LOCAL SOCIETY GIVES PLEDGE PARTY TUESDAY

The Delta Theta Tau sorority pledged four new members Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Colter. The pledges are Mrs. Robert Durbin, Mrs. Gerald Bixler, Miss Rose Marie Meyer, and Mrs. Albert Selking.

After a carry-in dinner had been served, members and pledges enjoyed taking part in an informal initiation. During a short business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Melvin Weisman, plans were completed for the formal initiation and inspection. Mrs. Gordon Gregg was winner of the prize during the game period.

On the committee for the party were Mrs. Leo Teeple, Mrs. Robert Colter, Mrs. Melvin Weisman, and Mrs. James Colter. Mrs. Medford Smith was a guest for the evening.

DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS AT EARL HARMON HOME

The Mesdames John Baltzell, Paul Erp, Dwight Schnepf, John Genth, Sheldon Wagley, Floyd Mitchell, Clifford Roe, and Kenneth Parrish were present for the January meeting of the Happy Home-makers Home Demonstration club held recently at the home of Mrs. Earl Harmon.

Mrs. Clifford Roe led the group in singing the club song, "The More We Get Together." Devotions were presented by Mrs. Harmon and a lesson on candy-making was given by Mrs. Genth. Members answered roll call with "a resolution my husband and should make." Mrs. Baltzell gave the lesson on citizenship.

Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Locals

Kenneth Arnold and son Tom returned Tuesday evening from a two week visit in Arizona. They reported snow most of the way back, to the Mississippi river.

Mr. and Mrs. George Squier of 310 Oak street returned Wednesday from a 16-day visit in Los Angeles, Calif. They flew both ways by jet airliner, taking 3 hours and 13 minutes to go, and 4 hours to return. While in California the couple visited many of the parks and sights in all areas of the state.

James K. Staley, service officer of post 43, the American Legion, and Frank Detter, county membership chairman, will attend the mid-winter conference of the state department of the legion at Indianapolis Saturday and Sunday in the Severin hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. David Butler recently returned from a holiday vacation in New York and New England, where they visited friends and relatives.

Cadet Joe Morris, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Morris, has returned to the Kentucky Military Institute in Venice, Fla., after spending the holidays with his family.

An anonymous gift of $289 enabled the Huntington United Fund to reach its goal of $72,000 Tuesday. John Scheimann, 28, of Decatur, was fined a total of $18.75 in Portland city court Tuesday night for speeding.

Robert Griffith, East Alton, Ill., has been appointed manager of the P. N. Hirsch Store in Bluffton, replacing Tom Dooley, who has been promoted to manager of the Murphysboro, Ill., store. P. N. Hirsch also operates the Model Store in Decatur.

Reception Follows Concert Thursday

A coffee reception will be held at the Youth and Community Center Thursday night following the Carl Palangi concert of the Civic Music association. The reception will be conducted by the Berne Civic Music association members.

Barbara Ann Flechter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Flechter of Kirkland township, is one of a small group of students taking part in the departmental honors program at Indiana University. It was announced today.

Miss Flechter is one of five students now leading a special "honors colloquium," a discussion group for selected students with high scholarship. In the honors program, the students pursue special studies, under the direction of faculty advisers, leading to graduation with honors.

Miss Flechter is studying under Prof. Herbert J. Muller and Sears Crowell. A junior at Indiana University, and a graduate of Adams Central high school, Miss Flechter has worked three summers on the staff of the Decatur Daily Democrat, and recently served as society editor for a week during the Christmas vacation.

Girl Scouts

Brownie troop 630 met Monday at the Northwest school. The meeting was opened with roll call and paying of dues. The girls brought one of their Christmas presents. Debbie Klusman treated the troop.
