While watching the parade of presidential hopefuls, don't overlook the fact that news media, from newspapers to TV and radio, will be subtly and perhaps even unconsciously influencing the reader.

Since many of the people engaged in writing or editing of copy for the various news media are already prejudiced for or against certain candidates, based on what they believe concerning them, this cannot help but creep into what they write, and how they play up various events.

One of the finest statements from a prospective candidate, and from one whom by his own admission had an uphill fight, comes from Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota. Those who attended the Catholic Rural Life Conference in Fort Wayne a year or so ago remember the fine impression which Sen. Humphrey, who is a Lutheran himself, made when speaking on the farm question.

Let us quote from Sen. Humphrey's statement:

"My support does not come principally from persons of position, rank, or wealth. Rather it comes largely from people, who like myself, are of modest origin and limited financial means.

"This is in itself one of the main reasons I am venturing to seek the nomination. I know from personal experience what it means to be the victim of depression, distress and natural disaster—those unpredictable forces over which so many human beings have no control.

"I also know that it is precisely these Americans—who lack the means, the power or the influence to fully control their own destiny—who most need and yet lack a voice in the conduct of their government. They need a spokesman, and I intend to the best of my ability to be that spokesman.

"We can no longer tolerate government that reacts instead of taking the initiative.

"I have seen a bankrupt and despairing America of 1932 lifted out of chaos and poverty and set on the road to recovery principally by one ingredient—leadership. America met the challenge of both limited and total war with leaders determined to get the job done rather than worrying about the obstacles that lay in the path...

"We all want prosperity. But the prosperity we want must not be lopsided. It should be a prosperity that results from an expanding economy with full shares for all—businessmen, farmers, working people, the young and the elderly. We seek a prosperity for America that insures greater social justice."

Humphrey closed his announcement with the 28-year-old quote from Franklin D. Roosevelt's letter agreeing to enter the North Dakota primary:

"One who believes in new standards of government for meeting new problems, in the translation of forward-looking thought into practical action, must welcome a chance to do his share toward that end."

Sen. Humphrey is a mature man, with a wife and four children, including three teen-agers and an adult daughter. He is a clear thinker, and one of the few men who in the space of one term has moved into the center of the Senate Democratic group. Watch him closely.

Income Tax Fax

(Editor's note: As a public service to the taxpayers of Adams county, the Decatur Daily Democrat and the Indiana society of public accountants, an affiliate of the national society of public accountants, presents the following article, which is one of a series that will run weekly until the week of April 11.)

How many exemptions can you claim?

Each exemption is a $600 deduction. That is, for each exemption you are allowed to make $600 tax free.

Exemptions determine the amount of tax-free income you are allowed each year, and are devised to make the tax fair between single persons, married couples, and large and small families.

You are entitled to one exemption for yourself. You are entitled to one additional exemption if, on December 31, 1959, you had attained 65 years of age, or if you were blind.

If you were both 65 and blind, you are entitled to two additional exemptions. You are also entitled to exemption on the same basis for your wife, if you file a joint return.

If you file a separate return, you can claim your wife's exemptions only if she has no income and was not claimed on any other taxpayer's return for 1959.

If your wife or husband died in 1959, the additional exemptions for age and blindness are determined as at the date of death, rather than December 31.

You are entitled to one exemption for each dependent. Additional exemptions for old age and blindness apply only to you and your wife or husband, not to dependents.

No Hammered Thumb
Here's a good tip which might save you a mashed thumb sometime. When driving a nail, first rest the hammer on the head of the nail, then lift the hammer and give the nail a light tap to start it. Resting the hammer on the nailhead first tends to increase your accuracy.

Cleaning Pans
It is easier to clean pans in which food has hardened or has burned if the pan is turned upside down and cold water run on the bottom while it is still hot. If necessary, repeat the pan first.

Fern Tonic
Even house ferns like a cup of tea now and then! Cold tea acts as a tonic and will often revive ailing ferns.

Grand Lake Beagle
Club Holds Dinner

A total of 40 Decatur area people were among the more than 800 members of the Grand Lake beagle club who attended the seventh annual rabbit supper at Green Acres near Celina Saturday night, Art Braun, vice president, said today.

The club was formed in 1944 by 25 men bound together by a mutual interest in breeding and raising beagle hounds and in hunting rabbits. Trials have grown from 8 or 10 dogs to more than 50 dogs in each class.

Held Field Trials
The club owns 56 acres on route 127 immediately north of the St. Mary's river. It is on this tract and 400 adjoining acres, leased or used with the owners' consent, that the group holds its American Kennel Club sanctioned field trials.

The members hope soon to be able to hold license trials, four to five day events with the judges on horseback, which win points towards national championships.

Only Decatur Officer
Hap Smith, of Celina, present president of the club, was named winner of the third annual member of the year award. Art Braun of Decatur, is the only non-Celina officer.

Following the dinner movies were shown of a beagle hunt, and announcements were made. A cake-walk was held, with L. J. Montague, of Decatur, as master of ceremonies.

After the program round and square dancing continued until midnight.

Those attending from Decatur were Mr. and Mrs. Art Braun, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Baughn, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Girod, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thiele, Mr. and Mrs. Harbottle Gase, James Corah, Judy Royer, Dianne Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Isch.

Missing Heiress Is Found In Belgium

ANTWERP, Belgium (UPI)—Gambie Benedict, 18-year-old heiress to the Remington typewriter millions, arrived here Saturday aboard a freighter with Romanian-born Andrei Porumbescu, 34, and left Sunday for Paris, shipping line officials said today.

Gambie, who fled her grandmother's East 57th Street apartment on Dec. 27, the day after she made her debut at the Waldorf-Astoria, was reported to have "disappeared" but New York police announced she had sailed on the 5,400-ton passenger-freighter Egda of the Cosmopolitan Shipping Co.

Shipping authorities in Antwerp said she and Porumbescu, an American citizen, occupied separate cabins on the ship during the 10-day voyage from New York. They stopped briefly in Antwerp, took a taxi to Antwerp's main railway station and boarded an express train for Paris.

Porumbescu, a former chauffeur-butter once employed by Mrs. Arde Bulova, widow of the chairman of the Bulova Watch Co., gave a Paris address as his destination. Gambie said she was going to Naples, Italy.

They disappeared after boarding the train.

The disappearance of the wealthy debutante had been a mystery for 13 days until New York detectives announced Sunday night she had sailed from New York Dec. 31.

Modern Etiquette
By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Just what does "bowing" mean for a woman?

A. This does not, of course, mean a deep, formal bend. It is rather, a pleasant nod and smile, accompanied by a slight bend forward from the waist. Bowing should be a friendly gesture, rather than a stiff one. You would use it in greeting friends across a room, and some naturally graceful women combine it pleasantly with shaking hands.

Q. When a man and woman are leaving a crowded bus, is the man always supposed to get out first in order to help the woman?

A. Yes—but only if he can do so without too much jostling and squeezing.

Q. Is a club or hotel a proper place in which to hold a wedding?

A. While these places may lack the dignity and beauty of a church and the warm personality of a home, it is quite all right. An improved altar set up in the room used for the service, and the room is decorated with flowers. Another room is usually used for the reception and refreshments.
