

"It takes a whole lifetime to build the character of a noble man. The exercise and discipline of youth, the struggles and failures and successes, the pains and pleasures of maturity—these make up the fire through which he must pass to bring out the pure gold of his soul. Having been thus perfected, what shall Nature do with him? Annihilate him? What infinite waste!"—Dr. Arthur H. Compton.

1. Who was the father of the twelve sons whose names became the names of the twelve tribes of Israel?
2. What does the word "Israel" mean?
3. Which of the Ten Commandments is the only one not found mentioned in the New Testament?
4. What man was asked to offer his son as a sacrifice?
5. What was the name of the giant that David killed?

How Presbyterians Keep Lent.
We members of the Catholic Church who follow the Reformed theology and practice the Presbyterian form of Church government keep Lent as truly as any other group of Christians. But our practice is to add something to our discipline, rather than take away a pleasure or minor vice.
Regularity of Worship is one thing we know ourselves called to perform. Let us attend faithfully during these weeks of Easter Preparation.

of the week of compassion. We hope that it will not mark the end of compassion for all. This Sunday the pastor will speak on the ninth commandment. The sermon is called "Putting on the new Green."
The church school takes up Facing Tribulation with Faith. The Scripture is Matthew 25:31-46.
Mark 13:1-37. See how many questions you can bring to class.
Youth fellowship will continue working on their play. Some of our number will attend a meeting in Gas City.
Thurs. evening services will bring the message "The Command."
Bring a friend.
You know, every week now, I have invited you to attend the Church of your choice. I guess that the minister's place to try to "sell" religion, but lets look at this a moment. If you bought a new car, and you found it gave 200 miles to the gal. of gas—well I bet you would tell every one. The minister has found that life goes on forever, (you can't beat that milage, and he is trying to tell every one.
Once you have found it, you too will tell every one. I bet you would look into a car that could go 200 miles to the gal. of gas.
Why don't you look into this life that goes on forever? God Bless You.
