

SOCIETY

ROSARY SOCIETY PRESIDENT IS MRS. RON PARRISH

New president of the Rosary society is Mrs. Ron Parrish, according to an announcement made this morning. Mrs. Parrish was elected by the society which met in regular session earlier this week.

Also elected to serve the church society were Miss Anna Nesswald, vice-president; Mrs. Edward Wolkert, secretary; Mrs. Bill Baker, financial secretary, and Miss Phyllis Braun, treasurer.

MRS. FLUECKIGER TO HEAD ADAMS COUNTY NURSES

Mrs. Jerome Flueckiger, of Geneva, was elected president of the Adams County Nurses association, in a meeting of that organization, held Thursday evening at the home of Miss Eloise Noll.

Other officers selected by the group include Mrs. Harold Keller, Decatur, vice president; Miss Carolyn Schwartz, Berne, secretary, and Mrs. Edgar Lehman, Berne, treasurer. Outgoing president is Mrs. Denzil Dowell, of Decatur.

FRRIENDSHIP VILLAGE CLUB MEETS THURSDAY

Members of the Friendship Village home demonstration club met Thursday afternoon, at the Kimsey school, for a regular meeting.

Repeating of the club collect opened the meeting, after which Mrs. Charles Shoaf read the scripture. The lesson, "How to discipline your child," was given by Mrs. Norris Riley, followed by the citizenship lesson, "Be proud you are a housewife," by Mrs. William Neadstine.

After answering roll call by naming a new Thanksgiving recipe, the club women heard reports from five of the members who took advantage of the home demonstration club trip to New York.

Later, a luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Harry Workinger, Mrs. Ivan Fox, Mrs. Fred Freeval and Mrs. Charles Meyer.

The meeting closed as member joined in repeating the club collect.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR SUNDAY'S INITIATION

Plans have been completed for the initiation ceremony to be held by the Decatur council of the Catholic Ladies of Columbia, Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, in the K. of C. hall.

Supreme officers, Mrs. Helen Doyle and Mrs. Emma Durkin, of Springfield, Ohio; Mrs. Anna Davis, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Frances Garding, of Glandorf, Ohio, and Miss Mary Lett, of Columbus, Ohio, will be honored guests at the banquet to be served following the initiatory rites.

Mrs. Irene Gase will act as toastmistress for the affair. The following committee chairmen have been appointed: Mrs. William Kohne, kitchen; Mrs. Harold Baker, dining room, and the Misses Rosemary and Catherine Spangler and Rose Nesswald, decorations.

Reservations for the dinner can still be made, by calling Mrs. Ralph Kreigel or Mrs. Kohne.

The C. L. of C. degree staff will practice at the K. of C. hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

MRS. ROY GIBSON WILL ADDRESS WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. Roy Gibson, of Fort Wayne, will be the guest speaker at Monday evening's meeting of the Decatur Woman's club, which will be held at 8 p. m. at the Youth and Community center.

A former instructor at the Lincoln grade school, Mrs. Gibson will review "Song of America," by George M. Mardikian. She has appeared before numerous clubs and church groups, and her appearance Monday evening is being sponsored by the Literature department of Woman's club. Comprising the committee in charge of arrangements are Mrs. George Buckley, Mrs. Virgil Sexton and Mrs. Richard Schauss.

Woman's club members are invited to bring guests to hear Mrs. Gibson's review.

MRS. FRED KUNKEL IS HOSTESS FOR MEETING

Mrs. Fred Kunkel was hostess for a recent meeting of the Root township home demonstration club, which met at her home in Monmouth. Mrs. Harold Owens, president, conducted the meeting, which opened as the members repeated the club creed.

Following devotions by Mrs.

MR. AND MRS. AUGUST GALLMEYER, of route 1, Ossian, will observe their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, December 1, with an open house at their home, from 2 until 5 p. m. The couple will be honored at a family dinner, Thanksgiving day, to be given by their sons, Frederick E. and Albert H. Gallmeyer, at the former's home. The couple has three grandchildren. The Gallmeyers were married December 4, 1907, by the Rev. H. C. Jaus.

Owner Merriman, Mrs. Robert Carr presented an interesting lesson concerning guidance and discipline young children. A lengthy discussion of the subject followed.

Prior to the secretary's and treasurer's reports, given by Mrs. Sherman Kunkel and Mrs. Otto Spiegel, respectively, members answered roll call by telling of a new recipe for the Thanksgiving season.

Mrs. Ralph Rice and Mrs. Fred Kunkel sang the song of the Month, "Now Thank We All Our God," as they were accompanied by Mrs. Sherman Kunkel. The latter then presented the club's by-laws, and the meeting was closed with the club collect.

Refreshments were then served to 19 members and three guests. Mrs. Bill Sudorf, and Mrs. David Langston and daughter, by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Merriman. The door prize was awarded to Mrs. Robert Johnson.

NORTHWEST P.T.A. SPONSORS FAMILY POTLUCK SUPPER

A crowd of approximately 350 persons, including teachers, parents and students enrolled at the Northwest elementary school, attended the family potluck supper and program at the Northwest school Thursday evening.

Invocation prior to the dinner was given by Mrs. Norman Witte. Mrs. John Kelley, association president, conducted a brief business session, and gave a final report of the recent P.T.A. sponsored fall festival. She also expressed her thanks to all the evening's committee members and those persons attending the family dinner.

Group singing was led by Paul Liechty, an instructor at Northwest's, after which the Rev. J. O. Penrod, pastor of the Trinity E.U.B. church, was introduced as the evening's guest speaker.

He used the topic "Let Me Be Your Child," and centered his talks around four main points of what he would expect of parents, if he were a child. These points, in order expressed, were to be given honor, a good home, a good education, and finally, a good faith.

Mrs. Jack Baumgardner and Mrs. Nelson Doty composed the welcoming committee for the evening, and the invitations for the affair were made by the art students of Mrs. Evelyn Dettler.

In charge of arrangements for the evening were the members of the association's hospitality committee, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Friedley.

Taking care of table decorations and invitation lists were the Mesdames Robert Christen, Richard Childs, Virgil Hawkins, Robert Mutschler, Robert Helm, Richard Myers, Clarence Hook, Roy Friedley, Donald Smith Forrester Hawkins, Gerald Bixler, Carl Noll, Victor Magsamen, Richard Linn, Bill Brunner, Joseph Azbell, Vernon Hill, Darrell Kreischer, Cal Magley, Leland Smith and Clyde Gould.

Members of the Ruralistic study club will meet with Mrs. Francis Geimer, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A rehearsal of the Adams County chorus will be held at the Monroe Methodist church, at 7:30 p. m. Monday.

Our Lady of Victory Discussion club will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Edward Gase.

Mrs. Jay Markley will be hostess to members of the Delta Theta Tau sorority, at 8 p. m. Tuesday.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. STULTS

The home demonstration club of Union Township met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Theard Stults, with Mrs. Leo Workinger acting as assisting hostess.

Mrs. Rolland Gilliom, club president, led the group in repeating the club creed and collect, after which Mrs. Fred Marbach led in prayer.

Roll was called by Mrs. Paul Morgan, and each member answered by naming a new recipe for Thanksgiving. Mrs. Chalmers Barkley and Mrs. Nellie Price then gave an interesting lesson and discussion on "Discipline and Guidance of Young Children."

The song of the month, "Now Thank We All Our God," was sung by the group, followed by the safety lesson on posture, given by Mrs. Hugh Nidlinger.

Miss Lois Folk, county home demonstration agent, was a guest at the meeting, and showed various articles which were to have been made at the handicraft meeting today. She also announced that the officers training classes will be conducted at 9:30 a. m. December 3, at the Youth and Community center, with a potluck dinner to be served at the noon hour.

Mrs. Gilliom announced that Mrs. Hugh Nidlinger, Mrs. Warren Nidlinger, Mrs. Basil Gephart and Mrs. Paul Morgan will comprise a committee to work on the club books for next year. Announcement was also made that the Christmas party will be held December 27, at the home of Mrs. Barkley, with Mrs. Jack Gay and Miss Erma Rabbit as assisting hostesses.

For this meeting, each member is to bring a covered dish for the noon potluck dinner, a 50-cent gift for their "cheer sister" gifts, and their own table service. Members are also to bring a gift for Mrs. Bertha Gleckler, who is confined to her home.

At the close of the meeting, the hostess served refreshments to the 19 members and two children in attendance.

A meeting of the Eta Tau Sigma sorority is slated for 8 p. m. Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Bob Shraluka.

"Connoisseur's Delight" will be the theme of next Tuesday evening's November social meeting of the Psi Iota Xi sorority, which will meet at the Youth and Community center at 8 p. m. Members of the committee making arrangements for the event are Mrs. Eno Osterman, Mrs. Floyd Reed, Mrs. Dale Morrissey, Miss Luanne Lehman, Miss Ruth Weigmann and Miss Carolyn Weigmann.
