Thor Missile Fired Toward Caribbean

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — The Air Force fired another Thor missile toward the Caribbean Wednesday night, paying the way for the launching of a "Paddewheel" satellite late this week.

A Thor, one of the nation's most versatile war rockets, will be used in an attempt to put the new satellite into an extremely flat orbit around the earth.

The Thor, which blasted off at 9:48 p.m. c.d.t. had a plastic data capsule in its nose cone. The Air Force hoped to recover the capsule, containing a tape recorder, to learn how the cone behaved on its 10,000-mile-an-hour hop.

If the Thor followed its planned flight path and if the recovery device worked, the data capsule sprang free of the cone, as it plunged toward the earth and came to rest on the ocean's surface. The impact area was near Antigua Island in the West Indies.

United Press International reported July 27 that the Paddewheel moonlet would be fired this month. Officials hope the satellite's orbit will extend about 20,000 miles from the earth at its most distant point and come within 150 miles at its closest approach.

Over 300 of the Democrats are sold and delivered to Decatur each day.

Khrushchev Flies To Summer Retreat

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev flew to his hillside summer retreat overlooking the Black Sea today to "gain strength" for his trip to the United States next month.

His meeting with President Eisenhower the middle of September may be the number one diplomatic project of his career, and Khrushchev was believed to be preparing carefully for it.

At a Kremlin press conference Wednesday, attended by 300 Soviet and foreign correspondents, Khrushchev said the question of a peace treaty with Germany would be No. 1 on the list of questions the two leaders would cover.

East and West ended their Geneva talks on the German problem in failure Wednesday. Khrushchev made it plain he would stress the question with Eisenhower.

"We believe the principal and most important question is that of liquidating the consequences of World War II," he told newsmen. Khrushchev went out of his way to sound peaceful. He spoke with a gentleness that represented a marked change from the tone of his two earlier meetings with the press in the Kremlin.

One of them produced the six-month Berlin "ultimatum" which has since been extended but never entirely withdrawn.

Khrushchev said he is "going to America a peaceful man." "I am prepared to turn out my pockets to show I carry no weapons with me," he added. "We must come together to talk peace without any sabre rattling."

Whiting Council

Postpones Action

WHITING, Ind. (UPI) — The Whiting City Council Wednesday postponed final action on an ordinance to force the strike-bound Standard Oil Refinery here to stop using supervisory personnel to man a gasoline-producing unit.

It agreed to take final action Aug. 24.

The ordinance was approved unanimously after officials of the striking Independent Petroleum Workers union complained that a dangerous fire hazard exists because there aren't enough supervisory personnel in the plant to safely operate the equipment and provide for emergencies.

However, refinery manager Arthur F. Endres discounted the danger of fire and said the supervisory crews "are as good or better" than union crews.

The strike started July 28 when about 4,800 men walked off the job following a breakdown in contract negotiations.

Shelbyville Man Dies Of Injuries

SHELBYVILLE, Ind. (UPI) — Thomas J. Adams, 39, Shelbyville, died Tuesday night in an Indianapolis hospital several hours after he was injured in a traffic accident two miles east of Shelbyville.

Adams was driving on a gravel road when the car went out of control. He was thrown from the careening auto and it rolled over, crushing him.

Convicted Killer Asks For Reprieve

ATLANTA (UPI) — Mrs. Annette Donovan Lyles, scheduled to die in 11 days for the arsenic murder of her young daughter, appealed to Gov. Ernest Vandiver Wednesday for a reprieve. Her attorneys indicated they wanted more time to prepare an appeal to the Board of Pardons and Paroles asking that her sentence be commuted to life imprisonment. Mrs. Lyles would be the first white woman to die in the electric chair in Georgia.

Two Men Killed In Crash Of Twin-Jet

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Wisconsin Air National Guard officials today searched for the reason behind the crash of an F89D twin-jet Scorpion which killed two men.

Authorities said a preliminary investigation indicated the pilot, Col. Seymour M. Levenson, 39, Chienerville, Wis., may have deliberately crashed the fighter-interceptor into an off-shore barge in Lake Michigan Wednesday afternoon.

The guard said the plane appeared to be malfunctioning and Levenson may have crashed it to avoid plowing into a row of nearby homes on a landing approach.

Levenson, a founder of the Wisconsin Air National Guard and base detachment commander at General Mitchell Field, and 1st Lt. Robert Goham, 25, Milwaukee, the radar observer on the plane, were killed.

The construction barge was moored at the end of a temporary pier off Jones Island on Milwaukee's south shore. The crash touched off a fire aboard the barge, which carried five 50-pound boxes of dynamite.

More Rain Is Needed In Subsoil Supplies

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (UPI) — Weather and crop experts indicated today that this week's rains may have ended the last vestiges of a topsoil moisture shortage in Indiana.

But still more rain is needed to replenish subsoil moisture supplies depleted by the June-July drought.

The soil moisture picture is greatly improved, the weekly crop report by Robert E. Straszheim, agricultural statistician at Purdue University, said with reference to last week's showers.

"Only 15 per cent of the counties now report a shortage of topsoil moisture. Most of these counties are in the western part of the state. Some southern counties are reporting a surplus. However, about 40 per cent of the reporters indicate a short supply of subsoil moisture, mainly from the north half of the state."

"The increased moisture supply has helped pasture conditions a great deal, but the condition is still the lowest for this time of year since 1954."

Straszheim reported that some plowing for wheat has taken place, that about 75 per cent of the corn crop has silked, 25 per cent of the corn is in roasting ear stage, more than 50 per cent of soybeans are setting pods, mint cutting is running behind because of dry weather earlier in the season and light frost in mid-June.

"About 25 per cent of the tomato fields are being picked," the report said. "The largest percentage by Aug. 1 since 1955."

Agronomist Dan Wiersma gave a Purdue on soil moisture on the Purdue agronomy farm near Lafayette, showing that recent rains soaked down about a foot.

Modern Etiquette By ROBERTA LEE

Q: How do we know when to wear full evening dress to some particular function?

A: The form of the invitation usually will tell you this. Sometimes the word "formal" is printed or engraved on the invitation. If the invitation is issued personally or by telephone, the host or hostess should state the type of dress expected. If you are uncertain, by all means ask what you are to wear.

Q: What form should a bride and bridegroom use when extending invitations to a reception in their new home, after their return from their honeymoon trip?

A: These invitations may be engraved and mailed—or they may be extended over the telephone.

LEAF APHIDS

the most good it would do would be to put the corn in a healthier condition to develop the ears in spite of the infestation, he said. Corn that is just coming into silk needs rain to help the new ears to develop.

Cost of Spraying High

The cost of spraying with malathion is relatively high, the county agent added. Although there have been some reports of costs of $1.5 per acre for treating infested fields with malathion, there have been reports of charges of $3.50 per acre for spraying alone, excluding the cost of the chemical.

Spraying rather than dusting is recommended, because the spray can penetrate better into the corn plants. One pound of actual material should be used, with 10 to 20 gallons of water per acre for the best penetration. The cost of spraying would take five to seven bushels per acre from the fall yield to pay for such spraying alone, Seltenright said.

Purdue entomologists report that the most damage is done before the heavy infestation is noticed. Little is known about the treatment of heavy infestation, but spraying may be justified if the corn is in the pre-silk stage, when the ears are just developing.

Serves As Judge In Van Wert Contest

Henry Rumble, Jefferson township farmer and a member of the Adams county memorial hospital board, served Wednesday as a judge during the annual Van Wert county plowing contest on the Cluff McCleary farm southeast of Van Wert. A number of interested people from the county attended, including county agent Leo N. Seltenright, 4-H club leader Marvey Sponhauer, Merle Kuhn, Bill Rumble, Charles Myers, and several others. In addition to the plowing program, a six-mile wagon tour, with Ohio State agricultural guides, was featured. On the trip, experiments with fertilizer, methods of seeding including minimum tillage, legume and grass variety plots were shown.
