Ohio State Is Hard-Pressed
To Edge OregonBy JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

The form chart stood up pretty well in the bowl game drama on New Year's Day but the name of Don Sutherland went into the books today as the man who prevented what could have been the biggest upset in the history of the Rose Bowl.

Sutherland, just back from a month's idleness with a back injury, booted a "hot so tough" field goal from the 24-yard line in the fourth period to give Ohio State a 10-7 victory over Oregon.

The close call suffered by the national champion Buckeyes stole the holiday spotlight from Navy's 20-7 triumph over Rice in the Cotton Bowl, Mississippi's surprising 39-7 rout of Texas in the Sugar Bowl, and Oklahoma's 48-21 trouncing of Duke in the Orange Bowl.

Oregon went into the Rose Bowl clash before 100,000 as a 21-point underdog, the biggest odds ever quoted on the classic at Pasadena, Calif. But the Webfoots won everything—first downs, yards gained, most valuable awards (to quarterback Jack Crabtree)—everything, that is, except the game.

Navy, a one-point Cotton Bowl favorite, beat Rice on the rock 'em, sock 'em line play of Tony Stremic (a supposed cripple with an ankle injury), Bob Reifsnnyder, and Pete Jokanovich. The Middle Maulers jolted Rice ball-toters lose from the pigskin five times and two of these recovered fumbles led to Navy scores. Joe Tranchini, Harry Hurts, and Ned Oldham scored the Navy TD's although passer Tom Forzestral won the "outstanding abck" award to go with Stremic's "outstanding lineman."

Hard-hitting Mississippi made Texas sophomores pay heavily for mistakes before 79,000 in the Sugar Bowl, setting up four of its TD's by two fumbles, an interception, and an incident in which a Texas man got in the way of a Texas punt. Ray Brown was the bell-ringer for the Rebels as he passed for one touchdown and ran for two others, including a 92-yard romp with a minute to play.

Oklahoma didn't blow open the Orange Bowl tilt before 76,318 at Miami, Fla., until it scored four touchdowns in the final period. Dave Baker, forced to carry most of the load at quarterback with regular Carl Dodd limited to part-time action, started by passing for one TD and scoring two others, one on a 94-yard pass interception return that set an Orange Bowl distance record.

In two smaller day-time games, Louisville drubbed Drake, 34-20, before 12,000 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., and Prairie View A&M and Texas Southern struggled to a 6-6 tie before 5,000 in the Prairie View Bowl at Houston, Tex. In a night game before 10,500 at Orlando, Fla., the holiday's only upset saw East Texas State rip Mississippi Southern, 10-9, in the Tangerine Bowl.
