8-Year-Old Girl Is Killed In Fire

Parents And Other Children In Escape

PRETOWN (AP) — An 8-year-old girl was killed Thursday night in a fire which destroyed her home near this Jackson County town.

Donna Sue Hanners, a second-grader in the Clearsprings School, was overcome by smoke while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frank Hanners, led four other children to safety.

Hanners dashed back into the house, but could not find Donna Sue in the choking smoke. He narrowly escaped a second time without injury. Neighbors tried to break into the house to save the little girl. Firefighters who found her body in the charred remains of the house believe she was smothered by the smoke.

The family awakened to find the house already engulfed in smoke and flames. Cause of the fire was not determined.

The other four Hanners children are Betty Lou, 14; Bobby Lee, 11; Wanda Jean, 5, and Jerry Dean, 2.

FCC Investigation May Lead To Others

Other Agencies May Face House Probers

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Justice Department investigation of the scandal-stricken Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is likely to spread to other federal regulatory agencies.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers is taking his cues on corruption from the investigating House subcommittee on legislative oversight.

The subcommittee is still concentrating on the FCC but is expected to begin looking soon into some of the five other independent agencies.

The subcommittee today was engaged in a partisan debate over whether its Republican members are "filibustering" to slow development of the investigation.

The dispute broke out as the group prepared to question attorney Paul A. Porter on the FCC's controversial decision in the Miami TV Channel 10 case.

Porter, a former chairman of the FCC, represented A. Frank Katzentine, unsuccessful applicant for the multimillion-dollar channel awarded to a subsidiary of National Airlines.
