RUTH BULMAHNS IS SHOWER GUEST OF HONOR

Miss Ruth Bulmahn, bride-elect of James Evans of Fort Wayne, was honored recently with a bridal shower. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Paul Fuhrman and Miss Esther Cook. A white carnation corsage was presented to the guest of honor upon her arrival.

Games were played and the winners Mrs. William Bohnke, Mrs. Frank Bittner, Mrs. Donald Bulmahn, Miss Barbara Evans, and Miss Sandra Metzger, presented their gifts to the future Mrs. Evans.

Refreshments of cake, ice cream, and lemonade were served from a gaily decorated table, after which the honored guest opened her gifts.

Guests present included Mrs. Donald Bulmahn, Boyd Evans, William Bohnke, Gary Shaner, Frank Bittner, Elmer Welter, James Vogelewe, Allen Lehman, Lester Cook, Martin Bulmahn, and the Misses Barbara Evans, Charlene Bultmeyer, Guren Myers, Sandra Metzger, and Janet Camp. Unable to attend were Mrs. Ted Gage, Mrs. Edward Bulmahn, Miss Donna Fast, and Miss Donna Owens.

The regular meeting of members of the Monroe Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service will be held Thursday at 7:25 in the church annex.

Thursday at 7:30 o'clock, members of the Everready Sunday school class of the Methodist church will meet at the church.

Unit number 3 of the Women's Society of World Service of the Bethany E. U. B. church, will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Merrit Alger.

St. Joseph Study club members will meet Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bob Rumschlag.

A bake sale will be sponsored by the Monroe Methodist W.S.C.S. members Saturday at Stucky's store from 9 a. m. until 12 noon.

Receives Share Of State's Business

Harry "Peck" Essex, Republican county chairman and insurance agent, is one of 26 "friends" of the state office building commission who have received part of the insurance and surety bond business for the new 13-story state office building, Robert W. Matthews, Republican state chairman, announced today.

Matthews said checks for $340 each were sent to state senators Wesley Malone (R-Clinton), Martha Burnett (R-Indianapolis), James Spurgeon (D-Brownstown), Raymond Baker (D-North Vernon) and state representative George L. Fisher (R-Leesburg).

Matthews own insurance partner, David Marsh, received $1,000 of the $9,500 in commissions for arranging for the distribution of the business. The Marshall and Grant county Republican chairmen and the eighth district Republican chairman also received part of the business.

Janice Voshell Becomes Bride In Methodist Rite

Attendants in champagne and pink preceded Miss Janice Elaine Voshell down the aisle of the Methodist church Sunday afternoon when she became the bride of Luther Schrock. Miss Voshell and Schrock exchanged vows before the Rev. Hazen Sparks at 2:30 o'clock.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Voshell of 204 Stratton Way, and Mr. and Mrs. Noah Schrock of San Diego, Calif.

Prior to the appearance of the bride party, nuptial selections were presented by Mrs. Harry Dailey, organist, and Jack Lawson, soloist.

Miss Kathy Cole, Miss Judy Lane, and Miss Barbara Suttles, bridesmaids, and Miss Sharon Voshell, maid of honor, were gowned in matching dresses fashioned of champagne taffeta brocade. The sleet length sheath dresses had beaded necklines and a cummerbund of cascading pink crystalite that formed a bustle in the back. Streamers fell to the hems of the gowns. They wore matching picture hats and carried syle bouquets of pink bountiful sweetheart centered around a cluster of white snow drift pom poms.

Miss Debbie Hack was flower girl in a crystalite dress in pink. It had a square capelet collar and a sash that formed a bustle bow trimmed with flowers. She also wore a picture hat and carried mums.

As the wedding march was played, Miss Voshell was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown was of silk organza over taffeta and was cut with a basque waist with long sleeves. The square neckline was etched with embroidered motifs of organza and studded with pearls and sequins. These extended to the waist line in front. The skirt billowed out in soft folds from the waist line and ended in a chapel sweep. A sash of the motifs drifted into a bustle effect with streamers in the back.

Her three-tiered veil of illusion fell from a half hat of silk organza appliqued with the same motifs and embroidered with pearls and sequins. The bridal bouquet was styled of feathery white snow drift pom poms and sweetheart roses.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Theodore Schrock, and guests were seated by Bruce Voshell, Richard Schrock, and David Owens. Gary Hack carried the rings on a heart shaped pillow.

A rose beige sheath dress of chantilly lace with matching accessories was worn by the mother of the bride while Mrs. Schrock selected a Georgian blue imported silk dress with blue accessories. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

The Moose home was the scene of the 3 o'clock reception that was attended by 200 guests. Servers included the Misses Ann Uhrick, Marie Miller, Janalee Smith, Carolyn Frauhiger, and Mrs. Harry Hebble. Mrs. James Engle and Miss Barbara Kalver presided at the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the bride changed into a blue Jersey suit with which she wore a white feather hat and black shoes.

A Decatur high school graduate in 1958, the bride also graduated from International Business College.

She will be a secretary to Prof. Stitz at Purdue University. The bridegroom also graduated from Decatur high school, and will be a senior at Purdue. Following their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Schrock will reside at West Lafayette.

Locals

Noah Steury, president of Decatur Industries, was the host to the Decatur Industries golf team, city champions this year, for a steak dinner Saturday night. Luke Major and his wife, managers of the Decatur golf course, were also present.

The name of the Rev. Gerald Gerig was unintentionally omitted from the wedding story of Miss Jane Grimm and Norman Lee Hart Monday. The Rev. Gerig assisted the Rev. Stuart Brightwell in reading the double ring vows Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Hart will live at 614½ Adams street upon return from a Canadian honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Gray Paddock and sons, Steven and Jeffery of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Lawrence Paddock, and Mrs. Dee Fryback of Decatur, have returned from a trip to Niagara Falls and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cummings of 104 South 15th street, are celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary today.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wernhoff were hosts for the 25th birthday anniversary of their son, Dan, recently. A blue and white color scheme was used. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dean Reber, Susan and Janice, Owen Wernhoff, and Miss Eleanor Wernhoff.

Mrs. Robert Shoup, the former Charlene Eyanson, is now working as manager of the Western Union Telegraph company in Portland.

Miss Beverly Kay Graft, aged 10, of Roanoke, recently won two contests in the Cappy Dick hobby contest. Her brothers, Terry and Chris, also won previous contests. They are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eyanson.

Galen B. Lee, trustee of Polk township in Huntington county, has resigned as trustee, charging that his advisory board refused to approve a township rate 16 cents under last year's, and had bucked him on several other township problems.

Mrs. Frieda Liby, of Bluffton, has resigned, effective today, as a visitor in the Wells county welfare office to become a teacher at the Vera Cruz opportunity school.

Richard D. Lewton, clerk of the circuit court, drove to Indianapolis this morning with his son, Richard, Jr.

Decatur Barracks Meets Wednesday

A regular meeting of the Stephen A. Decatur Barracks, No. 1369, veterans of World War I, will be conducted at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the V. F. W. hall. All members and veterans of World War I are invited to attend.

Bloodmobile Unit In Decatur Today

Fifty pints of blood were collected up to noon today at the bloodmobile, Mrs. Cletus B. Miller, Red Cross blood program chairman, said this afternoon.

The bloodmobile may have to increase its business for this afternoon if it is to collect its quota, 125 pints, she added, commenting that the volunteers were kept comfortably busy this morning.

Flags, ordinarily placed on Second street, line Monroe street for this visit of the bloodmobile, pointing the way to the Youth and Community Center, where the bloodmobile will be stationed until 4 p. m. today.

Church Recluse Back In Hiding For Time

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI)—A Chinese student who hid for nearly four years in a church attic because he was flunking college courses went back into hiding today to think things over.

This time, however, 28-year-old Chen Guan Lim of Singapore was in seclusion at a private home near the University of Michigan campus. Lim had wrapped himself in a sort of self-imposed purgatory from Oct. 9, 1955 until he was captured by police investigating one of the many prowler reports at the First Methodist Church Sunday morning.

Lim cried Monday when he was informed that his 72-year-old father, Tien Un Lim who had demanded he enter engineering school, died of cancer last March. He smiled, however, when informed his mother was well and living in Hong Kong. He was to have a reunion with his professor-brother today.

Philip Loh, 34-year-old U. of M. research associate professor whose brother is married to Lim's sister, said:

"It must be hard for you people to understand how someone could survive that long—the pressure on him was terrific from his family."

"His father was a stern man, a teacher. His brother, Chung Chuan Lim, is a professor at Waterloo, Ont., College and both his sisters graduated from colleges."

"He felt he was a failure. He was shamed, disgraced."

Revelation of his fantastic tale won Lim permission from immigration officials to stay in Ann Arbor. He also focused attention on his university problems and won him a chance to re-enter U. of M.

Two Fined, Sentenced For Intoxication

Two Adams county residents, one from Decatur, received $50 and costs assessments this morning in mayor's court on charges of public intoxication with the Decaturite also receiving a six month sentence to the state farm, and the other getting 30 days in the county jail.

Ira Carpenter, 57, of Decatur, pleaded guilty to public intoxication and received the six-month sentence and a $50 fine. The public intoxication charge is the third P. I. conviction for Carpenter this year. He was convicted June 2, and July 3 of this year. On the latter count, he was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

William Eckrote, 50, of Geneva, also pleaded guilty to the P. I. charge and received a 30-day sentence to the county jail and a $50 fine. Both were arrested by marshal Preston Pyle of Geneva Saturday in Geneva.

Methodist Leaders Study Race Problem

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Methodist leaders today held their first interracial conference on a national scale by beginning work sessions on a four-day human relations problem-solving meeting at Southern Methodist University.

Before the week is over the conference is expected to have attracted about 1,200 delegates from the United States and foreign countries.

In the keynote address Monday night, Bishop Richard Raines of Indianapolis, Ind., urged Methodists to promote brotherly love between races. He asked ministers to speak without fear on the evils of race discrimination.

"The Methodist Church can, and should, at its forthcoming general conference, speak the truth in love but with clarity and courage concerning the evils of race discrimination in all forms and the requirements of justice and Christian love and brotherhood in recognizing the God-given dignity and rights of man," Raines said.

"We should remove any artificial barrier which keeps any man of any race from entering any profession of factory or school or church because of his race."

In a morning session today, Dr. Charles F. Kraft of Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Ill., was to outline the Bible's references to race in an address titled "The Biblical Drama of Human Relations."

Separate Trial Is Sought For Carole

POMONA, Calif. (UPI)—The red-haired mistress of a prominent society doctor charged with murder of his estranged wife was back in Los Angeles county jail today while her attorney took legal steps to obtain a separate trial for her.

Carole Tregoff, 22, and her former paramour, Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 41, appeared together Monday for arraignment on murder charges for the July 18 slaying of Finch's wife, Barbara, 33.

Finch pleaded innocent and was bound over for trial Nov. 24. The attractive Miss Tregoff, who admitted she had been Finch's mistress, entered no plea.

Miss Tregoff's attorney, Robert Neeb Jr., argued the murder charge against her was based on her "simply being present at the scene of the crime, and a few other little factors."

Neeb also sought to have Miss Tregoff released on bail but was turned down by Superior Judge James G. Whyte. Finch made no such attempt and the lovers were returned to nearby Los Angeles County jail.

Neeb said he would seek a separate trial for Miss Tregoff if his motion for dismissal of charges against her were denied.

He claimed she could not get a "fair and impartial trial" if she were tried jointly with Finch.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Fred N. Whichello has charged that Finch and Miss Tregoff planned the murder of Finch's wife so the doctor would not have to share $750,000 in community property with her in a divorce settlement. He has requested that the defendants be tried together.

Busick will enroll in the college of arts and sciences, and Fuelling in the college of engineering.

Union Orders Fail To End Walkout

MISHAWAKA, Ind. (UPI)—Back-to-work orders from international officials of the United Auto Workers Union failed to end a walkout of 400 employees of the Rockwell-Standard Corp. Monday. The union tried to get members of Local 588 back on the job after General Motors Corp. informed UAW officials in Detroit that GMC would seek an injunction to remove dies from the plant if the workers stayed out.
