Russians Elated At Exchange Of Visits

MOSCOW (UPI)—The climate of Soviet-American relations improved sharply and suddenly with the announcement that President Eisenhower and Premier Nikita Khrushchev will exchange visits. The mutual agreement, reached during Vice President Richard M. Nixon's tour of eastern Europe, effectively consummated Khrushchev's often-expressed desire for a face-to-face meeting with Eisenhower.

The story was headline news from Berlin to Bangkok, and world reaction was generally favorable. Even those who held no high hope of agreement felt that it would be a good thing for Khrushchev to see the United States and gauge for himself its desire for peace.

Khrushchev is a firm believer in the advantages of personal contacts between world leaders. There was widespread belief that his meetings with Eisenhower will be a prelude to Big Four summit talks.

The enthusiastic reception that greeted Nixon on most stops in his tour of Russia also was a favorable augury for the President's visit. The vice president was virtually unknown in Russia before his tour, but Eisenhower is still warmly remembered as a wartime ally.

A sampling of man-in-the-street opinion in Moscow indicated a general feeling that "nothing but good can result" from the visits. It also revealed considerable good will be Eisenhower.

Notice is hereby given that the following named person has duly filed an appeal with the Board of Zoning Appeals of the City of Decatur, Indiana, for a variance from the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Decatur, and has requested a building permit for the following:

Kenneth Strickler, 1310 High Street, Decatur, Indiana, for construction of an addition to his residence beyond 8' of average set-back line of adjacent lots, and for a variance in compliance with Article 4, Section 5-B-2 of the Zoning Ordinance.

For the purpose of hearing objections to or information pertaining to the granting of said variance, said Board will hold a public hearing on August 17th, 1959, at the office of the City of Decatur, Room at the City Hall, in the City of Decatur, Indiana.

Youth Is Crushed To Death In Accident

MOUNT VERNON, Ind. (UPI)—Paul Eugene Head, 16, Owensville, was crushed to death Monday between the door and the cab of a truck which overturned on a Posey County Road. State Police said shifting logs on top of the truck driven by Head's stepfather, Darrell Overton, caused it to overturn.

Scratched Silverware Scratches can often be removed from silverware if you will first make a paste of putty powder and a little olive oil, rub this on the silver with a soft cloth, then polish with a chamois.

Ideal Trellis The folding gate you formerly used to keep baby from wandering out of a certain area, or from falling down a certain flight of stairs can now be used as an efficient and attractive trellis. Just nail it on end and upright to the side of your house and train your vines or climbing roses up it.

Cleaning Your Rings Your rings can be nicely cleaned with an old toothbrush and soap and water—unless the rings are badly tarnished, in which case try using bicarbonate of soda. Just dip the damp brush into the bicarb and scrub the ring; then rinse.

Straw Hats The gloss on a black or colored straw hat can often be renewed by going over it lightly several times with a cloth dipped in alcohol.

Reject Creation Of State Department

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—A move to create a state agricultural department was rejected by the Indiana Legislative Advisory Commission today because it was proposed by a non-member.

LI. Gov. Crawford F. Parker, chairman of the commission, ruled the resolution out of order. Parker said its author, State Sen. Earl Utterback (D-Kokomo), had no authority to propose the resolution because he is not a commission member.

Utterback told the 16-member commission that 46 states now have state agencies which maintain services and give information to farmers.

Utterback said his resolution, which was prompted by discussions with farmers in Howard and Miami Counties, would not create a state agency but would merely set up a subcommittee to study the situation.

"The most recent pointing up of the need experienced by Hoosier farmers for some help by their state government was a complete lack of information upon which wheat farmers could vote intelligently in their referendum," Utterback said.

He said there is "embarrassment" at Purdue University because the school collects federal, state and local taxes and disburses them without giving or receiving direction from any group.

"This, in a sense, is taxation without representation and our schools should not be subject to that kind of criticism," he said.

Utterback said his resolution was not meant as personal criticism of Parker, who also is commissioner of agriculture. He said Parker had enough work to do without taking care of the farmers and was not elected to be an expert in the field of agriculture.

The proposal met with a cool reception from Parker and other members of the commission.

Sen. D. Russell Bontrager (R-Elkhart) suggested that farmers were capable of thinking for themselves without state interference.

Sen. Ruel Steele (R-Bedford) said farmers had a source of aid in their county agent and lauded Purdue as having "one of the finest agriculture departments in the nation."

In other action, the commission approved a budget for the newly-created State Commission for the Reorganization of School Corporations. Included was $10,000 annual salary for a director.

Modern Etiquette By ROBERTA LEE

Q. We were served baked potatoes at a dinner recently, and the man next to me proceeded to remove the potato from the skin and mash it on his plate before eating. Wasn't this the wrong thing to do?

A. Baked potato should properly be eaten from the skin.

Q. What is the best thing to say to a fellow employee when he returns to the office after the funeral of a parent?

A. A brief, but warm, hand-clasp should be enough. Or just, "I am very sorry." Don't launch into a long speech, or ask any questions.

Q. At the end of a dancing course in a studio, is one supposed to tip the instructor?

A. This is not necessary. The instructor is paid a salary for teaching.
