, Clarence Morgan, Herman Sautbain, Clifford Hoveman, and Thelma Bilderback discussed these five questions, respectively.

Mrs. Sephus Jackson sang "My Task," accompanied by Mrs. Herold Hitchcock, at the piano. After the leader stressed that there are no limits or boundaries of united church women, Mrs. Edward Heshler closed with prayer.

President, Mrs. Paul Johnson conducted the business meeting, with 26 members, one guest, and one child present.

During the social hour, the hostesses, the Mesdames Paul Johnson, John Kelley, and Zella Baker, served punch, mints, and dainty sandwiches from a lace-covered serving table.

EAGLES AUXILIARY PLANS QUILTS, SURPRISE PICNIC
At their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Eagles hall, the Eagles auxiliary completed plans to make two quilts — one for a Christmas gift, one a fellowship quilt — and a surprise picnic.

Mrs. George Myers is director for the fellowship — quilt project, which is to be made before the next District V meeting, to be held in Decatur. When it is completed, with its log cabin design, autographs, accompanied by donations, will be taken. Proceeds of the quilt project will go to the muscular dystrophy fund. Mrs. Evelyn Spangler is chairman of the Christmas quilt plans.

July being picnic month, the president, Mrs. Dwight Whitacre, has planned a surprise picnic for members to be held July 30, just after the meeting. Transportation will be provided for all who wish to attend.

Officers of both the Eagles and its auxiliary will meet Thursday, July 18, at 7:30 at the Eagles hall.

Mrs. Francis Ellsworth will be hostess to Unit Three of the WWS of Bethany Evangelical United Brethren church, when it meets Thursday at 2 p.m. Mrs. Justine Cole will be program chairman, and Miss Anna Adler will serve as assistant hostess.

Mrs. J. Clark Mayclin, of 520 Lumberlost Trail, will be hostess for a regular business meeting of the Tri Kappa sorority, Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Members are reminded that all dance ticket money, and unsold tickets must be turned in at this meeting.

Driver Is Arrested Following Accident
A driver was arrested for failing to yield the right of way following a two car collision at 11:30 a. m. Tuesday. A truck driven by Keith Hammond, 31, of route 4, pulled out of a hospital driveway onto High street, and was struck in the right rear fender, by a car driven by Bruce Baughn, 26, of Homestead 20.

Damage to the Baughn car was estimated at $10, while damage incurred to the truck was estimated at $35. Hammond was arrested, and is slated to appear in J. P. court.

More Than 200 Quail Are Released Here
More than 200 quail have been released in the county in the past few days, and more will be released in the near future, district conservationist Jack Hurst said today. The quail were donated by the state game preserve, and have been raised by the many conservationists in the county. More than $350 from the various conservation clubs went into feed for the birds this year. The raising of quail has greatly increased the number of birds here, and made Adams county a good area for quail hunting in the fall.

Adams County Man Is Charged In Accident
Dr. Edgar N. Mendenhall, Allen county coroner, Tuesday night charged Devon D. Whitacre, 36, of Monroe route 1, with failure to stop for a red signal at an intersection in Fort Wayne, which resulted in fatal injuries to Daniel J. Kelley, 24, Fort Wayne, last month.

The coroner's charge followed an inquest into the traffic death of the motorcyclist. Dr. Mendenhall said he would turn over evidence in the case to the Allen county prosecutor for any action he deems necessary.

Two Indonesians To Visit In County
Two Indonesians, with an interpreter, will visit in Berne over the weekend, from Saturday evening until Tuesday morning, it was learned here today.

The men, one of whom is acquainted with Leonard Kingsley, farm missionary of the Mennonite church from Berne, will visit farm operations in several parts of Adams county Monday, stopping in Decatur at the county agent's office at 9 a.m.

Jay County Reports 27,000 Acres Lost
Jay county reports nearly 27,000 acres of crops lost in the recent floods, including 23,000 acres of corn, 18,096 acres of soy beans, and 5,300 acres of small grains. Also, 400 acres of tomatoes, 20 percent of the county's crop. It was estimated that 150 farms were so seriously damaged as to require earth-moving machinery to repair the damage. The estimate was made at a meeting Monday night at the Jay county ASC office.

County Agent Has Severe Arm Injury
County agricultural agent Leo N. Seltentright is wearing a metal splint on his right arm to speed healing of a very deep wound suffered Monday evening.

Seltentright was carrying a fork in a sack when he tripped, and the fork entered his right forearm, almost to the bone, damaging the muscle. His physician told him that it would heal faster in a splint. The accident occurred at the county picnic for home demonstration clubs at Berne.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH H. REED, route four, announce the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Karen Louise, to William Lowell Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Duncan, route one, Convoys, O.

Miss Reed, a graduate of Adams Central high school, is an employee of Murphy's store in Decatur. Her fiancé was graduated from Convoys-Union high school, and is employed by International Harvester in Fort Wayne.

The couple plans on a fall wedding in the Trinity Evangelical United Brethren church.
