

Garrett Railroaders Beat Yellow Jackets By 27-0 Score Friday

A will-o-the-wisp Garrett half-back, Carson Culler, almost single-handedly engineered the Railroaders to a 27-0 victory over an uninspired Decatur football eleven as he waltzed through for three touchdowns and passed for the fourth Friday night before an enthusiastic Garrett crowd of about 800.

Culler, a 5-9, 165-pound senior, was a threat every time he got his hands on the ball, which unfortunately for the Yellow Jackets was pretty often—even when the Jackets were supposed to be on offense. Culler intercepted two passes and recovered one of the three fumbles.

The mighty mite took a beautiful punt by Jim Reidenbach on his own four-yard line and side-stepped ineffectual attempts by Decatur tacklers in that vicinity to wear in and out of prospective tacklers all the way to pay dirt on a 96-yard touchdown jaunt. He also scored on a Dave Wyant pass for 17 yards, and really made a sieve of the Decatur defenders on a 24-yard spurt, besides hitting halfback Jim Short with a 45-yard pass-run touchdown combination.

After the long, winding sprint by Culler in the first period for the opening six points, Decatur lost heart until the second half, when they started to grind out yards in the middle of the field. Garrett added the frosting when Tom Nason, 205-pound senior tackle, dumped Jay DeVoss in the end zone with a couple of minutes to play for a safety. DeVoss actually came out of the end zone, but was driven back by Nason, and the officials gave the safety to the Railroaders.

Decatur worked well on the first series of downs after Culler punted into the end zone from his own 42-yard line. Denny Ahr, playing his first varsity game at fullback, looked fairly good on short bursts into the line. Jim Reidenbach and Jim Gay also ran well in this series as the Jackets picked up two first downs, matching Garrett's first try.

The fatal punt then took place as Culler scooped the bounding pigskin, skirted wide to his left, danced away from three tacklers who hit, and then behind a wall of large, white-shirted teammates, for a quick six. All the points after except the one that Culler tried, failed. He passed after the third score to quarterback Wyant.

Decatur's passing attack sputtered in the first half with Reidenbach throwing, but sparked up in the second half as John Cowan took to the air. Garrett, however, stiffened when the Jackets neared the Railroaders goal line. The victory was the third for Garrett and the loss was Decatur's third in three tries.

Adams Central Wins Over Ossian, 11-2

The Adams Central Greyhounds whipped the Ossian Bears, 11-2, Friday in a conference baseball game. The Greyhounds had nine hits and played errorless ball, while Ossian committed three errors and were held to six hits by Clayton Strickler. Jim Brown and Lloyd Knittle each had a triple and single for Adams Central.

Gordon Quits As Field Boss At Cleveland

KANSAS CITY (UPI) — Joe Gordon, weary from a running feud with Cleveland general manager Frank Lane, called it quits Friday and refused to say anything about his plans for the future.

The dream will come true tonight—if things break right for the Sox. Chicago can clinch at least a tie for the American League pennant by beating Detroit in an afternoon game. Then the White Sox would become the league champions if second-place Cleveland loses its night game against Kansas City.

The White Sox moved to the threshold of the title Friday night by scoring a typical 1-0 triumph over Detroit on a home run by Sherman Lollar and the five-hit pitching of Bob Shaw.

Cleveland kept its all-but-gone hopes "alive" by whipping Kansas City, 11-2, behind the pitching of Jim Perry. But the Tribe remained 5½ games behind Chicago and the end is in sight.

In other AL games, the Boston Red Sox downed New York, 6-4, and Washington edged Baltimore, 5-3.

The big National League showdown between Los Angeles and San Francisco was rained out, and a doubleheader was scheduled for Saturday. In the only NL action, the Chicago Cubs downed Philadelphia, 5-4, in 13 innings.

Shaw and Lollar truly earned heroes' laurels for the White Sox. Shaw allowed only one baserunner to reach third in gaining his 17th win of the year. Lollar provided the game's only run when he slammed his 21st homer.

Bud Daley of Kansas City held Cleveland hitless and had a 1-0 lead until two out in the sixth inning of their game when Jim Piersall homered to tie the score. Daley then departed during a six-run rally by the Indians in the seventh inning and the Tribe added four more in the ninth.

The Red Sox, who routed Duke Maas in a five-run first-inning rally, carried a 6-0 lead into the last of the ninth inning against the Yankees. But the Yankees scored four runs before Bobby Richardson fouled out with the bases loaded to end the game.

Bill Fischer pitched a five-hitter for the Senators in their win over Baltimore while Jim Lemon led his support with his 33rd homer.

The Cubs beat the Phillies in the 13th inning when Tony Taylor walked, moved to second on George Anderson's error, and scored on Irv Noren's single.

Lollar Homers As White Sox Beat Detroit

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International

This could be the day Chicago White Sox fans have been awaiting through 40 long and bitter years.

Ever since the pennant-winning White Sox of 1919 became known as the "Black Sox" because they were charged with "throwing" the World Series against Cincinnati, Chicago fans have dreamed of another title team that would help to erase that unhappy memory.

The dream will come true tonight—if things break right for the Sox. Chicago can clinch at least a tie for the American League pennant by beating Detroit in an afternoon game. Then the White Sox would become the league champions if second-place Cleveland loses its night game against Kansas City.

50-yard Line Flasher

By BOB WALL
Decatur's Yellow Jacket football players had three strikes against them almost before the game started at Garrett Friday. First, they were mismatched and they knew it; Second, the poor showing of school spirit as only an armful (slightly larger than a handful) of school pupils attended the soiree, and last of all, the moans and groans of the Saturday morning quarterbacks on the sidelines certainly do little to inspire a group of boys who are trying to work themselves into a football team.

And then after the game was hardly five minutes old, the team made a big mistake (which they corrected, fortunately, in the second half) when they just gave up. This occurred after Carson Culler went 96-yards for a dazzling touchdown run.

What Coach Bob Worthman told his squad at half-time will not be known to anyone outside of the team, but it certainly was effective.

Garrett rates in the same class as Penn, who romped to a 21-0 victory over the Jackets two weeks ago, and play a more polished game than the Penn team did. The only difference was that the Jackets played Penn a full ball game. They only gave Garrett about half a game.

Coach Worthman used some of his young troops yesterday and while they didn't run wild, it showed that Decatur has some bench strength. Herb Magley, Dave Magley, Steve Gause, and a few of the other younger players looked like they wanted to mix it up a little.

Of the veteran troops, Herb Banning, Larry Butler, John Cowan, and a few others, very few, gave it the old college try. The addition of Denny Ahr at fullback should help, especially when Mike Thieme resumes his feats of last season.

The word is out that Joe Smith, last year's center, has received the doctor's okay to resume action after being injured in an auto accident. This will strengthen the center position with Ron August and Smith spelling each other.

Next Friday the Jackets meet New Haven at New Haven, who also bowed to Garrett's superiority. Things may look black now, but the only way to go is up — if the flesh is willing. The spirit should be against New Haven.

Purdue Held To Scoreless Tie By UCLA

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press International

As far as the Purdue Boilermakers are concerned, they can ditch that new-fangled Athletic Assn. of Western Universities and bring back those paties from the Pacific Coast Conference.

For years, Big Ten football teams have been visiting sunny California and thumping PCC schools in the Rose Bowl. But Friday night Purdue—one of the favorites for the 1959 Big Ten title—opened its season at Los Angeles and was held to a 0-0 tie by UCLA.

Purdue was a 12-point favorite but was outplayed by the UCLA defense throughout the game. The heavier Big Ten lads couldn't even score when Purdue guard Fred Brandel recovered a fumble by UCLA tailback Bobby Smith on the home team's seven yard line.

In other top games Friday night, quarterback Jack Jones threw two touchdown passes and scored on a 33-yard run with an intercepted pass to spark Florida to a 30-0 triumph over Tulane; San Jose State edged Denver, 14-13; and quarterback Tony Hanley passed for two touchdowns and ran for another during Detroit's 38-6 rout of George Washington.

Fans across the country will get their first peeks at the new rules, sars and offensive maneuvers Saturday when many of the major team begin their campaigns.

Coal Paul Dietzel's Louisiana State Tigers, last year's national champions, also will provide a treat for armchair quarterbacks when they play host to coach Jess Neely's Rice nwis. This clash will be nationally televised at 4:45 p.m., e.d.t. LSU is a 13½ point favorite.

The South has several other top-notch pairings. North Carolina plays host to Clemson in a league game that could go a long way toward settling the Atlantic Coast Conference championship. North Carolina is favored by 4½ points. West Virginia, defending Southern Conference champion, opens at Maryland in a slim, one-point choice.

In the East's top game, Boston College plays host to Navy in its new stadium. The Middles, playing their first game under new coach Wayne Hardin, are 13½ point choices.

Texas Christian, Southwest Conference champion, opens at home Saturday night in an intersectional clash with Kansas and is favored by 13. Texas is favored over Nebraska by 12 in a Southwest afternoon intersectional. Col.
