Resume Talks In Strike Of Meat Packers

ALBERT LEA, Minn. (UPI)—Authorities hoped that resumption of negotiations in a 74-day meat-packing strike would halt the violence that has continued almost daily for more than a month here.

Homes have been torn apart, windows shattered, cars burned and several threats of death made against 500 non-union workers by strikers at the Wilson & Co. plant, protesting the hiring of "scabs."

The more than 1,000 strikers also have been the butts of threats and violence. Charles Lee, president of Local 6, United Packinghouse Workers of America, said Sunday he had received a threat that his home would be burned.

Four pickets were stationed at the Lee home to guard his family, while the union leader is in Chicago today to attend bargaining sessions, resumed for the first time since shortly after New Year's Day.

The violence had simmered down late in December when negotiations were resumed for the first time since Oct. 29, and authorities hoped the sessions today would put an end to the warfare.

Beefed-up police forces have patrolled Albert Lea and the surrounding countryside for the past two weeks, searching out "night riders" who make after-dark strikes at the homes of non-union workers.

"I think that we're finally going to squelch these night riders," Police Chief Charles Heilman said Sunday. "We'll corner a few of them one of these nights."

Kintz Farm Is Sold At Public Auction

The auction sale of the Mrs. John Kintz farm, 2 1/2 miles west of Decatur on Monroe street, extended, brought $291 an acre for a total of $25,608. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Friedt, of 1204 W. Jackson, purchased the 88-acre farm. The sale was conducted by the Kent Realty and Auction Co. of Decatur.

Mrs. Pauline Haug Passes State Test

Mrs. Pauline Haug, of 1422 W. Monroe, received confirmation today of passing the Indiana real estate commission's final real estate brokers. Mrs. Haug took the test several weeks ago, but did not receive the scoring immediately.

The commission, when notifying Mrs. Haug, commended her on her high score, and also for passing the test on the first attempt. They noted that only three per cent of all who take the test pass the tough exam on the first try. Mrs. Haug was recently made a full-time real estate agent by the Kent Realty and Auction Co. of Decatur.

Out Our Way

Athletic Program At K. C. Tonight

A special athletic program will highlight the first Decatur Knights of Columbus meeting tonight following the regular meeting when the Rev. Robert Jaeger, athletic director at Decatur Catholic high school, and Al Lindahl, head coach, will present the aims and goals of the overall athletic plan.

The program will start at 9 p.m., with the regular meeting slated for 8 p.m. The special meeting will be open to the public, and all members are invited to bring guests.

The coach and athletic director will give their views on the upcoming county tourney and possibly some other pertinent information to basketball hungry fans. A surprise lunch will be prepared by the lecturers for those attending.

The "hot stove league" sideline coaches will be given an opportunity to have their questions answered by the two DCHS representatives as a question-answer period will follow their presentation.

Pistons, Knicks In Fort Wayne Wednesday

Fort Wayne, Ind. — The Detroit Pistons and the New York Knickerbockers meet Wednesday night in the only major league basketball game to be played in Memorial Coliseum this season, under the sponsorship of the Concordia high sports club. Members of the sports club, who hope to net more than $3,000 for their share of the receipts, are shooting for a crowd of 6,000 fans for the National Basketball Association game.

Detroit will feature three Western Division All-Stars: Chuck Noble, Gene Shue and Walter Dukes. New York is led by Kenny Sears, Richie Guerin and Willie Naulls. Game time will be 8:30. The
