Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rawley

Marilyn Wittung Wed Recently To Robert W. Rawley

A floor length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle was worn by Miss Marilyn L. Wittung when she became the bride of Robert W. Rawley September 13. The double ring ceremony was performed in the Bethany Evangelical United Brethren church of Decatur before an altar graced with beauty vases of white baby mums. Reading the vows was the Rev. B. J. Thomas. To complete the decorations, baskets of white gladioli centered with peach gladioli, palms and seven branched candelabra were used. White satin bows were placed on the pews and white brocade kneeling benches were at the foot of the altar.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Wittung are the parents of the bride and they reside in Rockford, Ohio. Rawley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Winston Rawley of South Winchester street.

Upon the completion of organ and vocal selections by Miss Eleanor Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geman, respectively, Miss Sharon Schumm of Rockford, bridesmaid, and Mrs. Carolyn Jones, twin sister of the bride and matron of honor, entered the church. They wore identically styled dresses of waltz length and fashioned of crystal taffeta with princess lines. The bodice featured a scoop neckline and brief sleeves and the back of the neckline was styled with a tailored bow and streamers which hung over the very full gored skirt. Miss Schumm wore a gown of green and Mrs. Jones selected a capucine shade. Both wore matching feather hats and white gloves and carried bouquets of fugi mums to complement their gowns.

Master Franklin Parrish of Decatur acted as the ring bearer and he carried the rings on a white satin pillow. Little Miss Norma Smith, cousin of the bride, entered just before Miss Wittung and scattered petals on the white carpeted aisle. She wore an orchid taffeta dress with a crystalline over skirt and puffed sleeves. The net yoke was edged with small flowers.

As Miss Miller played the traditional wedding march, Miss Wittung, was escorted to the altar by her father. She was lovely in her wedding gown which was fashioned with a molded lace bodice and featured a sabrina neckline and long sleeves ending in points over her wrists. Her very full skirt, fashioned of rows of tulle ruffles, was highlighted with lace over the skirt forming deep points over the tulle. She wore a matching lace Juliet cap misted with pearls and which held her fingertip veil of French illusion. For a bridal bouquet, Miss Wittung carried a white Bible topped with a lavender orchid, trailing ivy, and white ribbon streamers.

Serving as best man for the occasion was Roger Jones, brother-in-law of the bride. Richard Ogg and Stanley Welker seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wittung selected a brown dress with a burnt orange feather hat and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow baby mums. Mrs. Rawley chose a black and white silk print suit with black and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church basement. The refreshment table was centered with a five tiered white wedding cake decorated with peach buds and surrounded by green foliage. A miniature bride and bridegroom topped the cake. Presiding at the serving table and wearing various colored formal were Miss Lois Farlow, Mrs. Stanley Welker, Miss Connie Rhoades and Miss Janis Rawley, sister of the bridegroom.

For an eastern honeymoon, the new Mrs. Rawley changed into a charcoal grey two piece dress with matching accessories and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Rockford high school and Fredericks beauty college of Lima, Ohio. Rawley is a 1956 graduate of Decatur high school and is employed by the Central Soya company of Decatur. He is also a member of the Indiana air force national guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Rawley are now at home on West Market street, Rickford, Ohio.
