Earl Caston Named District Treasurer

Earl Caston, of Decatur, was elected treasurer of the Northern Indiana district of the Lutheran laymen's league at the annual convention Sunday at Napoleon, O.

Otto Weise, of Reynolds, was chosen as the new president, succeeding Adolph Dietrich, of Highland. Harold Meyer, of Malenter, O., was named vice president, and Karl Fels, of Toledo, O., secretary.

The Rev. Thomas C. Spitz, of the St. Louis headquarters staff, was the keynote speaker. He outlined progress being made with the league's national projects, and later in the program also served as a panelist for the Lutheran Hour discussion.

Resolutions were passed by the convention continuing the district's support of the Lutheran Hour broadcast, with district sponsorship of a South American station. Additional emphasis is to be placed this year on the league's expanded club service program, and all clubs are urged to view the newest film strip, "Saints Alive," which outlines the new material available.

High school seniors are asked to indicate their intentions of taking the 1960 Valparaiso scholarship examination by making applications at once.

Reports Breakin At Phone Pay Station

An unsuccessful break-in of a roadside telephone pay station about six miles north of Decatur on U.S. 27 was reported this morning by Charles Ehinger, of the Citizens Telephone Co. Ehinger said that although the culprit did not gain access to the money box, considerable damage, amounting to $40-50, was done to the equipment.

State and sheriff's police are investigating the attempted burglary, which apparently took place Sunday night, according to preliminary reports.

Workman Injured At Plant Here Today

Donald Leas, 32, of Montpelier, suffered an injured foot and was admitted to the Adams county hospital about 1 p.m. today. Leas is employed at the Decatur Central Soya plant. One of his feet was badly injured, and he was taken immediately to surgery.

Four Persons Hurt When Autos Collide

Sheriff's police reported an accident over the weekend involving the injury of four area residents, none seriously, at the intersection of state road 116 and county road 2, about six miles east of Geneva.

Larry J. Baumer, 17, of Bryant, driver of the first car, sustained a cut left arm; Ethel M. Teeple, 53, of route 2, Geneva, suffered a bruised nose and bruises to the knee, arm and forehead; James Baumer, a lacerated right eye and bruised nose; and Betty Jane Teeple, 30, of route 1, Celina, O., a nose injury and multiple facial lacerations.

Sheriff's deputies Charles Arnold and Robert Meyer arrested Baumer for passing the center line while attempting a turn.

The deputies reported the accident as occurring when the Baumer car veered sharply to the left when attempting a left turn onto the county road. The Teeple car tried to avoid the Baumer car but could not. Total damage to both vehicles was about $700.

K. C. Dinner And Dance October 7

The Knights of Columbus, Decatur council 864, will sponsor a founder's day dinner-dance Oct. 7, at the local lodge hall. The dinner will start at 6:30 p.m. with the dance being conducted from 9 to 12.

Decatur Lions Meet Tonight At Center

Decatur Lions will meet at the Youth and Community Center rather than at Gordon's Western Auto to pick up their brooms and light bulbs for tonight's sale, Frank Lybarger and Herb Banning, co-chairmen of the event, announced today. The center will be used because there is more room there, Lybarger explained.

Lions, with hats and pins, will be going house-to-house tonight between 5 and 10 o'clock on their annual broom and light bulb sale. Two types of brooms, and an assortment of light bulbs, will be offered. The brooms are made and distributed by the Indiana school for the blind, and selling the brooms is one way that the Decatur Lions club helps the blind of this state help themselves.

Housing Problem To Confab Reporters

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Backstairs at the White House:

During the camp David meeting between President Eisenhower and Soviet boss Nikita S. Khrushchev late this week, there will be quite a housing problem for reporters covering the conference.

The White House has a spot tentatively lined up for the Russian journalists outside Gettysburg — The Peace Light Motel.

Khrushchev will have a lovely guest room at Camp David in Aspel Cottage, the President's house, but the ever-serious Russian secret police might be a little puzzled by one of the furnishings.

The chairman of the Soviet Council of Ministers will have a cheery yellow bathroom—yellow tile floor, yellow bathtub, yellow curtains. On the wall there is a small, gleaming silver button.

The Russian agents undoubtedly will want to know what happens if Khrushchev pushes this button. Here is the answer: Within moments, a Navy steward will arrive with an armload of fresh bath towels.

The staff at the White House noticed several small details of Khrushchev's appearance last week that most American spectators may have missed. For one thing, the Russian premier has unusually tiny feet for a man of his girth. His shoes seem to be made of leather so soft and thin that it might be used for glove.

Also, when Khrushchev walks, there is sort of a paddling effect because of the way he carries his pudgy hands at right angles to his side. He move his arms somewhat tiffly and this adds to the paddling picture.

It will be interesting to see whether the President takes Khrushchev to his Gettysburg farm home. Eisenhower may be willing to show the premier his head of highly bred Black Angus cattle, but what happens if Khrushchev sounds off again about Russia producing fine cows without the necessity of "baronial sire?"

Khrushchev had quite a debate on this subject last week with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson, the Russian claiming that cattle feed is more important than having "good mothers and fathers."

In his connection, Khrushchev used the Russian idiom for papa and mama.

Eisenhower believes as Benson does, and as most American cattlemen do—that thoroughbred cattle lines are vital to the beef production.

The driver of the vehicle, Virgil Draper, 59, of 205 Grant street, reported that the little girl dashed out in front of him while he was driving north in front of 510 Cleveland street. Chief of police James Borders investigated the accident. The little girl was taken immediately to the hospital where she was admitted for treatment.

He bought her a GAS DRYER...

the only kind she wanted!

There's a big difference in clothes dryers...even though they may look alike. The Gas Dryer is the popular choice of smart homemakers for many excellent reasons.

Let us prove a GAS DRYER is the one for you!

IT DRIES CLOTHES FASTER!

No other dryer can match the speed of a Gas Clothes Dryer. It's the one that will dry your clothes as fast as your automatic washer washes them.

IT DRIES CLOTHES BETTER!

Because a Gas Dryer dries faster, it is better for drying woolens...especially blankets. Towels come out fluffier, too. Remember, speedy drying gives clothes longer life.

IT DRIES CLOTHES CHEAPER!

You can dry your clothes for just about a penny a load with a Gas Clothes Dryer. This is only about one-fourth as much as it costs to operate other kinds of dryers.
