Russia Shows Good Feeling Toward U.S.

MOSCOW (UPI)—A new era of good feeling toward Americans burst upon Moscow today.

Glowing reports in the Soviet press and on Moscow Radio of Premier Nikita Khrushchev's reception in Washington dissolved the traditional aloofness toward foreigners.

Even the Voice of America was allowed to report factually and in Russian the news of Khrushchev's arrival. For ten years it has been jammed by Soviet stations.

(Broadcasts by the American "Radio Liberation" which mixed commentary, some critical, into its newscasts on Khrushchev were jammed as much as ever before, a spokesman for the American Committee for Liberation said in New York.)

Moscow Radio, after broadcasting an account from Washington on Khrushchev's meeting with President Eisenhower, ended with a special weather forecast for the eastern part of the United States (good) — the first time anyone could remember such an act.

The usual stiffness toward foreigners began to unbend when the exchange of visits was announced. By the time Khrushchev landed the feeling was one of holiday mood. And with each passing hour of his visit the feelings toward Americans became warmer.

The Russians regard the Khrushchev visit as a prelude to the end of the cold war and act as if restraints are now off. Their attitude seems to say: "It's okay now." There were new departures in reporting, and Tass, the official news agency, carried Eisenhower's welcoming speech in full.

The Soviet press told its readers today a "solid wall of 300,000 Americans" gave Khrushchev a "stormy applause and ovations" when he arrived in Washington. The reports described the Washington scene as one of overwhelming approval by mammoth, friendly, handkerchief-waving crowds.

Washington was so packed with people, said the official government newspaper Izvestia, that "there was not even a place to drop an apple."

"Long before the arrival of the airplane, several thousand residents gathered to greet the head of Soviet power," Izvestia said. "Thousands of Americans expressed their approval by stormy applause."

Town Is Stunned By Senseless Killings

AMES, Iowa (UPI)—This quiet college town was stunned today by the senseless killing of a young mother and her adopted daughter by an honor student at Iowa State University.

Police said they were set upon Tuesday by Harry McDaniel, 20. McDaniel offered no explanation for straggling the two, police said, except to explain that he has had "momentary urges to kill."

County Attorney Donald J. Nelson took McDaniel, a junior student in electrical engineering, before Municipal Judge Albert Steinberg Tuesday night.

McDaniel, a blond, curly-haired youth, pleaded innocent to two open charges of murder and was ordered held on $30,000 bond.

Nelson said McDaniel was watching the arrival of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in this country when he got up from the television and walked outside. McDaniel lived in a campus area known as Hawthorn Court, rows of double-duplex homes for married students.

McDaniel walked two doors away, Nelson said, and entered the home of Harold Larson, a graduate student at the university.

Larson's wife, Monica, 25, was carrying the baby, Kimmy Ann, 4 months, from a hallway when McDaniel entered the front room.

Story County Deputy Sheriff John Stark said McDaniel apparently strangled both of them immediately, grabbing Mrs. Larson around the neck and using a knotted cloth on the front room.

McDaniel told Stark he dragged his victims into a bedroom and put them face up on separate beds, then left the house.

Stark said McDaniel went back to the Larson apartment about 10 minutes later in an attempt to revive the child through mouth to mouth breathing. When this failed, he returned to his apartment and called his wife, Nancy, to admit the slayings.

KHRUSHCHEV

conciliatory in tone that he has ever made.

Khrushchev made a strong pitch for increased U.S.-Russian trade. He said it is "high time to do away with the bankrupt policy of discrimination in trade" which "serves only to maintain mistrust in the relations between our states."

At a reception before the lunch speech Khrushchev in bantering with club officials said, "We are not as pictured sometimes — gobbling up babies. We eat the same as you do. We like meat and potatoes."

He said in the reception conversation that "I'm very pleased that—despite the strong propaganda against the Soviet Union, the Communist Party and myself as the leader of the Communist Party—the public... has been giving me a good warm reception."

Even before his second day in the United States officially began, the Soviet leader emerged—in shirt sleeves—from Blair House for a front-porch look at early morning Washington traffic. He commented in Russian that this is a "very good town," then added in English "very good."

De Gaulle To Unveil New Algerian Plan

PARIS (UPI)—President Charles de Gaulle unveils a new plan today which may bring peace to revolt-torn Algeria—or, at least, pacify critics of France in the United Nations.

De Gaulle discussed his 12-page report on the plan with his cabinet early today. At noon, he began recording it on film and tape.

The plan is known to provide for "pacification" and "self-determination" in Algeria. De Gaulle will explain the meanings of these terms in his broadcast report tonight.

The report is being transcribed because De Gaulle will not subject himself to the hot lights used in night telecasts. A duplicate tape will be flown by jet to Algeria, where the speech will be broadcast at the same time as in France.

The Algerian version will be broadcast not only in French but in two Arabic dialects and in Kabyle, the language of Algeria's Berber tribesmen.

Most Frenchmen hoped the plan would bring the five-year-old Algerian war to an early end. Skeptics suggested that its main aim was to prevent a French defeat in the coming U.N. debate on Algeria.

De Gaulle discussed the plan at length with President Eisenhower when he was here two weeks ago. The French president is believed hopeful of U.S. endorsement of the plan when it is laid before the United Nations.
