Klenk's Wins
Columbia City
Holiday Meet

Klenk's of Decatur won the championship of the holiday baseball tourney held at Columbia City over the Labor Day weekend, defeating AFL-CIO of Fort Wayne, 6-3, in a 10-inning battle in the final game Monday afternoon.

Klenk's played throughout the tourney without five regulars, Hoehammer and Whetstone, who were ill; Crist, Ehrsam and Knappe, who were on vacations.

The two finalists exchanged single runs in the second and third innings, but the Fort Wayne team took the lead with one in the seventh, which Decatur tied in the eighth on a walk and Williams' double.

Klenk's broke loose for three in the 10th when Reed led off with a double. Kirchhofer walked and Williams was safe on a fielder's choice to load the bases. The winning run scored on a squeeze bunt by Whitehurst, and two more crossed the plate on an error.

In the opening games Saturday, Fremont defeated South Bend, 8-5, and the AFL-CIO downed Elkhart, 4-2. In Sunday's games, Columbia City eliminated White Pigeon, 4-2, and Decatur shut out Warsaw, 5-0. In Monday's semi-finals, Decatur defeated Columbia City, 3-1, and AFL-CIO downed Fremont, 10-4.

Chris Crawford
Turns In Three
Tennis Upsets

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI)—The sluggers from under the Southern Cross rode as high, wide and handsome as expected in the U.S. amateur tennis championships today and the only American excitement was generated by a blond "upset kid" from Stanford.

Four of the Kangaroo Kids from Australia—Ashley Cooper, Mal Anderson, Neale Fraser and Ron Laver—composed the hard core of the round of 16. And today Cooper was favored to lead the field into the quarter-finals.

But, while Uncle Sam's chances of keeping the Forest Hills silverware weren't too bright, there were lusterous cheers for the trio of upsets turned in by 19-year-old Chris Crawford of Piedmont, Calif.

The big, blond youngster displayed a whistling service and a courageous all-court game as he overpowered Gardner Mulloy, a time-tested internationalist, in the first round; bounced bright young Davis Cup prospect Barry MacKay in the second and then flattened one of the fearsome young Aussies, 20-year-old Bob Mark, 8-6, 3-6, 6-3 to reach the fourth round.

Cooper, the Wimbledon champion upset in the finals last year by his teammate, Anderson, romped over Mike Crane of Oakland with the loss of only two games in three sets.

Anderson, top-seeded, had a more difficult time eliminating Bill Quillian of Seattle, 8-6, 6-3, 6-2, but won going away when he pulled out all the stops.

Fraser tamed Don Dell of Bethesda, Md., with the loss of only one set and Laver lost only nine games in a straight set win over Roger Werksman of Los Angeles.

Harn Richardson, America's top hope and seeded third in the tournament, scored a straight set win over his Davis Cup teammate, Sammy Giammalva of Houston, Tex.; former Wimbledon champion Dick Savitt won the same way against David Harum of Coral Gables, Fla., and intercollegiate champion Alex Olmedo of Los Angeles easily dumped Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn.

There were two factors in the N.L. increase—a Milwaukee crowd that was almost 7,000 bigger than any crowd last year, plus the fact the Giants and Dodgers played a two-admission, morning-afternoon twin bill in San Francisco.

However, the American League drop from 94,773 to 93,359 came in the face of a similar split twin bill at Kansas City.

National League's
Attendance Higher

United Press International Attendance at National League baseball games on the Labor Day holiday was almost 50 per cent higher than a year ago, boosting both major leagues 14.8 per cent over the 1957 holiday figures.

A United Press International survey disclosed 115,916 fans turned out to see the four double-headers in the National League Monday, compared to only 78,759 last year—an increase of 47.2 per cent.

Although the American League total was off slightly more than 1,000 fans, the N. L. boom gave the majors a total of 209,275 for the holiday, compared to 173,532 last year.

There were two factors in the N.L. increase—a Milwaukee crowd that was almost 7,000 bigger than any crowd last year, plus the fact the Giants and Dodgers played a two-admission, morning-afternoon twin bill in San Francisco.

Buhl Returns
To Action To
Hurl Victory

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International
Bob Buhl's sudden and amazing return to pitching stardom made it more likely than ever today the Milwaukee Braves will be favored over the New York Yankees in this year's World Series.

While the Yankees, who suffered their first "losing month" in Casey Stengel's 10-year managerial reign during August, stumbled into September still in search of starting pitchers, Buhl returned to action Monday and hurled an impressive 2-1 triumph over the Chicago Cubs in the first game of a doubleheader.

Buhl, an 18-game winner two straight seasons, had been on the shelf since May 13 with a sore shoulder—but he came "all the way back" in one stunning game. Buhl's victory, which adds him to the long list of Braves' starting pitchers including Lew Burdette, Warren Spahn, Carlton Wiley and Joey Jay, made unhappy reading for Stengel, who still is looking for somebody to back up Bob Turley, his 20-game winner and only dependable starter.

The Braves' 9-3 second-game loss to the Cubs, in which Bob Rush was battered, didn't make things any brighter for Stengel. The Yankee skipper, after seeing Bobby Shantz beaten by the Red Sox, 4-2, in their opener, got a 4-2 win in the nightcap at Duke Maas, who hardly figures now as a Series pitcher.

In the other holiday twin bills: Detroit swept two from Kansas City, 7-4 and 5-1; Baltimore defeated Washington, 2-0 and 10-1; Cleveland beat the Chicago White Sox twice, 6-5 and 7-1; the San Francisco Giants took second place in the National League by sweeping Los Angeles, 8-6 and then 6-5 in a 16-inning thriller; Pittsburgh dropped to third by losing to Philadelphia, 9-0, after winning the opener, 5-2; and St. Louis beat Cincinnati, 9-3, after losing the opener, 1-0.

After Ernie Banks singled home the Cubs' only run off Buhl, the Braves got their two runs in the fourth on four singles and a walk. Then the Cubs took the nightcap, blasting Rush out in a four-run third inning. Banks led the 11-hit Cub attack with three singles.

Ted Bowfield, Red Sox rookie southpaw, beat the Yankees for the third time in three weeks in their opener, holding the A. L. leaders to four hits. Maas, a Yankee "second-line" hurler also hurled a four-hitner in the nightcap but the Yanks needed two unearned runs to win.

Willie Mays' five hits, including his 26th homer, led the Giants to their opening win. Mays also homered in the nightcap, but that was almost forgotten in late-inning dramatics. Bob Schmidt of the Giants homered in the ninth to tie the score at 4-4. After the Dodgers scored one in the 16th, Whitey Lockman homered to tie the score at 5-5 and then Ray Jablonski scored all the way from first with the winning run on errors by Carl Furillo and John Roseboro.

The Pirates won their opener behind Vern Law's six-hit pitching but ran into the "old" Curt Simmons in the nightcap. The Phil southpaw yielded only four hits and fanned seven batters.

Misell Fitches Shutout
Vinegar Bend Mizell gave four hits and nine walks but still pitched a shutout for the Cards in their opener to snap the Redlegs' six-game winning streak. Then the Redlegs got hot again with 16 hits, including four by Smokey Burgess, to win the nightcap.

A three-run homer in the opener by Minnie Minoso and a similar blow in the nightcap by Vic Power sparked the Indians to their sweep over Chicago, cutting the Sox' second-place lead to one game over Boston.

A five-run fifth inning carried Al Cicotte to victory in the Tigers' opening game. Frank Bolling, who scored two homers in that one, slammed two homers in the nightcap as Paul Foytack went the route to win on a four-hitter. Southpaws Jack Harshman, who gave up four hits, and Billy O'Dell, who scattered 11, pitched route-going wins for the Orioles to keep them in fourth place.

Football Clinic
At Worthman Field
Wednesday Night

Plans and program of the football clinic to be held at Worthman field at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday evening were announced today by head coach, Bob Worthman. The purpose of the clinic is to acquaint would-be fans who are in the dark about the game with the basics. It will also help to clear up any misunderstandings in regard to the rules and objectives of the game.

The first part of the program will consist of demonstrations by the local team of the various offensive and defensive formations in general use. Next, the duties of the officials will be explained by Don Hollman and Hans Dienelt, of Fort Wayne. The two area officials will also explain any new rules that will be in effect this season. The last 15 minutes of the clinic will feature a scrimmage by the Decatur Yellow Jackets.

The clinic is free to the public, and any fans interested in football are urged to attend. It will help get the formations and rules straight, and will be a good chance to get acquainted with this year's football team. The first game of the season will be Friday, September 5, at Auburn.
