Tickets On Sale
Season tickets, priced at $2 for the four-session tourney, are on sale at all seven competing schools. Single session tickets, priced at 75 cents, will be on sale only at the Adams Central gym box office, immediately prior to each session.

Trophies for the champions of both first team and second team tourneys are awarded annually by the Decatur Daily Democrat, and will be presented by Gail Grabill, county school superintendent, immediately following the final game Saturday night. Grabill will also present the Everett Rice sportsmanship trophy, donated by Robert Moninger, after the final game. The Lumberlost bell, traveling trophy of the Adams county schools, will also go to the county champion for possession until defeated by another county team, with the exception of sectional tourney play, when no trophies may be awarded, under rules of the IHSA.

Muncie Central Is Unanimous Pick For Top

By KURT FREUDENTHAL
United Press International
INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Muncie Central ruled the roost today in Indiana high school basketball with the second straight perfect score from the United Press International coaches' board.

It was the fourth straight time this season and seventh overall for the battling Bearcats in front in the state-wide ratings.

All 18 ballots had the unbeaten 12-game winners in first spot for a clean sweep and 180 points. The balloting was for games through last Saturday. Muncie hopes to be two scalps richer by Saturday night with road games at Anderson and South Bend Central.

Every other "Big 10" berth changed hands, however, and the biggest switch had Gary Roosevelt in sixth place. The Panthers, beaten only by Froebel of the Steel City early in the season, were upgraded from 11th place after knocking East Chicago Washington from the perfect ranks last Friday, 75-71.

Second-Place Tie

Four other teams moved up—Kokomo from fourth to second for a tie with Madison, which was third last week; Michigan City from sixth to fifth and Indianapolis Tech from ninth to eighth.

Rushville, bounced from the undefeated category at Seymour last Friday, 79-75, was demoted from seventh to 11th, and East Chicago Jasper, Bloomington and Indianapolis Attucks also slipped.

East Chicago was dropped from second to fourth, Jasper from fifth to seventh, Bloomington from eighth to ninth, and Attucks, idle since the Indianapolis holiday tourney, from ninth to 10th. Bloomington and Jasper skidded slightly although both were victorious last week.

The board of experts nominated only 19 teams this week, the smallest number all season. Dropped were Fort Wayne North, Goshen, Logansport, Concord, North Central (Marion), North Judson, Middlebury, LaPorte, Lafayette and Evansville Bosse.

Berne, Geneva In Second Team Tourney Finals

Berne and Geneva reserves teams will battle Friday night for the Adams county second team championship as the result of victories scored Tuesday night in tourney semi-finals played at the Berne gym.

The championship game will be played at 7 o'clock Friday evening at the Adams Central gym as a preliminary to the Geneva-Adams Central first team tourney tilt.

Geneva will be defending its county title, won last year.

Both teams won with little difficulty last night.

Berne led all the way in the opener to eliminate Adams Central. Berne was in front at all periods, 15-4, 24-12, and 40-20. Habegger paced the winners with 15 points and E. Inniger added 11. No Adams Central player reached double figures. Hoyerly leading with seven.

Geneva was in the lead at all periods, 14-8, 19-12, and 27-18, to defeat Monmouth in the nightcap, 38-25. Norr topped the defending champions with 17 points, while Brown and Kolter each tallied seven for the Eagles.

These teams met last month at Berne, with Geneva winning by a 42-30 score.

Kenny Lane Fights Ralph Dupas Tonight

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI)—Top-ranked junior welterweight Kenny Lane gets a chance to move up in the full-weight standings tonight in a rubber match with speedy Ralph Dupas of New Orleans in a 10-round television bout.

Lane, a Muskegon, Mich., southpaw, has had only two 147-pound class matches, winning both, and Ring magazine ranks him sixth among contenders for welterweight champion Carlos Ortiz, who beat him in a match for the title last June.

Unitas Named As Outstanding Pro Gridster

NEW YORK (UPI)—John Unitas, 26-year-old quarterback for the champion Baltimore Colts, today was named the outstanding National Football League player of 1959 in the annual United Press International poll.

Unitas won easily. He received 20 of the 31 votes cast by sports writers who covered the 1959 games in the 11 NFL cities.

Jim Brown, Cleveland Brown fullback who led the 1958 voting, was a distant second with three votes after leading the league in rushing for the third straight season since entering the professional game.

Two "old-pro" quarterbacks, Charley Conerly of the New York Giants and Bobby Layne of the Pittsburgh Steelers, and Raymond Berry, Baltimore offensive end, tied for third with two votes each. J. D. Smith, offensive halfback for the San Francisco Forty-Niners, and Pat Summerall, New York's place-kicker, split the remaining two votes.

Unitas, whose passing ability makes the Western Division All-Stars favorites over the East for Sunday's annual Pro Bowl game at Los Angeles, showed the marvelous consistency in 1959 that has marked his play since he joined the Colts in 1956.

Working behind Jim Parker, Art Spinney, Buzz Nutter and other huskies who provide what Coach Jim Lee Howell of the Colts calls "the league's best blocking for a passer," Unitas led the Colts to their second straight Western Division title.

He completed an all-time season high of 32 touchdown passes during the regular 1959 campaign while leading the league in completions (193) and passing yardage (2,899). He also led in attempts with 367 throws.

Unitas, signed by the Colts as a free agent for the cost of an 80-cent telephone call to Pittsburgh in 1956, is the most consistent passer to grace the NFL since Otto Graham guided the Browns to six division titles in as many tries in 1950-55. Unitas has thrown at least one touchdown pass in his last 37 regular season games, an NFL record.

Cincinnati Redlegs Sign McIlish, Bailey

CINCINNATI (UPI)—The Cincinnati Redlegs Tuesday announced the signing of Cal McIlish, former Cleveland Indians pitching star, and veteran catcher Ed Bailey to 1960 contracts.

Decatur Junior high and freshman teams swept a double header from Monroeville at the Lincoln school gym Tuesday evening. The Junior Jackets took the opener, 48-30, after leading at all periods, 18-10, 29-14, and 36-10. Swygart led Decatur with 14 points, and Crates topped Monroeville with 10.

Decatur freshmen were in front at all stopping points, 8-3, 20-8, and 30-10, to down the visitors, 39-13. Gause and Martin each scored 12 points for Decatur, while Benjamin was high for Monroeville with five.
