Five Big Ten Games On Tap This Saturday

CHICAGO (UP) — The Big Ten's battle for the Rose Bowl berth begins in earnest this week with five conference games on tap after two weeks of non-conference practice.

Minnesota and Michigan State were the early pacemakers, the Spartans because of a 54-0 opening day win over Indiana and Minnesota by virtue of a 21-17 decision over rugged Purdue Saturday.

This weekend Michigan State will face intra-state rival Michigan at Ann Arbor in perhaps the best game in the nation, while Minnesota will travel to Northwestern to face virtually the same team which battled the Golden Gophers to a scoreless tie a year ago, possibly costing them a Rose Bowl chance.

Spartans and Gophers Get Nod
Michigan State and Minnesota probably will be favorites for the games, but either one could be upset.

In the other conference clashes unbeaten Iowa, ineligible for the bowl because it won the title and played in the postseason classic last year, will be at Indiana, Illinois travels to Ohio State, and Wisconsin appears at Purdue.

Only Iowa was out of the bowl contention due to ineligibility. Wisconsin is unbeaten and plays its first league game, Ohio State and Illinois, each with one win and one loss, both are bowl eligibles.

The Michigan State - Michigan scrap will match two unbeaten teams, but while Minnesota has won both its starts, Northwestern has lost both of its games to non-conference rivals.

Minnesota had to come from behind to down Purdue and the Boilermakers outgained the Gophers both on the ground and in the air. But Purdue lost the ball five times on fumbles.

Michigan Trounces Georgia
Michigan State dropped California, a 19-0, while Michigan bounced Georgia, 26-0, in another intersectional struggle. Ohio State, aided by Don Sutherland's 81-yard punt return for a touchdown, tripped Washington, 35-7, and Illinois bounced back from its loss to UCLA to drub Colgate 40-0, with reserves playing the second half.

Wisconsin blasted out its second straight win, 45-13, over West Virginia as Danny Lewis scored on an 86-yard run and a 63-yard pass from Sid Williams. Iowa shook off the flu bug which sidelined eight of its top 22 players to break a tie in the fourth period and beat Washington State, 20-13.

Notre Dame tallied twice in the first 5 minutes and went on to whip Indiana, 26-0, while Northwestern gave up 15 points in the first half to Oregon State and finally lost, 22-13.

Five Upsets Mark Pro Grid Contests

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press Sports Writer
The Cleveland Browns, who hold most of the patents on football defense, and the Baltimore Colts, who have some pending, grabbed the National League's division leads today with the only perfect records after two weeks of play. The Cleveland and Baltimore defensive units provided the only hints of consistency as the 12-club league rocked under five upsets for the second straight week. The Chicago Bears, defending Western Division champions, loomed as the "bust" of the season as they took their second straight whipping. Cleveland scored a 23-12 victory over the Steelers Saturday night at Pittsburgh and took the undisputed Eastern Division lead when the Washington Redskins surprised the Cardinals Sunday at Chicago, 37-14.

Baltimore upset the Bears Saturday night, 21-10, and became the sole Western leader when the Detroit Lions scored a 24-14 Sunday victory over the Green Bay Packers.

The New York Giants were favored over the Eagles by seven points Saturday night at Philadelphia and were lucky to win 24-20.

In the other Sunday clash, the Forty-Niners thrilled 59,637 rooters at San Francisco by rallying to surprise the Los Angeles Rams, 23-20.

Cleveland and Baltimore have 2-0 records while Philadelphia and the Bears have 0-2 marks. All the other teams have 1-1 records.

Notre Dame, Army To Resume Series

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press Sports Writer
The preliminaries out of the way, college football heads into the "meaty" part of the season this week with two star attractions — Army vs. Notre Dame and Michigan vs. Michigan State. The powerful Cadets and the rebounding Irish will meet at Philadelphia for the first time since 1947, when their classic series was discontinued by mutual agreement.

In games this season, Notre Dame followed up a 12-0 opening game victory over Purdue by blanking Indiana, 26-0, last Saturday. Army galloped to a 27-13 victory over Penn State for its second straight victory. So the long-awaited Irish-Cadet series renewal shapes up as a showdown between a solid Notre Dame line and Army's raft of breakaway runners.

Next Saturday's Michigan vs. Michigan State game at Ann Arbor should prove whether either team has the stuff to challenge defending champion Oklahoma for this year's national title.

In other major games next weekend involving top-ranked teams, Minnesota visits Northwestern. Texas A&M entertains Houston. Oregon State hosts Idaho. Navy visits California. Iowa is at Indiana. Duke visits Rice, and Auburn entertains Kentucky.
