

Yellow Jackets Lose To New Haven; Commodores Defeated By Hartford

COMMODORES

Decatur Catholic's Commodores bowed to a more aggressive and better rebounding Hartford Center five Friday night at the Gorilla gym, 53-44, as county tourney time is slipping up and maybe past several of the schools in question.

The Commodores' inability to contain a ferocious Gorilla center, Tom Moser, and their failure to connect from the outside spelled defeat. The nine-point difference, however, was not the indicator of the closeness of the game. Both teams struggled nip and tuck throughout the game with the exception of the last minute, when "anxiety" fouls gave Hartford a bigger margin.

Baker Manages 27

Senior Don Baker led all scorers with 27 points as he was the only Commodore who could hit anything at all. Baker was hurried on too many shots and did not come up with a good shooting percentage. He did play his best floor game of the season, rebounding, setting up blocks and containing his man.

Hartford's Moser picked up the slack for the injured Phil Hoover, and tallied 26. He got a little help, especially from Phil Habegger, who netted seven of his nine points in the crucial fourth period. Little Al Grogg played a good harassing game on the Commodores Baker as the local squad failed to pick him off on any attempted screens. He also chipped in seven points.

Officiating Not The Best
Rough-housing broke out in the early part of the fourth period, but fortunately no one got hurt. In Hartford's close-quartered gym, this bordered on the miraculous. The officiating, which showed no favoritism, left much to be desired. Mainly, consistency in the calls was lacking. Both teams lost equally from this factor.

After spotting the Gorillas a 5-2 lead early in the contest, the Commodores came back to take the lead at 8-7 in the first quarter, but as the quarter ended, Moser netted one from underneath to put the score at 9-8, Hartford, and they were never headed after that. Decatur came within three points several times, but could never get over that hump.

Geneva Beats Eagles Friday Night, 54-47

The Geneva Cardinals retained their top spot in the county team standings Friday night, defeating the Monmouth Eagles, 54-47, at the Geneva gym, for the Cardinals eighth win in 10 starts. For Monmouth, it was the ninth setback in 10 games.

The Cardinals led at all stopping points, 16-9, 30-22, and 41-36. Waldo Bultemeier, of the Eagles, was the game's top scorer with 20 points. Larry Laux tallied 19 points and Larry Baumer 15 for the Cardinals, while Don Brown counted 11 for the Eagles. Doyle Long, Geneva's top scorer on the season, was unable to play because of a badly injured knee, suffered in the Adams Central game, and Loren Bieberich, Monmouth regular, was also out of action because of illness.

Both teams will return to action in the county tourney next week.

Billy Hildebrand Is Wake Forest Coach

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (UPI)—Billy Hildebrand, a three-year contract as head football coach at Wake Forest tucked neatly away, said today he is optimistic about prospects for the 1960 season and anxious to get started in his new job.

"I have been preparing for this all along," Hildebrand said after the board of trustees of the Baptist school approved him as coach Paul Amen's replacement. Amen resigned earlier this week to take a job with a local bank.

Betting Ring Smashed In New York City

NEW YORK (UPI)—Police said they have smashed a $10,000-a-day betting ring operating inside Grand Central Terminal by the arrest of eight men Friday. Police said 25,000 betting slips were confiscated when the men were taken into custody in an employees locker room.

YELLOW JACKETS

The Decatur Yellow Jackets, lacking over-all rebounding, were clipped by the New Haven Bulldogs on the Allen county floor Friday night by a 69-51 score. The Jackets held a two point lead after a slow first quarter and battled the Bulldogs on even terms through most of the second. Late in the second period, the New Haven team broke loose for six points to boost their lead to eight, and the Jackets had had enough competition for one evening.

New Haven jumped into a 5-0 lead before John Cowan hit from the field and Denny Bollenbacher added two free throws. Flanders by Norton and Wissman gave the Bulldogs another five point margin at 9-4, and then Cowan, Klein-knight, Reidenbach and Bollenbacher hit from out to offset New Haven's single free throw and give Decatur a 12-10 lead at the first stanza.

Cowan hit again to boost the Jackets into a four point bulge, but New Haven put the Jackets on a quick diet and reduced the excess in short order. The Bulldogs hit eight quick points to go into a lead they never lost. Bollenbacher pulled Decatur within two, at 22-24, but New Haven iced the game with a six point burst while the Jackets picked up one, to trail at the half, 30-23.

The Jackets hit 43% in the first half, but only fired 23 times, and they missed the first free throw on seven one-and-one free throw opportunities in the first half. The Bulldogs added seven more points to their margin at the outset of the second half to hold a comfortable 14 point edge, 37-23. They added to the lead, and were ahead 51-35 at the three-quarter gun.

Denny Bollenbacher was the high scorer for the game, and the only Jacket in double figures, as the sophomore tallied 14 points. Fox, with 13, and substitute Lower, with 10, led a well-balanced New Haven attack that saw ten men break into the scoring. The Jackets had nine scorers.

The Jackets are now 3-8 for the season. The next game will be in the Decatur gym, Friday, January 15, against the disciplinary-riddled Auburn Red Devils. The Huntington game, originally scheduled for the following night, has been rescheduled for Saturday, January 30.

Red Sox, Indians Make Player Trade

BOSTON (UPI)—The Boston Red Sox will have a utility double-threat man in Ray Webster, the 22-year-old Cleveland Indian they are getting in return for veteran relief hurler Leo Kiely.

Webster played shortstop and second base for Cleveland but also can handle third base, leading to a probable utility role with the Sox substituting for Don Buddin at short, Pete Runnels or Pumpsie Green at second and Frank Malzone at third.

East Chicago Washington Is Upset Friday

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Upsets of touted East Chicago Washington and Rushville indicated today that all is normal in Indiana high school basketball and that the "rich" don't always get "richer."

The upstate Senators' eight-game winning streak was exploded by once-beaten Gary Roosevelt in Friday night's top-non-conference clash, 75-71, while Seymour's Owls clipped Rushville's 11-game string in a South Central Conference match, 79-75.

East Chicago ranked second only to powerful Muncie Central in this week's United Press International coaches' ratings, Rushville seventh.

Their defeats left only top-rated Muncie, third-place Madison and Kokomo, the No. 4 team, undefeated among major quintets. Roosevelt's Gary holiday tourney champs, cashing in on their 10th victory, sped to a 30-15 lead midway through the second period over East Chicago. It was 38-81 at the half.

Rushville Was 11-0
East Chicago closed the gap to 73-71 with nine seconds left, but Roosevelt pulled ahead and out of danger behind Muncie Newsome's 18 points. Roosevelt hit a nifty 581 from the field, Washington 397.

Rushville, until Friday night the winningest major outfit, led Seymour 33-30 at the half, but John Judd and Dave Schradler poured in 47 points between them to pace the home team to only its fourth victory in 10 starts.

Seven other lofty prep powers kept on rolling. Front-running Muncie, outscoring Lafayette in the third period, 22-7, dumped the Broncos, 70-51, for its 11th in a row. Ron Bonham swished in 31 for the Bearcats. Kokomo kept pace with Muncie in the North Central Conference, catching Logansport, 76-48, also for its 11th without a miss. Ron Hughes topped four Kokomo players in double figures with 26 markers.

Briley Hits 29
Madison made its 1960 debut by running Scottsburg into the ground 55-41, for its 10th straight. Buster Briley topped the Ohio River city boys with 29. Scottsburg, playing at home, led 26-25 at the half before the Cubs took charge.

Jasper, No. 5, and beaten only at East Chicago Washington, and eighth-rated Bloomington, licked only at Jasper, won Southern Conference games at Evansville, Jasper made it 10 straight, and 131 overall at Bosse, 87-54. Bob Merder hit 22 for the Wildcats and 19. Bloomington overwhelmed Central of the Pocket City, 90-63.

Indianapolis Tech, tied for ninth spot, led Anderson at every stop for a 71-48 NCC triumph. Alexandria and Elwood remained unbeaten in the Central Conference, beating Muncie Burris, 64-46, and Huntington, 55-45, respectively.

Michigan City, No. 6, downed Goshen in the East NIHS, 71-58, for a 10-1 mark, but LaPorte absorbed its first loss at South Bend Central, 74-64. Gary Wallace remained unbeaten in the West NIHS, besting East Chicago Roosevelt, 45-38.

Silver Creek Upset
Fort Wayne South bagged its 32nd straight city victory, spanking North, 65-55. The string goes back to January of 1956.

Fountain City ran its perfect string to an even-dozen, drubbing Milton, 83-71.

Another upset was turned in by Indianapolis Sacred Heart, surprise 57-51. Sacred Heart, Jeffersonville's tough backyard rival, Gene Bogash celebrated his 19th birthday by swishing 21 from the field and adding seven freethrows for 49 points, a new school and gym record, to lead North Judson to an 81-61 rout over Chesterton. Bogash made his first nine shots.

NBC Plans To Drop Friday Night Fights

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Friday night fights will be dropped by the National Broadcasting Company after next September and there were indications today the sponsors may try to put the bouts on another network.

President Vincent C. Ziegler of the Gillette Safety Razor Company, which sponsors the Friday night fights, said his company has been "informally" advised by the NBC that it "does not want to carry the Friday fights on their network after next September."

Adams Central Wins Easily Over Bryant

The Adams Central Greyhounds upped their season record to eight wins and only three losses Friday night by whipping the Bryant Owls, 67-50, at the Adams Central gym.

The Greyhounds piled up a big 16-17 bulge at the half and rode to their easy win in the second half.

Adams Central had four players in double figures, topped by Larry Foreman with 17 points. Jerry Funk tallied 14, and Jim Brown and Claude Striker 10 each. Garlinier led Bryant with 17 markers.

The Greyhounds' next action will be Friday night, when they meet the Geneva Cardinals in the county tourney at Adams Central.

NCAA Rejects Coaches' Plea On Substitutes

NEW YORK (UPI)—The nation's college football coaches were thrown for a heavy loss today in their all-out campaign to bring back the two-platoon system.

Any hope that two-platoon football might return this year has been practically eliminated by the National Collegiate Athletic Association, which voted to retain the present substitution rule.

The NCAA's action, which virtually amounts to a mandate, certainly will influence the football rules committee at its three-day sessions in Miami Beach, Fla., beginning Monday, and the general belief is that the current substitution code will keep for at least another year.

The nation's coaches voted overwhelmingly last Tuesday to urge the rules committee to bring back two-platoon football which the NCAA banned in 1953.

But NCAA officials, by a majority of 2 of 1, voted against unlimited substitutions again Friday and the strong Eastern College Athletic Conference strongly supported the recommendation.

NCAA delegates concluded their 54th annual convention Friday but before they did, they took the following action:

—Gave their stamp of approval to a new "Gotham Bowl" football game to be played in New York's Yankee Stadium next Dec. 10 or 17.

—Defeated a move to limit the age of foreign athletes competing for American universities because restrictions would brand the U.S. as discriminatory "all over the world."

—Ruled that U. S. team events against the University of Alaska, as in the cases of the University of Hawaii and Puerto Rico, shall not be considered as contests in computing maximum playing schedules.

—Re-elected Herbert J. Dorricott of Western State College of Colorado as NCAA president and Gen. P. L. Sadler of Lehigh as secretary treasurer for one-year terms.

Peru Strike Threat Averted For Week
PERU, Ind. (UPI)—A strike threat which has been hanging over Peru's municipal power utility appeared today to have been averted for at least a week.

Members of the Municipal Employees Union Local 1030 voted early this month to strike after Mayor S. G. Cox fired 38 city workers on grounds of inefficiency. City officials then refused to arbitrate the dismissals and the union voted to strike.

However, the union has ruled that the strike ballot was not proper and it was reported that a new strike was scheduled for Jan. 15.

Ortega Winner By Unpopular Decision

NEW YORK (UPI)—Welterweight Stan Harrington of Hawaii, who wept in the ring Friday night when he lost a very unpopular decision in his New York-and-TV debut, will get a return shot at Mexican Gaspar Ortega in mid-February or early March.

"The managers of Ortega and Harrington have agreed to the rematch," said matchmaker Teddy Brennes today. "They've accepted terms, and the date probably will be Feb. 12 or 19, or March 4."

Tad Kawamura, manager of Harrington, said he would not file a protest with the commission despite the five-minute demonstration of protest by the 2,500 fans in Madison Square Garden.

Lanky Ortega, known as the "unlucky Indian" because he had lost so many close decisions in his career of 70 previous bouts, declared, "I'm so happy about finally winning a close one, I'll fight Harrington again—or anybody else."

Ortega, favored at 2-1 but outclassed in the first half of the 10-rounder, came from behind with a strong finish to win the unanimous decision. He suffered a slight cut on his left brow in the seventh round, but it will not prevent the return match being held next month, if necessary.

Ortega, 26 — the same age as Harrington — weighed 147½ pounds to 147½ for Honolulu's aggressive close-quarter hooker.
