The crisp weather has aided in warding off an epidemic of colds and flu, and several doctors report that the general health in this area is good.

Every week, more and more citizens are learning the value of regular church attendance and all Decatur churches show a steady increase in attendance. This is a sign of a good community. Let's all work to keep it that way.

Be sure and read the advertisements in this issue of the Daily Democrat. You will be money ahead if you plan to do your Christmas shopping in Decatur. Take advantage of the complete stocks presently in local stores. You'll be the winner.

We regret the illness of President Eisenhower. At a time such as we are going through, we should have strong and healthy men at the helm of our government. Let's all hope that his illness will be short lived and that he will be back in the harness soon.

Happy Thanksgiving to everyone and don't forget to attend church to start the day right.

Trainmaster Louis Jacobs, chief of the train to meet Santa Claus Saturday, December 7, at Ohio City, O. has announced that it will be necessary to divide the train into three sections, to accommodate all children of the area who have ticket reservations. It should be a great event for the kiddies and grown-ups too.

Judge Myles F. Parrish, Adams circuit court, will deliver the Commencement address at International College on the night of December 5. Judge Parrish, who has established an enviable record as a speaker is constantly in demand for all types of addresses, throughout Indiana. He is proud also of the fact that regardless of the distance of his night commitment, he is back in time to open Court at the appointed time. In addition to this he is president of Lincoln school parent-teachers association and he also is active in numerous civic affairs.

SPECULATION

Tribune, "that he will not permit, at this critical juncture of affairs, the kind of vacuum in the presidency which prevailed for several months after his heart attack in September, 1955."

The President himself has spoken on the subject of disability. He did so at a news conference March 7, 1956, at which he discussed his decision to ask a second term.

"When I feel that I can't carry on, I won't be there," he said.

20 Years Ago
Today

Nov. 27, 1937—Decatur, Berne and Geneva Scout leaders will meet here Friday night.

Funeral services for Robert Rex Adams will be held Monday.
Judge DeVoss has set several cases to be heard in present court term.

Yellow Jackets beat Geneva, 28-23.
Christmas seal sale will start next week.

School board awaits approval of plans before starting new building.
C. E. Hocker, assistant postmaster, has been ill at his home here.
Mr. and Mrs. Glen Beavers of Toledo, O., are visiting relatives in Decatur.

Cases Disposed Of
In Justice Court

Cases disposed of in justice of the peace court included: Karl E. Burger, 35, apprehended on U. S. 224 Monday for speeding, was fined $1 and costs. Herbert Koerffer, 53, Kentucky, charged with passing on a hill on U. S. 224, one-half mile west of Decatur, was fined $1 and costs.
Richard A. Closson, 21, Woodburn, was apprehended for excessive speed on U. S. 27. Hearing on the charge will be held at a later date. Also charged with speeding on U. S. 27, Lester G. Habegger, 39, Fort Wayne, will be arraigned in J. P. court Nov. 30. John F. Earnest of Oshtemo was fined $5 and costs, charged with driving an overweight truck. All were apprehended by Indiana state police.

Slightly Injured
When Hit By Auto
Thomas Schultz, 7, of 1725 W. Monroe, sustained cuts to the forehead and knee Tuesday morning when he was struck by a car driven by Charles R. Johnson, 25, 116 S. 13th at 13th and Monroe. Schultz advised city police he was crossing with the green light and did not see the car.

City police officer Grover Odle, investigating the accident, found the Schultz youngster 39 feet from the impact. He was taken to Adams county hospital where X-rays were found negative. He was discharged from the hospital later in the day.

College Students
Invited To Dance

A special invitation has been extended to college students home for the holidays to attend an after-Thanksgiving dance at the Youth and Community center, Saturday evening. Members of the teen council are sponsoring the record hop, with records to be spun by Joe McNeerney, from 8 until 11 p.m. Admission charged will be 15 cents a person, or 25 cents a couple.

IKE

believed:
"I can now perform as well as I ever have all of the important duties of the presidency."

STOCK

one of its biggest declines in a period of 20 minutes in history. The last half hour sales of 1,100,000 shares were the fourth largest since the market started running to 3:30 p.m. on Sept. 29, 1952.

DOCTORS

would prefer to keep the December meeting on the level of heads of state, or reduce it to a ministerial level.

"We will wait for their decision on how it (the meeting) should be held," Hagerty said.
Hagerty said after the White House hears from the NATO council "the President will decide who will attend from the United States."

Signature Is Firm

The President affixed his signature this morning to 12 government documents and initiated recess appointments for temporary promotions in the armed services.
