SPORTSEarly Wynn Of Sox Signed To Pay IncreaseBy MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Early Wynn, 40-year-old ace of the White Sox, laughingly said to today he'd like to keep pitching until he's 50 and added—minus any smile at all—he'll be shooting to win 20 games again in '60.

Wynn made the statements from Mercy Hospital in Chicago where he is undergoing an annual check-up and where he signed his new White Sox contract Wednesday which calls for an estimated $45,000.

"Maybe I can keep going as long as Satchel Paige," grinned the burly right-hander, who won 22 games last year and was rewarded for it with a "good raise."

Has Sights On Record
Wynn, with 271 major league victories to his credit already, would like nothing better than to surpass Lefty Grove's 300 lifetime victories. Grove was the only pitcher to reach that total during the lively ball era.

From his home in Dallas, Mickey Mantle said the Yankees cut his salary "too much" and he had sent his contract back unsigned. Mantle didn't disclose any figures but it was believed he was asked to take an $11,000 slice from his $78,000 salary of last season.

Red Schoendienst also revealed he had returned his contract to the Braves without signing it. The veteran second baseman took the maximum 25 per cent cut last year before undergoing surgery for tuberculosis and apparently is being asked to accept another cut now. Neither he nor General Manager Johnny McHale "anticipate any...major problem," however.

Three Cubs To Go
The Chicago Cubs, bidding to become the first club with all its players signed, announced they have only three more left to go with the acceptance of terms by pitchers Steve Ridsik and Al Schroll. Only Cub players still unsigned are pitcher Art Ceccarelli, catcher Cal Neeman and infielder Harry Bright.

Don (Perfect Game) Larsen, recently traded by the Yankees to the Athletics, signed his Kansas City contract with no haggling whatsoever and first baseman Vic Wertz said he has come to terms with the Red Sox.

The Dodgers signed catcher John Roseboro and veteran outfielder Carl Furillo. Roseboro probably was given a raise and Furillo was believed to have accepted a slight cut.

Robinson To Defend Title Friday Night

BOSTON (UPI)—Paul Pender, the rangy dark-haired Irish challenger from suburban Brookline, said today he expects to give Sugar Ray Robinson "a boxing lesson" Friday night and take what's left of his middleweight crown.

Pender, 29—at least nine years younger than Robinson—explained in the press room at the Hotel Kenmore: "I'll beat the old man with speedy in-and-out tactics like Billy Conn used when he was light-heavyweight champion."

The challenger with the broken sway-backed nose said he was confident he could outpoint Sugar Ray in their scheduled 15-rounder at Boston Garden.

Sugar Ray is recognized as champion by the New York and Massachusetts commissions. The NBA withdrew recognition because his last defense was made 22 months ago.

Pender added: "And if Robinson dares to try to knock me out in an early round, as he's promised, I'll probably stop him within 12 rounds. If he starts fast, he'll run out of gas in a hurry. He couldn't knock out Rocky Castellani five years ago. And he'll find me just as fast as Castellani and a much harder hitter. Even Castellani had Robinson on the deck."

Promoter Sam Silverman said the advance sale approached $75,000, indicating a gate of $125,000 and a crowd of 12,000. Tickets range from $5 to $20 for the nationally televised and broadcast (NBC) fight. There'll be a TV blackout on a 100-mile radius.

Robinson is favored at odds hovering around 5-1, but there's practically no betting.

Commodore Reserves Meet Bishop Luers

Al Lindahl, Decatur Catholic high school coach, announced this morning that the Commodores' second team will play the Bishop Luers team at the Bishop Luers gym in Fort Wayne Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Don Kellett Of Baltimore May Head Pro Loop

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Don Kellett, 50-year-old general manager of the Baltimore Colts, gained support today among strife-torn National Football League owners as the compromise candidate for the job of commissioner.

The 12 club owners were whooping it up after the Miami Beach battler pounded out a unanimous decision over Jerry Luedee of New Haven, Conn., in Wednesday night's nationally-televised 10-round bout. The 24-year old Pastrano—campaigning again with the light heavies after three years among the heavyweights—had given Luedee a thorough going over with a rapier-like left that kept his opponent off balance throughout the fight.

Pastrano weighed 177 1/4 to Luedee's 174.

Judge Eddie That had Pastrano in front, 100-92. Judge Stu Winston favored Willie, 98-93, and Referee Jimmie Peerless scored it 98-94. United Press International agreed 100-92.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Willie Pastrano says stow all that talk about his "comeback" because "I've never been away."

"That's right," chimed in trainer Angelo Dundee. "He's back in his groove fighting the light heavyweights and he never looked in better shape in the last three years."
