

White Sox Stay Alive On 1-0 Victory Over Dodgers; Sixth Game Thursday

CHICAGO (UPI)—Chicago's "go-go" White Sox, back on their home grounds, vowed today that they'd make their economy-type baseball pay off again to win the World Series in which they trail the Los Angeles Dodgers three games to two.

"We'll win it now," predicted White Sox Manager Al Lopez. He named Early Wynn as his starting pitcher when the series resumes in brick-walled Comiskey Park on Thursday. He'll be opposed by Johnny Podres, the sore-back left-hander who won the second game of the series in Chicago last Friday.

"We're back in business when we make one run stand up," Lopez chuckled. "That's how we won the American League pennant. That's how we'll win the series."

Wear Black Stockings

But he admitted that the White Sox, who went back to their black stockings Tuesday to change their luck, weren't out of baseball's woods.

"We have to get even first," he observed.

He didn't know whether his club would wear the white stockings they started the series with, or the old black ones they switched to Tuesday when they kept their hopes alive with a 1-0 triumph before the largest throng in World Series history — 92,706 in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

The White Sox were desperate Tuesday. They made a fourth-inning run — scored on a double — held up and withstood a Dodger eighth-inning threat which will go down in series history as one of the most dramatic of all time.

Alston Still Confident

Manager Walter Alston of the Dodgers, still confident but lamenting that "we have to go all the way back to Chicago to wrap it up," gave Lopez credit for "putting the right man in the right spot at the right time."

Both clubs flew back here after that historic game in the vast Coliseum Tuesday.

"Their backs to the wall, the Sox threatened Sandy Koufax, the Dodgers' erratic, fire-throwing southpaw, in the third — and this time they were frustrated because their base stealing shortstop tried to take an extra base."

In the fourth, however, they cashed in on an opportunity — the kind that has been hitting pay dirt for them all year.

Battling Nellie Fox led off the inning with a single and raced to third as Jim Landis followed with a single. As Sherman Lollar hit into a double play, Fox scored.

with the run that stood up all the way.

Dodgers Threaten

The White Sox didn't mount any threats after that, but the Dodgers did and in the battle of managerial wits that followed, Lopez won out over Alston, thanks to big Dick Donovan.

That was in the story-book eighth.

It looked bad for the White Sox when Landis lost Wally Moon's fly ball to center in the sun and it fell in front of him for a single. Winning pitcher Bob Shaw retired Norm Larker on a fly ball, but Gil Hodges rifled a single to center, sending Moon to third. On the play, trying to get Moon at third, Hodges went on into second.

Now the rival managers started making moves, one counter to the other.

Furillo Pops Up

Lopez ordered Pierce to walk Repulski intentionally, filling the bases.

So Alston called on Carl Furillo, his pinch hitter de luxe in the pennant playoff against the Braves and in the series. So Lopez took out Pierce and put in Donovan.

There were pinch runners, pinch hitters and a lot of series records were tied or broken in the inning, but it mattered not to the White Sox for Donovan did the job.

He retired Furillo on a pop fly and Don Zimmer on a fly ball.

As it turned out this time, Lopez made the right moves. He made one an inning earlier when with two men on base, he put Jim Rivera in right field, shifted Al Smith, who had been playing there, to left, with Jim McAnaney going to the bench.

All Rivera did was to haul down Charlie Neal's long drive to deep right center to cut off two Dodger runs.

IHSAA Distribution Made To Schools

Hugh J. Andrews, Decatur high school principal, reports receipt of $125 as a regular distribution by the Indiana high school athletic association to high school members of the association.

The other even high schools in Adams county also are to receive $125 each from this distribution, which totals approximately $89,000. Of the amount, $93.75 is distributed for participation in the 1959 sectional tournament, and $31.25 for IHSAA membership.

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Chicago White Sox limped home today just glad to be alive after tangle with "The Thing."

They were just barely alive, because they have to sweep the next two games to win the World Series from the Los Angeles Dodgers.

But even though they were down, three games to two, they were happy to escape that short left field fence in the Los Angeles Coliseum and return to the "barn."

"Now," asserted shortstop Luis Aparicio, "we go back to a good ball park."

Gave Sox Jitters

"The Thing," and the ball park laid out in the oval clutch of the Coliseum, gave them the jitters. This despite the fact that they rattled six hits off the wire barrier a mere 251 feet from home plate while the best the Dodgers could do was lay three balls up against its mesh face.

But to all of the White Sox, accustomed to the regulation confines of ancient but spacious Comiskey Park, that screen seemingly had crouched at their shoulders for three games just as if it was to pounce.

"You try not to be conscious of it," said pitcher Bob Shaw, whose fifth game triumph was saved in a melodramatic eighth inning Tuesday by brawny Dick Donovan. "But as soon as you get into trouble, you think about it."

Live With It

The Dodgers have learned to live with it, and must until their new Chavez Ravine stadium is completed late next summer. Meanwhile, they will grow caloused to winning — or losing — games on pop fly home runs which make the old "Chinese" homer of Polo Grounds' fame look strictly accidental.

Asked what he thought of this substitute for a baseball diamond, congenial and kindly Al Lopez replied:

"Let's just call it a stadium and let it go at that. But I'll tell you one thing, we're mighty glad to be getting out of here."

Browns, Giants Battle Sunday In Pro Feature

By EARL WRIGHT

United Press International

The Browns, eager for their first 1959 crack at the only team ever to deprive them of a slice of National Football League title game money, are three-point favorites to defeat the New York Giants Sunday at Cleveland.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners and Packers, only NFL teams with perfect records after the first two weeks of play, clash at Green Bay. Coach Vince Lombardi's Packers are four-point favorites.

In Sunday's other pairings, the Baltimore Colts are 6½ point choices to tame the Lions at Detroit; the Bears are favored over the Los Angeles Rams by seven at Chicago; the Eagles are favored over the Pittsburgh Steelers by two at Philadelphia, and the Chicago Cardinals-Redskins game at Washington is rated a tossup.

All NFL coaches claim there is no such thing as a favorite or an underdog in their games. Bettors who went for the favorites last weekend may be inclined to agree. Of the six favorites, only the Packers were able to win.

The Browns, underdogs last Sunday for one of the few times in their 14-year history when they clobbered the Cardinals, 34-7, now are favored over a New York team that whipped them three times last season.

Alex Webster, New York's offensive right halfback, and Jim Patton, the team's All-League defense back, did not play at Philadelphia but figure to play against the Browns.

Cleveland is in good shape. Mike McCormack, Cleveland's 250-pound right offensive tackle, is back in action after missing most of the training season because of a knee injury. He played the whole game on offense at Chicago last Sunday.

Annual C. C. Golf Outing Thursday

The annual Decatur Chamber of Commerce golf outing will be held at the Decatur Golf course Thursday afternoon, with tee-off time at 1 o'clock. Golfers may play either nine or 18 holes, and the outing is open to the public, not closed to C. C. members.

Many trophies and awards will be presented. Closing out the annual event will be the picnic dinner, to be served at the shelter house in Hanna-Nuttman park from 6 to 7 p.m. Officials of the outing stated today that the picnic will be held as scheduled, even should inclement weather prevent the golf tourney. Tickets for the outing, including the dinner, are only $1.25.

Havana Winner Of Little World Series

HAVANA (UPI) — The Havana Sugar Kings pushed over a run in the ninth inning to beat the Minneapolis Millers, 3-2, Tuesday night and win the Little World Series.

The Sugar Kings, winners of the International League playoff, overcame a 2-0 Minneapolis lead by tying the score with two runs in the eighth inning.

Raoul Sanchez was the winning pitcher and Billy Muffet the loser for the American Association champions.

Pleasant Mills Net Schedule Is Announced

The Pleasant Mills Spartans will open their 1959-60 basketball season on the earliest permissible date, Monday night, Nov. 2, meeting Poling of Jay county at Poling.

Coach Bob Davis has lined up a full 18-game schedule for the Spartans, nine at home and nine on the road.

Pleasant Mills, losing four of last year's sectional squad by graduation, hopes to improve on last season, when the Spartans could win only four games. Lack of size again this year, however, is expected to hamper the Spartans.

The complete schedule follows: Nov. 2—Poling at Poling. Nov. 6—Hartford at Hartford. Nov. 13—Hartford at Pleasant Mills.
