Decatur City Golf Tourney Opens Saturday

The annual men's city golf tourney will get underway Saturday morning at the Decatur Golf club, with the first foursome starting at 11:45 o'clock.

The men's tourney, a 72-hole medal play, will extend over two weekends, with 18 holes to be played Saturday and Sunday. The first 36 holes are for qualifying purposes, and each golfer will be placed in a flight.

Summer rules will govern play throughout the 72 holes of medal play.

Each entrant is asked to be present 15 minutes prior to tee-off time. Luke Majorki, pro-manager, stated that the course will be available for open play throughout the tourney.

Pairings and tee-off times for Saturday and Sunday follow: (first listed time Saturday, second Sunday):

11:45-11:10—H. Dailey, N. Highland, K. Nash, T. Hill.

Mirror Inn, Mendon Win Softball Tilts

Pitchers Graft and Yearling hooked up in a tremendous mound duel Tuesday night in the city softball tournament for 12 innings of gruelling, fast pace as a cold breeze swept McMullen field. Erv Graft of Decatur's Mirror Inn outlasted Bill Yearling of Fort Wayne's Norm McCoy Realtors, winning a 2-1 contest. Each hurler struck out 19 batters.

McCoy's scored first in the bottom of the sixth as Graft got a streak of wildness, giving up two walks, forcing in one run after two fielding errors hampered the big right-hander's brilliant effort.

Graft, however, came up in the top of the seventh and lined out a home run shot into deep left center field, tying the count. Graft, by the way, had three for four in the contest.

Both pitchers matched out for out in the extra innings, until the 12th when Floyd Reed dropped a bloopier into short left field for a single. Reed tried for second, and when the throw from left hit his knee, he scampered into third. Aver then grounded to short, but the throw hit him on the head, the ball rolling away from the defenders, allowing Reed to score what proved to be the game breaker.

In the second contest, another well-played game but far short of the dramatics seen in the first contest, Mendon, O., downed the ITTF Bulls by a 5-4 margin. Nicholas got the win, while Shupe received the loss.

Games slated for tonight are: 7:30 p.m., McMullen Feed Mills vs Rockford, O., and at 9 p.m., ITTF Fabs vs the Fort Wayne Church All-Stars.

White Sox Win Over Yankees To Near Flag

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Get the champagne ready, Looie!

The White Sox may be asking you to pop the cork this week end. And by that time, the Giants should let you know definitely one way or the other.

For the White Sox, it's virtually all over but the gala formality of celebrating their first pennant clinching in 40 years. Their "magic number" now is down to four, and for those whose mathematics may be a bit rusty, it simply means the Sox can wrap up the whole business by Friday night.

That was made possible when Cleveland hit 5 1/2 games behind Tuesday night by losing to Boston, 1-0, after the White Sox had won a 4-3 thriller from the Yankees.

Giants in Good Shape
The Giants are in good shape, too, although not quite in the commanding position the White Sox are. San Francisco is two games in front of both Milwaukee and Los Angeles, and the Giants meet the Braves in a two-game series at home starting today, then play host to the Dodgers in a three-game set.

Everything worked out perfectly for the Giants Tuesday. They crushed the Reds, 13-6, while the Dodgers beat the Braves, 8-7, in 10 innings.

The Giants hammered out 13 hits Tuesday in routing the Reds. They shelled rookie Jay Hook with a five-run burst in the first inning.

Reliever Don McMahon walked in the winning run in the 10th inning to enable the Dodgers to climb back into a second-place tie with the Braves.

Cards Trim Phillies
St. Louis defeated Philadelphia, 6-4, in the only other NL game played. The game between the Cubs and Pirates was postponed because of cold weather.

Ernie Broglio of the Cards gave up five hits in beating Ed Keegan for his seventh victory. Tim McCarver, 17-year-old rookie catcher, collected two of St. Louis 10 hits and scored two runs.

The White Sox' victory over the Yankees marked the 34th game this season they won by one run. The White Sox scored three of their runs — including the winning one — with sacrifice flies to offset Mickey Mantle's 30th and 31st home runs.

Frank Malzone broke up a brilliant pitcher's battle between Tom Brewer of the Red Sox and Jim (Mudcat) Grant of the Indians. Malzone's ninth-inning single scored Pete Runnels from second base with the only run of the game.

Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm registered his 14th victory for the Orioles with a four-hit 2-1 triumph over the Tigers in 11 innings.

Washington and Kansas City split a twi-nighter, the Senators winning the opener, 1-0, on Camilo Pascual's three-hit effort and the A's taking the nightcap, 6-2, on Johnny Kucks' five-hit effort.

Machen Favored In TV Bout Tonight

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—Willie Besmanoff, a native of Germany who now fights out of Milwaukee, muscles in on some of the Braves' headlines tonight when he tangles with favored Eddie Machen in a 10-round nationally televised bout.

Machen, who has transferred his allegiance from San Francisco to Portland, is going after his sixth straight win in a comeback campaign which he launched this year after being flattened in the opening round last September by Ingemar Johansson.

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—The first edition of Fraley's Follies and the week-end football "winners" along with a few rambling reflections on the sports world in general.

Game of the Week
Clemson over North Carolina—This is a tossup battle which will settle the Atlantic Coast Conference race just as it starts. Clemson has a better team than last year's winner. The question is how much the surging Tarheels lost psychologically in the death of Coach Jim Tatum. If they go out to "win this one for Big Jim," Clemson could be in for a rough afternoon.

The East
Navy over Boston College — If ponies had pesos, somebody would find a way for horses to bet on people.
Villanova over West Chester—Why don't they invent a sand wedge in the shape of a hand?
Also: Connecticut over Springfield and Maine over Massachusetts.

The South
LSU over Rice—Tibetan monks invited jiu-jitsu for protection against Chinese bandits.
Georgia over Alabama — Tennis should change the rule on what constitutes an ace.
West Virginia over Maryland—Take your eye off the ball and watch the guards and tackles if you want to enjoy football.
Also: Florida over Tulane, Georgia Tech over Kentucky, Virginia over W. & M., Duke over South Carolina, Davidson over Catawba, Wake Forest over Florida State, Furman over Presbyterian, VMI over Marshall, North Carolina State over VPI.

The Midwest
Penn State over Missouri—Ohio State's Bob White is the nation's best fullback.
Pitt over Marquette — Boxing needs a commissioner to clean it up.
Texas over Nebraska—Pro football scouting has reached an amazing peak.
Also: Detroit over George Washington, Oklahoma State over Cincinnati, Iowa State over Drake, Dayton over Richmond, Butler over Bradley and Kansas State over Wichita.

Pro Football League Pares Team Rosters

United Press International
A handful of veterans, including end Max Boydston and quarterback Babe Parilli, and a handful of rookies were handed their walking papers Tuesday when National Football League teams cut their rosters to meet the 38-player limit.

Those who survived the axe will not be able to breathe easily until after next Tuesday when the squads must be cut once more to the new league level of 36 players.

The Green Bay Packers placed Parilli, their top draft choice in 1952, on the waiver list along with veteran tackle Tom Salkock and rookie halfback Alex Hawkins of South Carolina.

Boydston, the Chicago Cardinals' No. 1 draft choice in 1954, was placed on the club's waiver list.

The Los Angeles Rams asked waivers on three players and placed defensive back Floyd Iglehart on the injured reserve list. Those released on waivers were guard Bob Reifsnyder of Navy, Jim Jones, a defensive back from Washington and Fresno State halfback Darryl Rogers.

Linebackers Roy Robb of Texas Christian and Rommie Laude of UCL were released by the Chicago Bears.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners axed four from the squad—quarterback Bobby Newman of Washington State, tackle Frank Gernia of Notre Dame, guard Hogan Wharton of Houston and end Tom Osborne of Hastings.

Veteran halfback Gene Gedman and three rookies were placed on waivers by the Detroit Lions.

Punting specialist Dick Deschaine was released by the Cleveland Browns, along with two rookies.

The Pittsburgh Steelers purchased tackle Byron Beams from Los Angeles, acquired halfback Bobby Luna from San Francisco for a future draft choice, and cut six players.

Italian Building Collapses, 16 Dead

BARLETTA, Italy (UPI)—A new five-story apartment house, containing 24 families totaling 106 persons, collapsed without warning today. Many residents were trapped and killed, and police estimated the death toll would be high.

Police said they had recovered 16 bodies so far and taken 13 injured from the twisted mass of steel and stone. An estimated 80 or so still were missing.

A doctor at Barletta's only hospital told United Press International by telephone that most of the dead showed signs of asphyxia, meaning that they were choked to death under the rubble.

The dead included men, women and children, and only one of the badly mangled bodies was identified immediately.

Soldiers silently but firmly pushed back crying mothers who tried to force their way into the hospital to search for their children among the bodies in the morgue.

City officials said the house was built some six months ago over a previously existing garage. They said they understood no new foundations were laid and the five floors of the apartment building merely were added on top of the garage.

Not one of the cement pillars supporting the building was left standing in the cave-in.

Barletta is on the Adriatic Sea in southern Italy, about 35 miles northwest of Bari near the "heel" of the Italian "boot."

Terre Haute Woman Indicted For Murder

Millers Take 3-2 Edge In Playoffs

United Press International
The Minneapolis Millers were one victory away today from a berth in the playoff finals of the American Association.

The defending champion Millers scored three unearned runs Tuesday night to nick Omaha, 4-3, in 10 innings and take a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven games semifinals.

A Minneapolis victory tonight would send them to the finals against Fort Worth, which swept four straight games from Louisville.

Miller rookie Carl Yasemiski slid home with the winning run on Stu Lockland's single, but the thrilling extra-inning climax was marred by Cardinal claims that Ellis Burton's throw from right field had beaten Yasemiski to the plate.

Frank Barnes went the route for Omaha, allowing only three hits through the first nine innings, but failing victim to unearned runs in the third, fifth and seventh innings. Barnes committed two of the Cards' four errors himself.

Ted Willis started for Minneapolis but was lifted in the fifth after Ben Mateosky hit a two-run home run for Omaha.

Ted Bowfield came in with two out in the tenth, pitched to one batter and became the winning pitcher when his teammates scored in the last half of the inning.

Nikita Takes Copter Flight Over Capital

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower accomplished one of his long-cherished aims by talking Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev into taking an unscheduled helicopter whirl around the capital.

The 33-minute flight in a Marine helicopter late Tuesday afternoon was not part of Khrushchev's official itinerary. Eisenhower suggested it during the limousine ride to the city from Andrews Air Force Base and the Russian leader agreed.

The President told a news conference a month ago that he would like Khrushchev "to fly along in my chopper and just make a circuit of the district (of Columbia) and to see the uncountable homes that have been built all around, modest but decent, fine, comfortable homes . . ."

The flight, which came while the cars of thousands of home-bound government workers jammed Washington's streets and highways, also should have removed Khrushchev's doubt about the number of automobile in America.

Khrushchev had indicated he was skeptical of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's statement in Russia that there are 60 million cars in the United States. It was one of the Soviet leader's misconceptions about this country that Eisenhower wanted to clear up.

In addition to the crush of cars on the streets, Khrushchev got a birds-eye view of homes that ranged from sprawling estates near country clubs—some with two cars and a swimming pool—to a rather rundown neighborhood in nearby Alexandria, Va.

Khrushchev sat in the seat normally occupied by Eisenhower, alongside a broad window. Also in the helicopter were Capt. E. P. Aurand, naval aide to the President, two interpreters, a U.S. Secret Service man and a Soviet security officer.

Substitute Bout On Television Sept. 25

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI)—Heavyweight contender Ed Miloff of Argentina will meet Billy Hunter of Detroit in a nationally televised 10-round bout at the Syracuse Auditorium, Sept. 25. The match replaces a scheduled heavyweight fight between Charlie Powell and Mike DeJohn that was postponed because Powell was suffering from a virus.

Find Missing Plane, Four Aboard Killed

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (UPI)—The bodies of four persons and their private plane which was missing for six days were found Tuesday buried six feet in the earth where the aircraft crashed into a cornfield about 15 miles west of here.
