BACK TO SCHOOL IS USED AS THEME FOR MEETING

"Back to School" was the theme Tuesday evening meeting of the members of the Kirkland Ladies club members who met at the Adams Central school.

Each member, as she arrived, had a bow placed in her hair and was given a sack lunch. The meeting room was appropriately decorated with squash and Indiana corn.

Roll call was answered by each member telling about her first day at school. Mrs. Walter Egley led the group in singing "Shine On Harvest Moon," and the ladies then repeated the club collect. The secretary and treasurer's reports were read and approved and donations were taken for the foodless bake sale.

"A go as you are breakfast" was explained and approved by the members and so ladies in the club will be having unexpected guests for breakfast. Mrs. Ralph Ross, Jr., presented the lesson and Mrs. Floyd Stoneburner gave the health lesson. "Facts of the State of Indiana" was the topic presented by Mrs. Ralph Leyse.

Mrs. Egley gave the devotions and secret pal gifts were received by Mrs. William Ehrman, Mrs. Roy Heller, Mrs. Sam Henschen, and Mrs. Harold Henschen. Hostess for the evening were Mrs. Walter Egley, Mrs. Ed Kolter, and Mrs. Ernest Longenberger.

Members of the Historical club will meet at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Ahr Wednesday at 2 o'clock.
