For Better Boys

One of the most important meetings of the winter will be held next Wednesday night at 8 p.m. in the city hall, and the public is cordially invited, especially baseball enthusiasts.

The meeting has been called to help organize the Little League for boys nine to twelve years old next summer.

Help is urgently needed in the form of coaches and managers. The purpose of the league is to build boys. It is a city-wide program, taking in all boys regardless of race, creed, or background. It takes a lot of work on the part of those who coach and manage the teams, but it is worth it. After all, boys who no longer have to work all day during their vacations must have something constructive, recreational, and physically competitive to occupy their time.

Tryouts will take place the last week in May, with the boys being placed on teams after the tryouts. Play is then on Tuesday and Friday nights, with practice between times. The league continues until the second week in August.

Little League is supported financially by contributions from merchants, manufacturers, and professional people, like lawyers, doctors, and dentists. There are six teams in the night league, and six more in the morning league, all requiring uniforms, caps, equipment, etc.

If you are interested in baseball, and want a challenging job helping the youth of Decatur, why not plan to attend the meeting?

"Do you have those in basketball shoes?"

Says Sen. Kennedy
To Run In Indiana

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Robert Kennedy, former chief counsel for the Senate Rackets Committee, hinted strongly Thursday that his brother, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), would decide to enter the Indiana presidential preference primary.

"I believe that my brother will consider very seriously entering the Indiana primary," Kennedy said after talking with a number of Hoosier boosters. "He is much impressed with the Indiana organization which has been set up in his behalf."

"I know that if Sen. W. Stuart Symington or Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson would run in Indiana, my brother would be a candidate," he said, "and I feel he might enter anyway."

Kennedy said a decision would be reached within the next two weeks. Senator Kennedy is scheduled to visit the powerful Democratic areas of Lake and Vigo Counties in two weeks.

34 Votes At Stake
Kennedy made his statements after it was pointed out that Lar Daly, Chicago perennial candidate in the Midwest, announced he would enter both the Hoosier Democratic and Republican primaries, and, if unopposed, might garner 34 Democratic votes for president on the first ballot.

The Hoosier primary binds delegates for the first ballot only. Afterwards, they are free to go as they please.

Former Democratic national chairman Frank McKinney has predicted most of the delegates will vote for Symington after the first ballot. However, he opposes an entry by Symington in the Indiana primary.

Robert Kennedy, who conferred with backers of his brother from many parts of the state, dared any of his brother's rivals to oppose him in a primary. He said the senator had decided against his counsel to run in Wisconsin, next door to the bailiwick of Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, and Humphrey should have enough courage to fight the Massachusetts senator in New Hampshire.

Optimistic About Chances
Kennedy said he is "very optimistic" about his brother's chances and added that he is strong in the Rocky Mountain states and in Ohio, Illinois, Nebraska, Kansas, New Jersey, Maryland, New York and the New England states.

He denied Republican allegations that the senator was "soft" on Walter Reuther and his United Auto Workers Union. "Walter Reuther is neither corrupt nor dishonest," Kennedy said. He pointed out that Reuther testified before the Senate Rackets Committee for four days and that the Republican counsel for the committee questioned him concerning violence in the Perfect Circle and Kohler strikes.

"The United Auto Workers made bad mistakes in mass picketing and in other activities during the Kohler strike," Kennedy declared, "but the company also made mistakes."

Emergency Landing
Made By Airliner

DETROIT (UPI) — A non-stop New York to Phoenix American Airlines DC7 plane with 45 persons aboard was forced to make an emergency landing here Thursday because of engine trouble.

The big airliner made a successful landing, but passengers were delayed six hours while another DC7 was flown in from New York to replace the disabled ship.

A spokesman for American Airlines said an oil leak had developed in one of the four engines.

Wicker Hampers
Wicker clothes hampers should be coated with shellac regularly to keep them spic and span. Shellac is best applied by spraying, but may be brushed on in a fairly uniform coating if thinned with an alcohol to a watery consistency. Use only fresh, white shellac.

Celery
Celery is excellent for those who suffer from nervous diseases and rheumatism. It can be cooked with a cream sauce, or just stewed with a butter sauce. Use it with salads, stewed tomatoes, or stuffings.

Modern Etiquette
By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Two of my nieces, who are 11 and 12, are to be in my wedding party. Where do they walk and what kind of dresses do they wear?

A. They can be junior bridesmaids, and they walk down the aisle immediately after the ushers and before the grown bridesmaids. Their dresses are modified copies of those worn by the other bridesmaids.

Q. Is it all right for a divorced woman, who has remarried, to attend the funeral of her first mother-in-law with her second husband?

A. This would be in very bad taste. If she wishes to attend the funeral, she should do so alone.

20 Years Ago
Today

Jan. 22, 1940—A series of meetings is planned in Adams county to present the soil conservation program.

Lewis S. Armstrong, former Decatur banker, has been promoted to the office of vice president of the St. Joseph Valley Bank at Elkhart.

Otto Holle, Adams county farmer, has been named as a member of the Purdue agricultural alumni seed improvement committee.

Eli Dubach, former Hartford township trustee, has announced his candidacy for nomination on the Democratic ticket for county commissioner.

The Pleasant Mills Spartans won the annual Adams county high school basketball tourney, defeating Monroe in the final game, 32-22. In semi-final games, Monroe eliminated Kirkland, 24-22, and Pleasant Mills downed Geneva, 39-24.
